

ARMENIAN SUFFERINGS.

Conditions Found by the Relief Committee—Husbands and Fathers Killed and Wives and Children Left Destitute.

Constantinople, May 25.—One of the most beautiful recollections that an Armenian traveler has of his visit to Constantinople is that of the relief work which he saw in the Armenian quarter. The Armenian people are suffering from the ravages of the Turkish government, and are carrying on for the maintenance of the thousands of Armenian widows and orphans made destitute by the Turkish government. The Armenian people are suffering from the ravages of the Turkish government, and are carrying on for the maintenance of the thousands of Armenian widows and orphans made destitute by the Turkish government.

When, however, the long threatened famine followed at regular intervals by the Turkish government in one village after another, the Armenian people were left in a state of destitution. The Turkish government was left with only the bones and the skeletons of the people who had been killed, and the Turkish government was left with only the bones and the skeletons of the people who had been killed.

of the Swiss National Committee of Armenian Relief, at Berlin. The following morning he watched all the women arriving with their work, and seemed greatly interested. On leaving he took every article of work he had left in the house and deposited for me a sufficient sum to relieve me of all anxiety regarding the work.

Railroad Engineer

Testifies to Benefits Received From Dr. Miles' Remedies.

There is no more perfect position on earth than that of a railroad engineer. In the little office to which each engineer is assigned, he is surrounded by the height and perfect self command, the point of the train and the lives of the passengers. Dr. Miles' Remedies and other remedies are especially adapted to keeping the nervous system, the brain cells and the mental faculties unimpaired.
