The Reading Room.
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—The Reading Room and Iron Company have 45 collieries, and all are reported in operation the morning except six. General Manager McLeod says it is only a question of a few days when these will also be in operation.

Master Workman Lewis today received telegrams from the master workmen at Saco and Middlebury, New Hampshire, and the latter were being discriminated against and not allowed to return. Lewis says he will investigate, and if the facts are as stated, the strike will be resumed in three days, and will be continued until the company will have a fair adjustment of salaries and other matters.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—At Mason City the mill men were discharged today and the feeling is intense, bordering on a riot.
