Local and Other Matters.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 3.

Wet.—Quite a rain storm last night.

No District Court To-day.—Owing to the somewhat severe indisposition of Chief Justice White, he was unable to attend to his judicial duties in the Third District Court to-day, and in consequence an adjournment was taken this morning till to-morrow at ten o'clock.

Too Much Whiskey.—Yesterday forenoon a somewhat aged man, named J. A. P. Acton, was found by the police, near the Overland House, insensibly drunk. He was taken to the City Hall, and placed in the jail, where he died about five o'clock in the afternoon. He was a habitual drunkard, and died from that cause, and such was the verdict of the jury who subsequently held an inquest over the remains.

Mutual Improvement.—A Young Men's Mutual Improvement Society was organized last night, in the 17th Ward, with the following officers—

President, John Henry Smith; Vice President, James L. Clayton; Secretary, W. C. Spence.

After the election of officers, the President of the Society made some appropriate remarks, in which he showed the usefulness of such organizations, when judiciously conducted, in inducing the young people to form studious and exemplary habits.

Those Horses.—Recently deputy Sheriff N. V. Jones arrived in the city from Beaver with about fifty head of horses, which he had obtained on an attachment against John F. otherwise "Ben," Tasker. As the horses of a large number of people in this vicinity have, at various times, mysteriously disappeared, those persons are anxious to have a look at that band, thinking that their animals may probably have formed an attachment for that horse fancier. We state, for their benefit, that the animals will be in the yard of the General Tithing Office after two o'clock to-morrow.

Magnanimity.—This morning a couple of oxen were hauling a large heavy load of thick timbers a distance of about one block. In addition to the heavy burden of wood, there sat perched on the top of the pile, four stalwart philanthropists, who, instead of each carrying his own carcass, must needs pile another six or seven hundred pounds upon the already heavily laden beasts. If straws indicate which way the wind blows, that little circumstance may do something toward showing that none of those four will be likely to make the reputation or record of a Berg.

Motion to Vacate.—On May 17 a notice was served upon the attorneys for the plaintiff in the case of Young vs. Young, and the same was filed yesterday in the office of the clerk of the District Court, thus placing the motion to which it relates on the calendar, with a view to its being argued, as soon as practicable, in the District Court. Here is a copy of the notice—

"Take notice that on Saturday the 22nd of May, 1875, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., of that day, or soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, the said defendant will, at the federal courthouse in Salt Lake City, move the said court for an order vacating and setting aside the order and decree herein made and entered on the 25th day of February, A. D. 1875, requiring the said defendant to pay to the said plaintiff or her order the money therein mentioned, as alimony pendente lite and counsel fees to her attorneys, Messrs. Tilford, Hagan & McBride.

"The said motion will be made and founded upon the records and papers on file in said court.

"Hempstead & Kirkpatrick, Williams, Young & Sheeks, attorneys for defendant."

Quite an Incident.—Somewhat of a commotion was created on the street last night by the circumstance of a man named Berry walking behind another man, on the way to the City Hall. Berry had a drawn pistol in each hand and threatened to perforate the body of the other if he attempted to get away, he claiming to have him under arrest, and also claiming to be a detective. He also swung his weapons around in the direction of other parties, putting them in bodily fear and jeopardy. On reaching the City Hall the tables soon turned on Berry, he himself being placed in jail for threatening and endangering the life of the man he so conspicuously escorted to the police court, and who proved to be entirely innocent of any breach of the law; and on another charge of leveling his pistol on other citizens. Berry was brought before Justice Pyper this morning, when he dilated in strong terms on the uncalled for character of his arrest, and the injustice he was suffering in being locked up in jail, all of which was listened to with commendable patience by the police Justice, who succeeded in mollifying him. He said he was not ready to go to trial, and the case was continued till this afternoon at two o'clock. Berry appears to be a peculiar genius.

City Council.—The City Council met last evening, Mayor Wells presiding.

The action of the Mayor, in promising a donation of $500, in behalf of the corporation, for the relief of the Virginia sufferers, was unanimously sustained, and the amount appropriated.

The petition of merchants and other business men of the City, in relation to fire limits, &c., published in the News of Monday, was referred to the committee on municipal laws.

Alderman Pyper presented his report of police court business for October. It showed that the number of cases disposed of was 64; collected in cash fines, $288.50; labor fines, $270; report placed on file.

The committee to whom was referred the matter of the petition of Richard Brinley and others, asking that street lamps be placed at the crossings of Third West Street, along the line of the Utah Southern railroad, reported that in view of the numerous city public improvements now being made it would not be advisable to accede to the prayer at present. The committee recommended that the supervisor be instructed to examine the crossings in question and, should he find them to be out of repair, or in bad condition, to draw the attention of the Utah Southern railroad officials to the fact.

Bill of expenses, for October, of Marshal and Chief Engineer, $294.35; allowed.

Bill for police services, in October, $1,023; allowed.

Bill of William Hyde, for boarding city prisoners in October, $283.65; allowed.

Bill of Dr. Young, for professional services at the Asylum and jail, in October, $55; referred to committee on claims.

Bill for lumber used at the Asylum, $120; referred to committee on claims.

Communications were received from Councillors Feramor Little and Theodore McKean, stating that they were about to leave the city and expected to be absent for some time, and tendering their resignations as members of the City Council. Mr. McKean also tendered his resignation as superintendent of the Insane Asylum and hospital. Both communications were laid over for future action.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 4.

Recovering.—We are pleased to be able to state that Chief Justice White's health is much improved to-day, although still unable to leave his bed.

Visitors.—Yesterday afternoon President Young was sufficiently well to receive, and converse with a short time, Barea Rothschild, Prince Frederick of Wittgenstein and Count Turenne, who visited him at his residence.

Emigrants Arrived.—The company of emigrants and returning missionaries, whose names appear in this issue of the NEWS, arrived by last evening's train. They had a pleasant and prosperous journey; no deaths.

That Front.—The placing in position of the fine iron front of the Z. C. M. I. new building, commenced to-day, under the direction of Brother Elias Morris. It will extend up the entire three stories of the structure, and is of very beautiful design.

Scandinavian Missionary Service.—We have been requested to publish the following:

"Mr. N. T. Lang, missionary from Chicago, will preach to-night at 7.30, in the 2d Presbyterian Church, to the Scandinavians of this place."

Fined.—Yesterday afternoon E. M. Berry, the man who was arrested on Tuesday night for compelling a man to make a forced march from East Temple Street to the City Hall, at the muzzle of a couple of pistols, was fined $20 for that offense, and for menacing the lives of other citizens, with the same dangerous weapons, $10.

Attempted Suicide.—On Tuesday night an Evanston man and a woman of the town of this City, while in each other's company, attempted self destruction, by poison. Dr. Hamilton, who was called in, pumped the stuff from their stomachs, and they were thus prevented from going to the other side.

The Sanitarian for November contains "Preventable Sickness," "Boys and their Mothers," "Ventilation for Health," "Infant Diet," "Homes for the People," "Died of Hair Dye," "Value of Health to a City," and a number of other interesting articles. The Medico-Legal Journal is now incorporated with the Sanitarian.

Exactly Right.—In past seasons when crops in Cache Valley have been good the people thereabout have generally shown a ready disposition to rush their grain into market, getting frequently but a small return for it. We are glad to learn, from a reliable source, that such is not the case this year. They are generally holding on to their breadstuffs, in accordance with the counsel of their best advisers. It may not be very long before they will feel glad at having taken such a course.

Wide Awake, No. 5.—This illustrated magazine for boys and girls contains "Madame Mob-cap," "Sad Story of a Little Girl," "Afternoon with an Indian Princess," "Mrs. Opposum and her Daughter," "A Bath in Great Salt Lake," "Our English Story," "A Queer People," "How Big Does the Moon Look?" "Why the Roses Fade," "The Magic Carpet," and a number of other articles, and twenty-five beautiful illustrations.

List of Emigrants.—The list of emigrants, which we publish this morning, only arrived by last night's mail. The emigrants left Liverpool Oct. 18. The envelope containing the list is postmarked Liverpool, Oct. 15, so that here is a loss of one day at least, the list usually leaving Liverpool the day after the emigrants. The emigrants arrived last night, in 22 days from Liverpool, including the day of sailing. The list consequently was 20 days on the way.

Third District Court.—There being a question as to the legality of the adjournment of Court yesterday by the Marshal, in the absence of Judge White, on account of severe illness, the latter made the following order—

Third District Court of the Territory of Utah, County of Salt Lake.

WHEREAS, The condition of the business in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the Territory of Utah, is such that the undersigned, the Judge of said district, is unable to do the same. Now, Therefore I, Alexander White, Judge of the said district, do hereby request the Hon. Jacob S. Boreman, Judge of the Second Judicial District of said Territory of Utah, to assist me in the transaction of the business of said Court, and proceed immediately with the transaction of the business of said Court.

Witness my hand at said Salt Lake City, Utah Territory, this 3rd day of Nov., A. D. 1875.

ALEX. WHITE,
Judge of Third Judicial District.

Accordingly Judge Boreman was upon the bench yesterday afternoon and, after transacting some little business, adjourned Court till Monday morning at ten o'clock.

Dogs.—Quite a number of keepers of unregistered dogs were before Justice Pyper to-day. The city is overrun with canines, and some of them are of no other apparent use than to make night hideous by their plaintive howlings and piteous whines, breaking the stillness of the midnight air and startling babies in the neighborhood from their peaceful slumbers. A good faithful dog is a noble animal, but a worthless barking cur is an unbearable nuisance that frequently needs abating. There are some neighborhoods that are afflicted with them, where in the dead of night one of them will set up a yelping that is echoed from a couple of dozen other canine throats, making a concert the harmony of which could only be excelled by fifteen sets of Scotch bagpipes, all playing different tunes at the same time. Anything that will lessen or mitigate the dog nuisance would prove a boon to a great many people.

Plenty of Bread—Co-operative Butcher Shop—R. S. Building—Winter Recreation—Theatricals—School Examination.

WELLSVILLE, Cache Co.,
Utah, Nov. 1, 1875.

Editor Deseret News:

Every indication is that of approaching winter, but a plentiful harvest diverts it of half its chills. The statistics show that we have raised eight thousand bushels of grain over last year's crop, so, with wisdom to guide us, we are partly armed against the "hoppers." Early last spring the U. O. board started a butcher's shop, which has proved a success so far; after killing between sixty and seventy head of beef cattle, besides muttons, they have closed up for the purpose of "balancing" and declaring dividends, which, from present prospects will be very fair, after selling meat all summer, at prices ranging from three to nine cents per pound, the hides being sent to Smithfield tannery to be returned in leather, which will in all likelihood prove the nucleus for another industry.

The Relief Society have commenced operations on a house which they will call their own, a very handsome building, according to the design, and one of which they might well be proud. It is to be in the form of a cross, having three rooms, the centre one being 30 x 15, for meetings, quiltings, and such like, with a room on either side 12 x 14 for shop and store room.

Dancing not being popular since the abandonment of round dances, it is expected that intellectual exercises will almost take its place here this winter, more attention being given to the improvement of the mind than has been.

The Salt Lake Dramatic Troupe will give one or two representations here in a day or two, all things being favorable, so we are expecting our fill (Phil.) of fun! Our own lovers of the "sock and buskin" will play in two weeks for the benefit of an organ for the choir.

Last Sunday our Sunday school met for the purpose of holding its semi-annual examination. There was a very good attendance of young and old, both participants and spectators. Thirty-two boys and girls recited pieces, all very pleasingly. Miss Sarah Maughan recited some "Lines to a Missionary," with considerable pathos, sent from Nottingham, England, by her father, Bishop Wm. H. Maughan. Under the circumstances it created quite a feeling in the school, every sympathetic chord being touched with its appropriateness.

Our day schools have not yet commenced their winter session, but expect soon to see them in operation with increased school facilities.

Respectfully,
W. K. R.
