Killing in Corea Scholastic.
New York, Nov. 25.—A. Kenneth
the Herald from Hongkong says:
Reports from Chemulpo, dated Nov.
2, assert the killing at Seoul is sustained.
Three Koreans were killed recently.
The fathers of the kidnapped man were executed in the capital. The British warship Hecaton has arrived there.

Andrew Lerner, a partner of Chilo, who has been convicted a number of previous times in the leading cities of the United States, has a charge for Max Yarnstein. On the way to the police station he made a dash for liberty but was recaptured.
