FRAGMENTS.

See advertisement of the children's grand ball.

The Exponent for February 15th is out. Table of contents to-morrow.

It is said that the receipts of the Mapleson Opera Company in Chicago for one week were $10,000.

Grand Concert and Ball at the Theatre on Wednesday evening, for the benefit of the Tabernacle choir and the B. Y. Academy.

Those intending to go to the Tabernacle choir concert and ball have not secured their tickets should do so without delay.

Mrs. CHARLES was assessed $10 in the police court Saturday, for drunkenness, and in default of payment will do some work for the city.

The Eighth Annual Grand Carnival, in aid of the Log Cabin Temperance and Relief Societies, will take place at the Theatre on Tuesday, to-morrow evening. Comps. received.

MAYOR STEVENS, of Cincinnati, today received a draft for $2,500 from Col. J. H. Mapleson, for the Ohio sufferers, the proceeds of the benefit performance given.

Owing to the absence of Prof. J. L. Rawlins in Washington, the law lectures at the University will be postponed till his return. He will be back about March 10th.

The best musical and literary talent to be procured in the city will take part in the initial musical entertainment at the Salt Lake Music Hall to-night. A genuine treat is promised.

The Sixteenth Ward brass band will furnish the balcony music at the Salt Lake Music Hall to-night, and an orchestra comprising fourteen instruments will discourse music in the interior.

We have received from Parry & Co., Puck for February 26th, the Colorado Live Stock Record for the 13th, and the Elocutionist's Annual, Nos. 1 and 2, the latter filled with excellent selections in poetry and prose.

APOSTLE MOSES THATCHER is back from Washington and addressed the congregation at the Log Cabin Tabernacle yesterday. He was of the opinion that but little would be done by the present Congress in the way of hostile legislation towards the people of Utah.

Since the announcement that there was to be a children's ball at the Theatre on Saturday afternoon and evening, it is astonishing how loving and obedient the children are. The worried mother now says she feels as if there was some "rest for the weary."

The minority stockholders of the Utah Eastern Railway are as good as their word in taking legal steps for their protection. The Tabernacle, the petition in intervention, in the foreclosure suit of John E. Donly and Charles W. Bennett, trustees, vs. the Utah Eastern Railroad Company, et al. The petitioners' attorney is Arthur Brown, Esq.

The Kendall Comedy Company played "Fanchon, the Cricketer," to a fair sized audience at the Opera House, Saturday night. This company, as a general thing, is a good one, and deserves the patronage of theatre goers. They left for the North this morning, and will play this week in Brigham and Logan.

LOCAL NEWS.

The National Civil.—The Salt Lake Theatre last evening was filled to its utmost capacity with listeners to the lecture by Mrs. Kate Homer Clayton, which was delivered in an easy and fluent manner.

Mrs. Clayton followed the strain usually taken by other temperance lecturers. She pointed out many cases of mental aberration and the ruined homes, caused by the use of alcohol, and dwelt at some length upon the temperance law as dispensed in the States and Territories.

The Tabernacle Choir was in attendance, and was a prominent feature of the evening. Several new voices were sung and listened to with considerable interest.

Howard Seebree & Company.—This firm are receiving, for their spring trade, a full stock of Bain wagons, with all the latest improvements. Champion Reapers and Cord Binders, the Oliver Chilled and Moline Plow goods. All these are warranted first-class in every particular.

They handle, in fact, everything in the line of farm machinery, and have the most complete stock of hardware and wagon material. They are also in receipt of a full stock of the Porter Iron Roadsters. They have branch houses at Ogden, and at Caldwell, Idaho, all of which places of business are receiving a good share of public patronage.

Jail Birds.—Marshall Ireland arrived from Provo Saturday night, bringing with him J. F. Dunlap and Jesse Billingsley, who were lodged in the Utah Penitentiary. The former, in the First District Court, pleaded guilty to two indictments for grand larceny, in stealing a horse, gun and other articles from John B. Milner, of Provo, and was sentenced to seven years imprisonment.

Billingsley's case was also one of grand larceny, for stealing stock in Sevier County. There were two indictments to both of which he pleaded guilty, and was sentenced on one of them to two years in the Penitentiary, while sentence on the other was suspended.

Emery Hens.—Brother Orange Seely, one of the Presidency of the Emery Stake of Zion and a resident of Castle Dale, gives us a few items in relation to matters in that locality. Castle Dale is the county seat, numbers about 300 souls, of whom the inhabitants of the other settlements, engaged in farming and stock-raising.

Persons in quest of good homes and willing to work for them will find good chances to unite with the settlers there on any of the streams. A good desirable acquisition. Twenty-one men lately started to work on a five-mile tract from the Cottonwood stream to a large tract of land immediately north of the settlement.

Handington is going ahead in dwelling, and will eventually be the largest settlement in the county. It has but one Ward, while Castle Dale has two, about three miles apart, the other one being called Orangerville. All kinds of seeds and supplies are to be obtained there. The weather was very fine for out-door work at last accounts.

The people of Price settlement are taking steps to incorporate an irrigation company, to take water from the Price River on to their townsite. The canal is surveyed and when finished will swallow up and render needless the numerous small ditches now in use. The general health was good and everything was quiet and peaceable.

ASSEMBLY HALL.

SYNOPSIS OF YESTERDAY'S REMARKS BY APOSTLES M. M. LYMAN AND ERASTUS SNOW.

The first speaker alluded to the object and necessity of the sacrament of the Lord's supper, and showed that it was one of the most instituted by the Son of God for His disciples to partake of His covenants with the Father, and receive from time to time fresh outpourings of His spirit. This alone could qualify them as Priests and people to do His will acceptably and peacefully in San Francisco, although they appear there for eight nights, and only one here.

He dwelt upon the importance of priesthood and organization, that there might be order, strength and power in the Church, to combat the forces of darkness which would increase their opposition in correspondence proportion to the increase and gaining strength of the work of God.

There was no safety without continuous advancement, and an unflinching trust in the Almighty. No man ever yet stood by his own strength. God and Christ were the founders of this Church and the rest of the world.

No man could give another a testimony of the truth. Even Christ did not. He told Peter that "flesh and blood" revealed to him that He was the Son of God, but His Father in heaven. The Saints could not be converted because they knew they had the truth already, and not even force could avail to turn them from their convictions. They must expect persecution, but that best means of protection was to prepare for war, but for peace, the peace of a universal millennium, and God would fight their battles for them. He exhorted parents to watch over and train their children in the ways of truth and righteousness, which was one of the first commandments given to this Church.

The second speaker felt it a privilege to stand as a witness of the truth, confirmed in the hearts of Saints and testified of by the Savior and the ancient prophets. He showed how the work which we are engaged has been predicted by the prophets of God in all ages, from the beginning of time, and made quotations from St. John, Jeremiah, and others in proof of his statement.

This Gospel would be preached to every nation, kindred, tongue and people, but all would not receive it, for it was written that those who would not hearken to the voice of that prophet "like unto Moses," which was Christ, would be "cut off from among the people."

The speaker portrayed the infidelity of the world, both in Church and State, and gave as the reason why they were unable to comprehend the doctrines and position of the Latter-day Saints, the fact that they were of a different spirit, which held them in a thrall of darkness. He explained how it was possible for light to give way to darkness, and how the necessity of our being sealed by the Holy Spirit, and fearing Him only, that our testimony might not die out and disappear.

Death of Elder H. C. Fowler.—This morning, February 25th, at two o'clock, Elder Henry C. Fowler died at his residence in the 34th Ward. He had been ailing a considerable time, but not until within the last few days did there appear to be any danger of his succumbing to his bodily affliction. He was out on Monday last, having then attempted to resume his work at the Tithing Office, but was compelled by such prostration under which he was laboring, to return home, having taken fresh cold, which finally developed into pneumonia. Being almost irrespirable in spirit, he was about again on Friday, but suffered a severe relapse, from which he never rallied.

The deceased was a native of England and was born April 7th, 1828. He embraced the Gospel in Sheffield, Yorkshire, about thirty years ago. He presided over the Sheffield Branch of the Church, and was released from that position in 1865 to fill an appointment as Traveling Elder in the Conference of the same name. In January, 1864, he was appointed President of the Utah Conference, which position he filled for about one year, when he was appointed to preside over the Norwich Conference, acting in that capacity until released to come to Utah in 1865, arriving in this city in the fall of that year.

In 1874 he was called to go to England on a mission, which he faithfully filled, returning in 1876, having labored while in that country, in the London Conference.

Here, as elsewhere, he labored devotedly for the furtherance of the cause of truth. He was called to the home mission of this State several years ago, and acted in that capacity until his death. He was active and earnest in the performance of his duties, was a fluent and ready speaker, and undeviating in his adherence to the work of the Lord, never failing to testify to its divinity, whenever occasion required. His grief-stricken family have the sympathy of a very wide circle of friends.

The funeral will be conducted on Wednesday, Feb. 27th, at 10 o'clock, at the 20th Ward School House.

Third District Court.—Proceedings before Chief Justice Hunter, Saturday evening, Feb. 23, 1884.

People etc vs. Henry Shields, abusing prisoner; jury trial, verdict not guilty; defendant discharged.

People etc vs. James Sully, burglary; defendant withdrawn from plea, pleas guilty and sentence suspended.

Monday, February 25th.

People etc vs. Richard Price, manslaughter; defendant moves for a postponement of the case, made upon affidavit. Case postponed till March 12th, 1884.

People etc vs. G. T. Whitehouse, grand larceny; defendant withdrawn from plea of not guilty and files demurrer.

People etc vs. Alex. S. Hill, embezzlement; defendant pleads to the indictment not guilty generally, also further plea that this defendant has already been adjudged guilty of the crime charged in the indictment, by the judgment of the District Court, made and entered therein Dec. 10th, 1883. Prosecution moves for a continuance of case on affidavit filed; argued. Court affords postponement until March 12th, 1884.

Court adjourned till tomorrow at 10 a. m.

The Facts.—The other day Mr. Thomas Wright, of Bonanza, called and informed us that he had mailed a letter at Woods Cross post office, and that it was returned to him opened the following morning. We are told however, that the letter in question was not mailed by Mr. Wright in person, but by some one else, and was taken from the post office by Mr. Wright, but by another individual whose name was on the envelope. So far as we have been able to learn, it does not appear that Mr. Hales, the postmaster, was to blame in the matter.

Postmaster's Office.—The office at 11 a. m. on Saturday next.

ITALIAN OPERA.

For the first time in the history of Salt Lake City, on Thursday, March 28th, we are to have a genuine Italian opera company at the Salt Lake Theatre, composed of from 100 to 150 persons, embracing some of the finest singers in the world, and an unrivaled orchestra, all of whom are soloists.

The enormous salaries paid for this array of talent compel the management to advance the scale of prices, which are precisely the same, however, as will be charged for this company in San Francisco, although they appear there for eight nights, and only one here.

To accommodate all classes, the prices are graded down to one dollar, and as the house will be thoroughly cleaned and renovated throughout for this occasion, it has been suggested as a good plan to combine pleasure with economy, that clerks and other employees with their families and friends, club together for the purchase of their tickets, so as to be all seated together. The box office will open on Saturday next, at 10 a. m.

More Rabbit Shooting.—Some time ago we had account of a grand rabbit hunt at Draper, in which the young married men or "happy faces" were pitted against the young unmarried ones or "smooth faces," much to the latter's subsequent discomfiture, as they were compelled by the agreement made beforehand—that the losing side should prepare a dance and supper to which the winners should be invited free—to gracefully submit to their destiny and defeat at the hands of their Egan-like opponents.

Stung to the quick by their ill luck, and obliged to acknowledge the superior skill of the Benedicts in the contest, the "smooth men," were only too glad to accept another challenge from the other side for a similar match to be shot on the 9th of February. At this, marvelous to relate, the side which lost before, purchased with such vigor and determination that by night the two scores stood even—43 to 43, much to the astonishment and chagrin of the former and would-be-agala victors, who are hunting up another reason for their former defeat, and the one heretofore alleged of having deserted the ranks of bachelorhood.

CHESTER MATTERS.

CHESTER, Feb. 21, 1884.

Editor Deseret News:

After much perseverance we have erected a very comfortable Meeting house, certainly not the best of its kind being of hewed logs. It is the harbinger of a better one by and by.

We are happy in the resumption of the meetings and Sunday School. Thursday, Feb. 21st, our Bishop attained his 62nd year, and the 4th of the Ward conceived the laudable idea of giving him a surprise dinner and party.

To say that he was taken by surprise feebly expresses the idea. Viands, not to mention the excellent service, were the distinguishing features of the occasion. It was also the occasion of the presentation of a sacramental service of this branch of the Church by the ladies. The whole of the details and its successful carrying out was of the Ladies' Relief Society of this place.

These little cases are pleasant happenings in a Bishop's multifarious and sometimes unappreciated duties. It is now to be hoped some ministrations from "the authorities" at large may be now in our Meeting house. There always seems to be a Master Spirit in a settlement that conceives an idea, has force to make you see it and executive skill to carry it out, such was Aunt Zuma Howard, Sister Whitlock and Peterson, but all credit to our Bishop for the force, extent, and liberality of the Ladies' Relief Society of Chester.

A MAGIC POWER.

A Secret Agent at Work.

We were surprised the other day to learn that certain individuals in this city, who had for many years yielded to what was apparently an inevitable fate, were started from their torpid condition of semi-stupidity, into active and energetic life, by the pursuit of happiness. These parties had been bound by an influence as powerful as it was incurable. They knew not the cause, yet they were victims to the result. They were enchained, but they could not discern by what means they had been manacled. They had long sought deliverance in vain. They had sought science and the knowledge contained in books were equally unavailing. At last, relief came. It was not through any action of the President, or of Congress, for their trouble was not of a political character. Neither was it the Governor's Message relieve them, nor any action of the new Legislature, for it was not a legislative matter. They were suddenly and effectually cured from the bondage they suffered, and placed on the equal scale of human happiness.

"What was their trouble?" It was our readers' trouble. They had been rendered helpless by that universal enemy "Rheumatism." They had not walked or even moved without pain for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there," they had tried and tried, but they were not relieved and radically cured. Britannia was what it. It acted like a magic power. This secret agent, which coursed through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the system from the bondage of rheumatism, and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph, and the acquisition of the knowledge, by which they can at any time resist the encroachments of their future. But, will wait a future time.

FIDELITY BENEFIT ASSOCIATION.

We recognize the great financial loss man's family and business sustains in premature death, and know the strong desire to provide against such a sacrifice.

Many men only need protection for a few years during the time their families and business are wholly dependent on them or to bridge them over until they can enter the world as perfectly willing and able to take and pay for protection if they could get it for a price.

In addition to two, three and even four times this amount for reserves they do not do it, but so carry their own risks which no one should do. The Fidelity Benefit Association meets every week for the purpose of collecting only the present actual cost of carrying the risk taken and no more. They do not ask you to make trust them with your money annually as they lose and place millions of dollars in coffers, but to put only your mutual share of actual losses as they occur and in exact proportion to your risk. Recognizing the difference between the practice and the theoretical, we have adopted the practical knowing full well it will meet the approval of business men. The Fidelity Benefit Association is a purely Mutual Insurance Company, the only one of its kind in the world, and actual death losses. Members are divided into four classes according to age.

Class A includes members from 18 to 24, class B 25 to 30, class C 31 to 35, class D 36 to 40, class E 41 to 45, class F 46 to 50, class G 51 to 55, class H 56 to 60, class I 61 to 65, class J 66 to 70, class K 71 to 75, class L 76 to 80, class M 81 to 85, class N 86 to 90, class O 91 to 95, class P 96 to 100.

Each class has a different rate of contribution, and each class has a different amount of insurance. The rate of contribution is based on the age of the member, and the amount of insurance is based on the amount of contribution.
