DIED.

At his residence in Midway, Wasatch Co., after a long and dreary time of sickness, ROBERT CUNNINGHAM. He was born March 13th, 1827, at New Kilpatrick, Scotland; baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, in 1857, by Elder Paul Gourley; emigrated to Utah in 1861, settling at present residence, Midway, in Wasatch County. He was ordained to the office of High Priest by President A. Hatch in 1869, and died on Saturday, November 26, 1881. Deceased leaves a widow and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss. In his faith in the Latter-day Work he was never known to waver. In his duties he was ever faithful and exceedingly punctual.—COM.

At Franklin, Oneida County, Idaho, Dec. 4th, 1881, SARAH SOPHIA SMITH, wife of Edward Kingsford, junior, aged 23 years, 2 months and 18 days, in full faith, leaving a husband and three small children to mourn her loss.

MIL Star, please copy.

At Castle Dale, December 8, 1881, METTE KIRSTINE JOHANSEN, wife of Louis Johansen; born Nov. 28th, 1851.

At Pennycook, Scotland, September 30th, 1881, of neuralgia, after a severe illness of four months, ANN NISBET CRAIG, wife of John Lamont, late of the Falkirk Branch.—MIL Star.

At her residence in Tooele City, Monday, December 12th, at 2 p. m., of dropsy and heart disease, Mrs. ELIZABETH WHITE, the wife of Benjamin Clegg, born at Billingsly, Lincolnshire, England, August 1st, 1813, and embraced the Gospel in November, 1843; emigrated in Elder Orson Spencer's company in January, 1849. On reaching Council Bluffs, her husband, Jonathan White, died, leaving her with a small family. Through many privations and trials, she arrived in Salt Lake City the same fall, where her cheerful, untiring, energetic disposition won for her many friends. In the spring of 1850 she was married to Brother Benjamin Clegg, who was ever a kind, sympathetic husband; and in the fall of the same year removed to Tooele, being among the first settlers of Tooele Valley, encountering the vicissitudes arising from Indian hostilities, grasshoppers, famine and many other circumstances incident to the settling of a new country; through all of which she maintained a firm and unshaken faith in the great Latter-day work, living up to all the requirements and privileges of the Gospel, assisting in every enterprise for the promotion and building up of the same.

On the organization of the Relief Society in 1879, she was chosen counselor to the president, which position she filled nobly until her death.

She was the mother of seven children, and leaves forty-two grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. On Wednesday, at 10 a. m., her mortal remains were carried to the meeting-house by some of her grandsons, followed by a long procession of relatives and friends, as well as officers and members of the Relief Society from all parts of the State. Very comforting and instructive addresses were delivered by Patriarch John Rowberry and Apostle F. M. Lyman, after which the large cortege moved to the cemetery, where the body was laid away, in a sure and certain hope of a glorious resurrection.

BENEFACTORS.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were sceptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to-day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.
