

BUSINESS ON THE EXCHANGE.

Daily-West Has Advanced More Than $2.00 Per Share.

ROCCO-HOMESTAKE FIRMER.

May Day Not So Strong Today—Grand Central Reacts—Yankee Con. Is Very Weak.

Business on the Mining Exchange closed today with the sale of 9,975 shares for the sum of $7,503. The sale of the week, exclusive of curb sales, amounted to $42,919.40, which sum represented the sale of 95,807 shares of stock. The most interesting stocks of the week were Daily-West, May Day, Rocco Homestake, Yankee Consolidated and Grand Central. A marked advance is recorded in Daily-West which is generally thought to have advanced on merit. The connection has now been made with the mine from the 1,200 level and the fact that the last chute of ore was run through for a distance of 200 feet in making this connection speaks big things. To be sure, the ore is not the highest grade, but it promises to disclose immense deposits when cross-cutting on the lowest level shall be fairly under way. From $30.25, the price at which the stock sold on Monday, it has advanced to $32.25 today, or more than $2.00 per share in a week. Some figure if Silver King paying a dividend of 10 cents per share, worth $50 or $55 per share Daily-West is surely worth $25 per share.

A new stock, Rocco-Homestake, of Eureka, Nev., has been listed during the week which immediately declared its initial dividend of 1 1/2 cents per share. Opening sales were made on the curb, but the stock has since advanced to $4.64, the price at which some 2,600 shares changed hands today. One sale was made today as high as $4.75.

May Day has stiffened up during the week owing to the benefits that will accrue to the company through the ore from the 1,200 level, and the fact that the stock has since advanced to $32.25 today. The survey was not as beneficial to Yankee Consolidated as to the May Day for after opening at $15 on Monday and selling down to $8 the stock moved up to 12. It has since weakened to 7 1/2, the price at which a ten day future changed hands today.

Grand Central entered the week very strong but a few days has made a difference in the quotation on the stock, though it has not affected the mine. Until a few days ago the stock was firm around $6.35. It was seen to grow weaker on Thursday and a sale was made yesterday at $6.20. In the afternoon, however, the stock fell off to $5.35, owing to rumors that the Mammoth was going to enjoin the Grand Central from taking ore from the south end of its property. The stock has since rallied to $5.45, the price at which 100 shares changed hands today. Mammoth, which sold up to $2.20 during the week was weaker today, selling from $2.14 to $2.16. Star Consolidated is stationary while Dexter shows weakness today with sales being made below $1.

LAST SURVEY OF THE YANKEE CON.

Shows That the Ore Dips More Into Yankee Ground.

JOHN HAYS HAMMOND GONE.

Left Today for California—Items from Bingham—Mr. Clement's Trip North—Creole Assays.

The result of the last Yankee Con. survey was announced today by Capt. Egan, who says that while it presents things a little more favorably for the Yankee Con. it does not differ materially from Mr. Brown's survey. It is said to show that the ore body dips more into the Yankee ground than the former survey but the distance that the Yankee Con. has trespassed on May Day ground is shown to be about the same as Mr. Brown's survey. This will doubtless settle the matter and the next step will be to determine the value of the ore extracted and make payment to the May Day company. That this will be done is assured. Some have expected that an arrangement might be made between the May Day and Yankee Con. companies, whereby the former might use the latter's tunnel but as yet nothing has been done in the matter. If this is not done it may be some time before the ore body will benefit the May Day people, as their south drift is not within 300 feet of the ore body in dispute.

HAS GONE TO CALIFORNIA.

John Hays Hammond Will Not Examine the Mercur Just Now.

Mr. John Hays Hammond, the widely known mining expert, has come and gone. He left this afternoon for California after spending a few hours here, from which the Yankee Consolidated has shipped, entering May Day ground. After selling at 3 1/2 on Monday the stock has since sold up to 36. It fell off to 34 1/2 today. The survey was not as beneficial to Yankee Consolidated as to the May Day for after opening at $15 on Monday and selling down to $8 the stock moved up to 12. It has since weakened to 7 1/2, the price at which a ten day future changed hands today.

CREOLE ASSAYS.

The Drift from the 265 Level Shows Very Encouraging Values.

Reports of a very encouraging nature continue to reach this city from the Creole Mining company's property at Park City. Several assays were made a few days ago of ore taken from the drift of the 265 level, the best of which showed 57 ounces silver, 40 per cent lead and $2.00 gold per ton. As the management is not within 25 feet of the point where it expects to get the contact—the drift being still in the quartzite—the above assays are considered extremely favorable.

VISITS THE AJAX.

The North West Drift from the 700 Level Struck Again.

Manager Thomas Weir returned from the Ajax last evening where he reports work going along very much as usual. A new start has been made in the northwest drift on the 700 level through the restoration of the supply of compressed air from the Mammoth mine. It will be several weeks before the management gets to the point on the 1,000 level, where a strike is expected. Meantime a nice grade of copper ore is being extracted, the last shipments of which showed an average of almost 25 per cent in the red metal.

MINING NOTES.

The Eureka Hill had six cars of concentrates on the market today.

The Ophir Hill was on the market today with six cars of concentrates.

The Montezuma of Bingham was on the market today with two cars of ore.

Four cars of concentrates and two cars of crude ore were reported today from the Horn Silver of Frisco.

Denman Blanchard, who is largely interested in the Overland and Chloride Point mines, is expected here next week from Boston.

The Taylor-Brunton Sampler reported six cars of ore from Tinto, two from Bingham, six from Stockton and six from Frisco today.

Manager Ed Loose of the Grand Central was in town today. He had nothing to say further than the fluctuation in the stock does not change the mine.

Col. S. B. Milner and Glen R. Bothwell returned from Iron County today, and report that work on the iron beds has ceased for the winter.

L. E. Ritter returned today from Tinto. While away he and others inspected the El Rey and Sunbeam mines, the latter of which will in a few months be opened from the El Rey shaft.

Treasurer George H. Dern of the Con. Mercur, returned to town today after spending several days at the mine. Explorations of a very favorable nature are reported in the Golden Gate.

Notwithstanding the rumor that the Mammoth will file an injunction against the Grand Central, nothing definite has yet occurred. Mr. McIntyre has talked over the matter for some time. He and others claim the apex to all the ore that the Grand Central is taking from the south end of its property and it is probable that sooner or later suit will be instituted against the Grand Central.

MESSANGER BOY ON THE STAND.

Young Whittenberg Cross-Examined in Prowse Murder Case

ARE SOME CONTRADICTIONS.

His Testimony in Regard to Headgear Worn by the Men Is Somewhat at Variance.

There was but a small attendance at the opening of the court at the Prowse murder trial this morning. The two prisoners still maintain their calm demeanor, showing a great amount of nerve in the face of the case the State is piling up against them.

The argument over the admission of the evidence of young Whittenberg in regard to the action of the defendant King after he went into the saloon and the conversation which took place between witness and King at that time was continued. The point taken by the defense was that after the act was done that any act on the part of one of the alleged conspirators could not be admitted in evidence. Counsel cited many cases where the courts had held that such evidence could not be admitted. The objection he made over to the defense was sustained by the court.

The boy Whittenberg was then recalled and cross-examined by Mr. Wansless. He said that he had good eyesight and was not subject to severe headaches and had not consulted a physician in regard to his eyes. He had been over to Commercial street for some dishes; when the shooting took place he saw the men running down the alley. After leaving the saloon, when he saw King and the short man, he said he went over to the Sheep Ranch saloon but did not go up stairs. From there he went over to the messenger office where he mentioned the fact of seeing the men in the saloon. After that he said that he spoke to the police officers and pointed out a man to them on the opposite side of the street at the same time stating that he was about the size of the tall man in the saloon. He said he knew that King had on a flat topped broad brimmed black hat, and the short man wore a hard black derby hat.

"Are you sure it was a hard black hat?" asked the attorney for the defense.

"Yes."

"Positive?"

"Yes, perfectly. No, I think it was a soft white hat."

"Now which was it?"

"A soft white hat."

Witness then stated that he was about fifty feet behind the two men when they went into the saloon.

At this point one of the jurors was taken with a chill and the court adjourned to 1:30 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At the afternoon session of the criminal court, the boy Whittenberg was placed upon the stand and the cross-examination of the witness continued. He told of his visit to the county jail where he identified King as one of the men he saw in the saloon. He said that he did not read the account in the newspapers about the arrest of King. He did not know and had never heard that Sheriff Howells had seen two men going south on State street who might be the men.

In direct examination the witness said that when King was in the saloon he appeared to be very nervous and acted as if he was trying to hold his breath. He further admitted that he did not notice that the thumb was off of one of his hands.

"You noticed his hands were shaking, and yet when he was facing you you did not see his thumb was off?"

"No, sir."

At this juncture the prisoner King was brought up before the jury, and witness showed how his hands were when he came into the saloon.

"Do you still say that you did not notice his thumb being off?" reiterated the attorney.

"I noticed that his hands were shaking when he turned around."

"You'll be sworn Col. Prowse?"

"Yes, sir."

"And you want some one convicted of his killing?"

"If he is guilty."

"Do you want King convicted?"

"I do."

The witness was then dismissed and Walter Dudleux was called to the stand as the court closed.

IN THE COURTS.

Judge Cherry Makes Several Legal Orders Today in Regard to Cases.

In Judge Cherry's court today the following orders were made:

In the case of John R. Parry vs. R. M. Winkler, judgment of possession of property was issued.

Ten days' additional time was granted to plead for all the defendants in the suit of Joseph Goehrgan, receiver for the Salt Lake Electric Light and Power company, against Utah and Salt Lake Canal companies.

In the case of Idelman et al vs. B. K. Brockmeyer, leave was given to file supplementary complaint, making T. W. Brockmeyer a party to the suit.

By consent, the demurrer in the case of H. W. Brown vs. H. M. Zerbe et al was withdrawn and 30 days given to answer.

MEETING WELL ATTENDED.

Superintendent Cooper Lectures to the Public School Teachers.

A well attended meeting of the public school teachers was held in the High School building this morning. Besides a full attendance of teachers there were many patrons of the schools present, who thoroughly enjoyed the meeting. The feature of the gathering was a lecture by Superintendent Cooper on the subject of "The Public School as an Instrument in Character Building." The theme was handled in Mr. Cooper's well known vigorous style and the building of character, the latter of which will in a few months be opened from the El Rey shaft.

Treasurer George H. Dern of the Con. Mercur, returned to town today after spending several days at the mine. Explorations of a very favorable nature are reported in the Golden Gate.

Notwithstanding the rumor that the Mammoth will file an injunction against the Grand Central, nothing definite has yet occurred. Mr. McIntyre has talked over the matter for some time. He and others claim the apex to all the ore that the Grand Central is taking from the south end of its property and it is probable that sooner or later suit will be instituted against the Grand Central.

BUSINESS NOTES.

There has been little talk of anything during the week except the election, but financiers and brokers have found some time to give to the buying and selling of some of the favorite stocks. Utah Sugar has again moved up several points, and advice from the factor today states that the $5,000,000 pound mark was passed yesterday. The Ogden factory expects to turn out between five and six million pounds, the Lehi factory about double that amount, a satisfactory record when the extreme drought of the past season is considered.

The price of sugar remains stiff, and large amounts have been shipped by both companies to Montana, Idaho, Colorado and Kansas points. The following are the latest quotations:

BONDS.

Church bonds .. 105.00
S. L. City R. R. bonds .. 104.50

Several big sales of bonds are reported during the past week. Notwithstanding the amount of money seeking investment in Church and Salt Lake City Railroad bonds there has been very little activity during the past few weeks, owing to the difficulty in locating up about reasonable prices.

During the past week, however, one firm of local investors purchased $19,000 worth of Church bonds at 105 1/2, or 108, and interest. Local parties also bought $11,000 worth of Salt Lake City Railroad bonds at 104 1/2. The above sales were made through Broker E. L. Burton, who, in addition to the above, disposed of a block of 50 shares of Clark, Eldredge & Co.'s stock at 84, and $3,000 worth of stock in the Utah Sugar company.

BANK CLEARINGS.

The total bank clearings of the country for the week ending yesterday, amounted to $1,673,134,234, a falling off of 12.5 per cent from the same week last year. This is altogether a phenomenal record, considering that the nation is almost in the throes of a national election. Salt Lake's figures fell off only 2 per cent, the total being $2,392,270. This put us ahead of Los Angeles, Portland, Me., Atlanta, Worcester, Sioux City and Dayton.

TROUBLE OVER PARK'S PROPERTY.

Mrs. Wilkinson Does Not Propose to Move Out.

MAKES A BOLD GUN PLAY.

Tells Professor Roylance She Will Shoot Him or Anyone Else Who Attempts to Take Property.

There is yet more trouble over the estate of the late Dr. John R. Park. This time people are claiming possession of his south State street property who apparently have no right, whatever to it. The people who are now in possession of the place are Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, who have lived there for five years without paying a penny of rent. Their claim to the property is based upon a quit-claim deed obtained from Lorenzo Price some years ago. Dr. Park purchased the property and brought a suit to quiet the title in which he won, he also obtained a writ of judgment and then the Wilkinsons moved out.

Prof. Roylance, to whose wife the property was left, has been visiting the place recently repairing it, etc. The other day the Wilkinsons moved back into the house without the knowledge of Mr. Roylance, and when he went down there yesterday afternoon to do a little work, he was mildly surprised to see that Mrs. Wilkinson had taken possession, and furthermore, she proposed to maintain possession undisturbed when Mr. Roylance attempted to enter the house she presented a gun in his face and told him she would shoot him or anyone else who attempted to take possession of the property. Mr. Roylance left, but today the matter was placed in the courts and it is quite likely the Wilkinsons will be ejected.
