

THE TRUTH IS SURE TO WIN.

ALTHOUGH Allen G. Campbell claims to be a Democrat, there is a strong effort among the promoters of the conspiracy to rob Utah of representation in Congress, those conspirators being Republicans, to make a party question of the dispute over the right to the seat, and enlist the Republicans on the Campbell side, they with their connections being in a voting majority. But we notice that some strong Republican papers are getting hold of the true state of the case. Among them is the New York Times, which is a leading organ of the Republican party, and which has the following to say on the Utah Delegate question:

"The Utah contest in the House is among the very first topics for brisk discussion. The question was not settled yesterday, and it is likely to cause much trouble before the seat is awarded. Clerk Adams, it appears, placed Cannon's name on the roll of members-elect, the ground for his action being the presentation to him of a certificate from the territorial secretary, showing that Cannon had received 15,588 votes, whereas Campbell had only 1,357 votes. Speaker Keifer yesterday ruled that Cannon's name was wrongfully placed on the roll, and he forbade that it should be called. This is a somewhat arbitrary ruling, and it is doubtful if it can be sustained. The certificate of election on which Campbell bases his claim is a singular document. The Governor does not certify that Campbell received the highest number of votes cast at the election for delegate, but that he 'was the person, being a citizen of the United States, having the greatest number of votes,' etc. This is an ingenious invasion of the law, the Governor having allowed himself to be first drawn into an inquiry of Cannon's alleged imperfect naturalization."

The foregoing are editorial utterances of the Times, and the annexed is from comments in the same paper on a telegraphic account of the recent proceedings in the House:

"The same question as to Mr. Cannon's qualifications was raised a few years ago in Congress, and after a thorough investigation, decided in his favor. Governor Murray had no right to issue a certificate of election to Campbell, and in view of the Constitutional right of the House to determine the qualifications of its members, it is doubtful whether the Utah court had any authority to pass upon that question. It is the duty of the Governor to certify to the facts as they are of record in the office of the Secretary of State for the Territory. In this case the Governor ignored the facts and upon the assumption that the candidate having the highest number of votes was disqualified to serve as a delegate in Congress, issued his certificate to a man who received less than one-tenth of the number of votes cast for his opponent. Thus the Governor has assumed to decide a question which the House alone can decide."

Bold and rank falsehood is the chief resort of the conspirators, and falsehood for a time may work its way with the multitude. But give truth a little time, and though it is often slower it is a great deal surer than its opposite, and the viler the falsehood the greater its defeat when truth gets a fair hearing. The facts in this case are bound to come to the top, no matter how deep or murky the flood of falsehood let loose to drown it out. The manifestation of the truth in this case and victory for Delegate Cannon are inseparable, and the latter will be the inevitable consequence of the former. Time will try it all, and prove what we say to be correct.

ANOTHER PIECE OF JUDICIAL INFAMY.

In the District Court on Friday, Judge Hunter denied the motion of Arthur Brown, Esq., to correct the record of the order of court sustaining the demurrer to the complaint against George Q. Cannon. It will be remembered that a suit was commenced in that court by Sutherland and McBride, attorneys for A. G. Campbell for the purpose of having the naturalization papers of George Q. Cannon declared fraudulent and void. Mr. Cannon's attorney demurred to the jurisdiction of the Court in this case, and the Court sustained the demurrer and dismissed the suit against Mr. Cannon. So far all was regular. But the objectionable feature in the ruling, and which Mr. Brown sought to have corrected in the record, was this:

The Court declared in the Opinion as one reason of the dismissal of the case, that George Q. Cannon admitted in his demurrer the facts stated in the complaint, namely, that "the certificate of naturalization was obtained by fraud and fraudulently used." This statement of the Court was false, as no such admission had been made by the defendant. We have already published the demurrer in proof that no such admission was made in any shape or form. Why then should the Judge make such an official assertion, and on its error being pointed out, why did he not correct the record?

Let us look into it a little. It is well known that the law firm that brought the suit is engaged in bolstering up the fraud now sought to be perpetrated upon Utah and the nation, by foisting upon Congress as Delegate from this Territory a person who was not elected, and who in no sense represents the citizens nor any party of the people. They failed in the object of their suit, but in order to ward off the effect of their failure, it appears that one of them J. G. Sutherland, wrote the ruling, which the Judge adopted, asserting the rank and abominable falsehood it contains. The paper, in the handwriting of J. G. Sutherland, we learn from unimpeachable sources, was filed with the Clerk of the Court. Judge Hunter has now become fully responsible for it. The document not only contains palpable untruths, but it was written by one of the counsel interested in the case, and was framed for the purpose of being used against Mr. Cannon in this contest before Congress. It was immediately telegraphed all over the country, and the press everywhere in referring to it stated, as they had good reason to suppose from the dispatch, that Judge Hunter had adjudicated Mr. Cannon's naturalization void.

The Judge privately repudiates any such signification to his ruling. He denies that he meant any such thing as the plain wording of the order intimates. Here is his own language on this subject, verbatim:

"The order as entered simply states, that on the statements or allegations of the complaint, and the effect of the demurrer, the demurrer was sustained. Of course there could be no finding of facts, as none were presented. The finding is based solely on the legal effect of the demurrer."

These are Judge Hunter's own words. Why then does he permit such a statement to go upon the record as that contained in J. G. Sutherland's false Opinion which he has adopted? Will not every man who understands the contest now in process perceive that it is part of the infamous attempt to cheat Mr. Cannon out of his seat in Congress, and this Territory out of representation in that body? Can any respectable non-"Mormon" endorse such proceedings? Is a man who will stoop to such paltry and shameful tricks fit to sit on the bench as Chief Justice of this Territory? The statement in that ruling, that such admission had been made, was false in fact and false in law, as we have heretofore proven. The demurrer simply objected to the jurisdiction of the Court. Neither in person, by counsel, or in any other way has Mr. Cannon admitted that which the ruling says he has admitted. The statement stands on the record to the everlasting disgrace of the attorney who penned it, and of the Judge who adopted and permitted it to be placed there without correction.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY, DEC. 18.

Escaped Convict.—Last night John Golding, an escaped convict from Idaho, was arrested in one of saloons in this city. He was placed in the city jail for temporary safe keeping, and will shortly be returned to the place from whence he came.

Badly Hurt.—On Wednesday last a boy named Walter Bunn, nine years of age, son of Brother George Bunn, of Tooele, was thrown from a horse at that place. The side of his head and his ear were cut open. A surgeon was called, who sewed up the ugly gashes, and the patient was apparently doing favorably. Some fears were entertained, however, by the attending physician, that concussion of the brain might ensue.

United.—In another part of the paper will be found a notice of the uniting in the bonds of matrimony, of Francis C. Teasdale and Delphia B. Hague. The bridegroom is the son of our old friend President George Teasdale. He has opened business for himself in Nephi and is pursuing a very exemplary course. The bride is the daughter of Brother John Hague, and is an intelligent and amiable young lady. The young couple have our hearty congratulations and best wishes.

Shooting Scrape.—The Ogden Herald of yesterday contains the following:

"About 7 o'clock, last night, Mr. Wm. Studer left his place of business in the Y to return to his home on Franklin Street. He went up Fifth Street as far as the Shamrock saloon, when he turned south, a short distance. F. H. Thompson sprang up from beneath a fence and with an objectionable expletive presented a pistol at Studer's breast. Studer struck the weapon, causing it to point upward, when it was discharged. Studer then jumped several feet and fell on the ground, when Thompson fired a second shot which passed over the body of Studer without hitting him. Thompson afterwards gave himself up to the sheriff."

The Artesian Well.—Yesterday morning, one of the employees of this office paid a visit to the artesian well, on the bench northeast of the city. He says it has reached a depth of 675 feet, and is progressing at the rate of about two feet per day. It is now below the level of the Great Salt Lake, and penetrating through a stratum of brown cement and gravel. The work is being conducted for the city by Mr. E. Bench. Progress has been considerably delayed for some time past in consequence of the loose formations, and the large boulders met with, which have prevented the iron piping from following down as the depth increased. This difficulty is now removed, as the piping rests upon a body of hard cement, and the boring is progressing without the aid of the pipe.

A Hanging Jury.—The Pinyon Climax mining suit has been one of the longest on the legal record of Utah. The trial occupied nearly a month, and the jury appear to be unable to arrive at a verdict. The case was given to the jury at 3 p.m., on Wednesday, December 14th. Yesterday they appeared in court and asked for a statement of portions of the evidence. The Judge informed them that they were supposed to remember the testimony, and the instructions already given by the Court were sufficient. They then returned to their room.

This morning, the jury put in another appearance in court, and stated they believed it was not possible for them to agree upon a verdict. The Court, however, refused to dismiss them, and sent them back to their room for further deliberation.

Later—At 2 o'clock this afternoon the jury again appeared in court, and having failed to agree upon a verdict, were dismissed.

The jury stood, on the first ballot, eight for the Pinyon Company and four for the Climax Company. The evidence was gone over repeatedly, but the situation stood from the beginning to the close of the forty-seven hours' deliberation, the same. They were as immovable as the notable 8 to 7 of the historic high commission on the Tilden-Hayes presidential difficulty.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY, DEC. 17.

Lost Letters.—A package of letters, evidently belonging to a party by the name of Radford, was found this morning. The owner can get it on calling at this office.

The Exponent.—We have the Woman's Exponent for December 15th. It is an excellent number containing the usual quantity of attractive and instructive reading matter. The Exponent should be in every domestic circle.

Provo Factory.—The Territorial Enquirer intimates that the Provo factory will shut down about the 1st of January, and resume about the 1st of March. In the interim, the Superintendent, Brother James Dunn, will visit the east, in the interest of the institution.

Interesting Incident.—To-day we were informed of an interesting incident in the life of sister Martha J. Coray, who died at Provo the other day. She appeared at one time to be at the point of death, from pneumonia, Dr. Roberts having given her up and all about her having lost hope of her surviving. When all expectation of recovery had been abandoned by those around her, she turned her face to the wall, and said in effect, "even as Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and asked thee, O Lord, for an extension of fifteen years to his life, so do I now, for the sake of these my children." She recovered, and that incident occurred fifteen years ago this winter.

The Ladies' and Primary Conferences.—The Relief Society Conference of Salt Lake Stake was held yesterday in the Council House, Counselor E. S. Taylor presiding. Verbal reports were made by the presidents of the various branches, which were most satisfactory, showing that the different societies were doing much benevolent work and were enterprising in all home industries. A great degree of improvement is manifested in the rendering of reports.

During the day the meeting was addressed briefly by President E. R. S. Smith, Counselor E. S. Taylor, Mrs. R. M. Carrington, Mrs. M. N. Hyde, and Mrs. R. R. Grant. At the close of the afternoon meeting Elder Joseph E. Taylor addressed the audience upon the subject of plural marriage. Altogether it was one of the most interesting and instructive conferences ever held in this Stake.

The Primary Conference was held this morning, Ellen C. Clawson presiding. Verbal reports were made by the several Presidents, and brief speeches by Pres. E. R. S. Smith, Louie Felt and Camilla Cobb. The singing by the children was excellent, and constituted an attractive feature.

The Y. L. M. I. A. is in session this afternoon Mrs. M. A. B. Freeze presiding.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, DEC. 19.

Art Exhibition.—The Utah Art Association will open its first exhibition of pictures in the Reform Club Rooms, First South Street. We have before noted the progress of the preliminary arrangements. A good exhibit—an artistical treat—may be confidently anticipated. The admission will be 25 cents; children half price.

Young Ladies' Conference.—The conference of Y. L. M. I. Associations at the Council House, on Saturday afternoon, was well attended, the hall being crowded. The officers of the local associations gave encouraging reports. The meeting was addressed by Sister E. R. S. Smith, on the necessity of application and perseverance on the part of the young people, that they may improve in every direction that is good. Remarks were also made by Sister E. S. Taylor and Sister M. A. B. Freeze, the president of the Stake Associations.

Delayed at Chicago.—A few days ago Miss Nettie Sharp was taken East by her father, Bishop John Sharp, and her mother, the objective point of the trip being Florida, where the young lady was to remain for some time for the benefit of her health. On reaching Chicago, however, Miss Nettie had become so feeble, probably from the effects of the journey, that it was considered imprudent and even dangerous to proceed beyond that point for at least ten days. Her brother, W. G. Sharp, Esq., went east yesterday morning to stop at Chicago with his sister and mother while Bishop Sharp proceeded to New York, on urgent business requiring his presence there. We hope Miss Nettie will soon recover.

Mooney's Manner.—Michael mooney, under sentence of death for the murder of Joel Hinckley, has changed from his mood of apparent sullen indifference as to his fate, and shows signs of weakening. A person who lately visited him in jail says that his appearance is very much changed from what it was in the court room. The sullen look he wore there was gone. He seemed so glad to have some one to speak to. Although he spoke pleasantly and cheerfully of places he had traveled through, and differences of people, drops of perspiration broke out upon his forehead, while he pulled his coat around him and said he was chilly.

Nearly a Fatal Mistake.—Last week Sister Zina Y. Williams, who resides at Provo, made a mistake that came near proving fatal. She had been suffering from an affection of the throat, and used a gargle, and a liquid for outward application as well. She inadvertently substituted the one for the other and swallowed a quantity of arnica and chloroform. Dr. W. Pike was immediately summoned, and after the application of various means, animation, which had partially suspended, was restored. The doctor said it was a close call, and a few minutes' delay would have decided the matter on the wrong side. We learn this morning that Mrs. Williams had recovered from the effects of her mistake.

A PROVIDENTIAL ESCAPE.

CONDUCTOR JOHN CHUGG COMES NEAR LOSING HIS FOOT BY AN ACCIDENT.

Yesterday, at the Utah Central depot in this city, Conductor John Chugg had a narrow escape from suffering a terrible accidental injury. In the absence of some of the yard men he was attending to some matter about the train when his foot was caught between the cowcatcher and the rail. Shortly after he was struck those who witnessed the accident were horrified to see what they naturally supposed to be his foot detached from the limb. The relief of everybody around, especially Mr. Chugg may be imagined when it was discovered that it was only his shoe, which had been wrenched or torn from the foot.

Yesterday morning Mr. Chugg was fortunately not able to find the button-hook, and left his shoe partially unfastened. Had it not been for this circumstance the foot would, in all probability, have been drawn into much closer quarters than it was, and destroyed. As it is the member is badly bruised, but no bones are broken. It was a very remarkable escape.

The New York Clipper lately cited the case of Captain Jacob Schmidt, of Tompkinsville, Staten Island, N. Y., who had been a great sufferer with rheumatism for many years. He used St. Jacobs Oil with splendid success.
