Tilden still at the Front.

NEW YORK, 7.— Tilden's friends ridicule the story of his withdrawal. Captain Rynders, the vetern politician, saw Tilden and subsequently said: "I know all about the story and talked with Tilden about it an hour ago. There is not a bit of truth in it from begining to end. Tilden is in better health than for years. He has not been examined by any doctor, and there has not been any conference between him and his political friends about his withdrawl. He has not sale to any one that he is not a candidate. I know whereof I speak, since my information comes direct from Mr. Tilden.

Reid's Generosity.

To-night a party of 19 boys gathered from the homes of poverty and from the lodging houses of the Children's Aid Society, started for Winchester, Virginia, where they will find homes with farmers in that vicinity. The cost of the outfit and of the journey was paid by Whitelaw Reid from funds placed in his hands to be used in placing poor children in positions where their future success depended upon their own efforts. This is the first company sent off by Mr. Reid to the South.

No Instructions.

NEW HAVEN, 7.—The republican State convention met to-day, Moses Street chairman. A resolution favoring the nomination of a man like Edmunds or Washburne was withdrawn, the spirit being opposed to instructions. Henry C. Robinson, John M. Douglass, Augustus Brandage and Samuel Fessenden were chosen delegates at large. The convention pledged vigorous support of the nominee of the Chicago convention. The State delegation stands, Blaine 5, Edmunds 4, Washburne 3.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Bismarck's Resignation.

LONDON, 7.—Though no small excitement and even wild alarm were at first produced by the publication of the momentous news of Bismarck's resignation of the Chancellorship, these feelings soon gave way, on more sober reflection, to the conviction that the incident must not be looked at in its most serious light. No one can possibly believe either, that the Chancellor earnestly desires to withdraw from office. He has confessedly too much unfinished work in hand for that, or that the Emperor, even if convinced of the serious intentions of his illustrious services, would readily grant the liberty he demanded. The Chancellor probably does not care whether or not the proposed receipt stamp tax is adopted. But in its rejection he discovers convenient opportunity for altering the state of things in the Federal Council, which has long annoyed him, nor can it be doubted that the fundamental change of the imperial constitution affecting the Bundesrath is the real object he has at heart.

Of the 58 votes distributed among 25 members of this body, Prussia possesses 17, a little less than a third of the legislative influence appertaining to it, while her proportion of Imperial population is about five-eighths of the whole. What has now happened might very well occur again, and Prussia might find herself in the predicament of having been out-voted on some much more momentous question than the present one by her principalities and dukedoms, even when seconded by one or two kingdoms. To obviate, therefore, such an untoward coutingency is unquestionably the aim of the Chancellor.

The statement that Bismarck tendered his resignation three days ago and that upon the Emperor's refusal to accept it, he tendered it again on the ground of ill-health, is unfounded. Bismarck only tendered his resignation yesterday. The decision of the Emperor regarding the resignation is not yet made known.

Notes.

A private letter from Aleppo, dated the 18th of March, says: In consequence of the famine, 4,000 Koors descended from the mountains, plundered the town of Mardeen, Asiatic Turkey, and murdered a number of priests and nuns and some European merchants.

The return of the liberal government in England is considered a serious pledge of peace for Europe. There is without doubt an improvement in the relations between Russia and Germany.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

RENEW YOUR AGE.

Ay, but how? that is the question. In the first place, ladies, discount twenty years from your actual age by giving a youthful transparency to your complexions with GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP. You can do it; there is no mistake about it, and with absolute safety too, for the preparation contains no injurious matter. Beware of counterfeits. See that "C. N. Crittenton, Proprietor," is printed on each packet, without which none is genuine. Sold by druggists at 25 cents; three cakes, 60 cents. Then, if your hair be slightly tinged with gray, take off another ten years by converting it to a splendid brown with HILL'S INSTANTANEOUS HAIR DYE, which has the double advantage of being the cheapest and the best Dye in the world. Depot, 7 Sixth Avenue, New York. d eod&w

Solid Facts will Tell.

For all the bitter opposition of jealous rivals, no better illustration could be had of this fact than the immense sale already attained by the great Throat and Lung Remedy, Dr. Aug. Kaiser's German Elixir. For the cure of Coughs and Bronchial Affections, it is truly wonderful, even those suffering from Consumption in advanced stages find great relief, and numbers of patients have found, to their delight, not only relief, but cure. It being perfectly harmless, makes it at once popular with mothers, who of all others have felt the necessity of such a medicine. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. A trial size may be had for 25 cents.

THE man who heeds not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through indolence, the victim of incurable diseases. Lassitude, Weariness, Sadness, Aching of the Limbs indicates nervous disarrangement, the forerunner of many organic and functional diseases. DR. C. C. GILLELAND, of Gallatin, Mo., writes: "I have sold your Sarsaparilla, Dandelion and Iodide of Potassium, for more than one year, and used it in my family, and can say that I never used or sold a remedy for the Blood or Liver that gave as good satisfaction as this medicine.

Read What a Physician says:

"I was afflicted with a severe attack of inflammation of the eyes, and could get no relief until I tried Brown's Arnica Salve. Since then I have used it in my practice, and freely say that I think it is the most wonderful healing salve ever made and invaluable in every family.

IT IS TRULY WONDERFUL

TO SEE what improvements now exist as compared with railway travel only a few years ago. To become convinced of this, one has only to select for his route East, the popular and well-known

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY.

You are landed by the Union Pacific R. R. in the Union Depot at Council Bluffs, where stands the C. and N.-W. Pacace train, composed of Pullman Hotel Cars, Pullman Sleeping Cars, elegant Day Coaches, Smoking Baggage, Postal Cars, etc., ready to convey its passengers through Iowa and Illinois, and into Chicago. Gliding smoothly along over the superb track of steel rail through thriving cities and villages, comfortably seated in this train, one scarcely discovers the high rate of speed which he is riding. Trains of this road are always on time, connections sure, and passengers seeking pleasure, comfort, safety and ease in traveling, will find the "North-Western" in excess of their expectations, and the greatest of all routes to Chicago and the East. Insist upon Ticket Agents selling you Tickets via this road; all Agents sell them. Examine your Tickets, and refuse to buy if they do not read over this Road. If you wish the best Traveling Accommodations, you will buy your Tickets by this Route, ☞ AND WILL TAKE NO OTHER. dswly
