SOCIAL CHAT

The week opened with a large reception and dance given at the Country club on Monday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Blyth whose wedding took place recently at Evanston, the affair being given by Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Keith and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Blyth. About 200 invitations were issued, and the club house was beautifully decorated for the event, the dancing room being done in sunflowers, and the dining in red dahlias, the table being prettily arranged with flowers and broad ribbon streamers in the same colors. Rugs and divans were on the porch, and colored lights illuminated the grounds. Mrs. Keith wore a pink gown with luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Miss Helen Bozard.

A number of parties accompanied the opera company to Orem yesterday for the performance of "The Wedding Day."

An interesting event of the week was the birthday celebration of Mrs. Ann Callister who, on Tuesday, attained her 81st anniversary. A large number of descendants and relatives were present and spent a most enjoyable time in reminiscences and social pastime. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Halliday entertained at cards on Wednesday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wright and Earl Wright of California, about 20 being present. The rooms were bright with plumes of asparagus and red berries, and dainty prizes were awarded.
