TERRIBLE DEATH OF LITTLE CHILD

Fell Into Tub of Hot Water and Was Literally Cooked.

BURGLARS LOOT A STORE.

Amalgamated Sugar Co. Distributes Large Sum—New Club for Ogden.

Ogden, Dec. 17.—Johannes Van Workon, the little 20 months' old babe of John and Elizabeth Van Workon, was seriously scalded Saturday afternoon when he died 24 hours later, after suffering terrible agony.

Saturday afternoon the mother of the child was confined to her bed, and her child was left in the kitchen. She had a tub of hot water standing on the floor ready to put some clothes in, when she was called to the next room for a moment and left the child in the room alone. On her return she was horror-stricken to see the little one's feet hanging over the tub, it having fallen head foremost into the hot water. He was quickly rescued and Dr. Conroy was summoned. He found the child terribly scalded to his hips. Oils and compounds were applied to reduce the pain, and the little one was made as comfortable as possible, but the heat had almost cooked the flesh on his bones, and all that could be done was to relieve his suffering until death came to call his spirit home. The grief of the young parents is very great. They live near the corner of Monroe avenue and Twenty-first street. The funeral will likely be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

STORE BURGLARIZED.

Thieves Broke Into Hutchinson's Store.

Ogden, Dec. 17.—The sporting goods store of T. S. Hutchinson, located on Twenty-fifth street near Grant avenue, was entered by burglars some time Saturday night and about $20 worth of merchandise taken. Mr. Hutchinson locked the store up carefully Saturday night, and the burglary was not discovered until late Sunday morning. The burglars had taken out a part of the rear window through which they crawled, and helped themselves to over four dozen pocket knives, one dozen razors, two fine cameras, a number of men's fine sweaters and several other articles. As soon as the burglary was discovered the police were notified, but having no clue other than a description of the stolen goods to work on, no trace of the burglars has been secured.

DOCUMENT DEPOSITARY.

U. S. Papers to be Placed in Carnegie Library.

Ogden, Dec. 17.—The Carnegie Free Library of Ogden is to be made a depositary of all public documents. This information has been received by Judge J. A. Howell through a communication from George M. Hanson, secretary to United States Senator George Sutherland, who states that the senator has designated the Carnegie library for that purpose. All documents published by the United States government will be brought up to date and forwarded to Ogden as early as possible to be placed and as new publications are gotten out by the government in the future a copy will be forwarded to the depositary. Each United States senator and congressman has the privilege of designating such a depositary. Senator Reed Smoot selected the state university, Salt Lake City, Congressman Howell, the Agricultural College of Logan, and Judge J. A. Howell brought these facts to the attention of Senator Sutherland, he gladly consented to giving his concession to Ogden. The Carnegie library board has decided to make one of the upstairs apartments the document room, and will have suitable book cases and other necessities installed at once ready to receive the books. The people of Ogden are truly appreciative of Senator Sutherland's gift.

LEWISTON.

Still Hauling Beets—Smallpox Abating—Death of a Pioneer.

Special Correspondence.

Lewiston, Utah, Dec. 12.—The recent rains have made it possible to get out the few acres of beets which were caught by the snow and frost. Nearly all beet hauling is done, a few farmers having yet a little hauling to do.

There is plenty of work for men and teams at the factory hauling in the beets which were piled out on the ground. The factory is making a most successful run this year, which will not close until sometime in January and the output of sugar will be excellent.

There are no new cases of smallpox reported, and the three families under quarantine was such as to be nearly again. No deaths have resulted as yet from the outbreak, except the daughter of Mr. William Hybee, who died from a complication of ailments.

Services over the remains of Elisha H. Rogers, who died on Sunday last, of general debility and old age, were held here yesterday, many consoling words were spoken and expressions of sympathy of the deceased were given by the speakers. Mr. Rogers was one of the pioneers of Lewiston. He had suffered much for a year or more through weakness caused by a stroke of paralysis. He leaves a wife and several children to lament his demise. He died as he had lived in full faith of the gospel.

Mrs. A. H. Bower, who came so nearly suffering a stroke of paralysis, is in a critical condition. Her ailment is a severe case of neuritis of the brain. Her speedy restoration to health is anxiously looked and hoped for by a host of relatives and friends.
