The city council met in regular session last evening and transacted the following business:

Repairs on the hose tower on fire station No. 1, estimated at $180, was authorized.

The report of the committee on laws on the claim for back salary presented by five firemen was taken up, A lengthy report was read from the city attorney, in which he held that they were not entitled to any back salary unless it were between the passage of the ordinance, which reorganized the fire department and their appointment, which occurred February 7, and April 11, 1898, respectively. The matter was then recommitted to the committee on

The claim of W. C. Weaver, receiver, $187.90, hydrant rental and repairs on hydrants used for street sprinkling, laid over for another week,

The petition of the Ogden general hospital for a ten years' lease of the nospital was granted at a rental of sloo per year to be expended in perma-ment improvements. Doctors Joyce and Conroy of the hospital were given the freedom of the floor, and presented the facts, that since they leased the hospital they had expended $2,500 in remodeling and repairing, and were about to expend $1,000 more on the granting of the petition. The bids for fire hose were taken from the committee of the whole and con-sidered by the council, but action was leferred for one week. The mayor appointed J. H. Watkins sanitary inspector in place of Wm. Moyes, who had resigned, and the appointment was confirmed. The committee on laws reported on the petition of A. S. Burt for the re-covery of the streets erroneously dedi-cated to the city in Pacific Place, rec. ommending reference to the city attor-ney for his opinion. The matter was so referred.

The committee on streets recommended that the petition of Andrew Chris-tenson and others be granted, and that Second street be graded and placed in fair condition at an expense of $150.

A board of equalization notice in the matter of opening Twentieth street was adopted and ordered published. The poundkeeper filed his monthly re-

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE CARDSTON, CANADA. AT PUBLIC SALE.

First Snowstorm-Railroad Prospects Sidetracked-Visit from Indians. Special Correspondence.

Cardston, Alberta, Canada, Sept. 25 .---We have just experienced the first snow storm of the season, and Cardston presents this morning a very pronounced wintry appearance. We have been favored with a visit from the "elite" of the Piegan Indians from across the line, who brought their from across the line, who brought their wives and sweethearts over, with their race horses, for a few days' sport, and they took possession of Cardston for a week, and they had a gala time.

As it rained hard for a couple of days they were somewhat disappointed at the delay. A dance in the evening at 'Keari's Hall' made up for their dispointment. On the 18th inst. we were favored with a political meeting at the Assem-ity Hall, and a large and intelligent undience listened to our representative. Mr. Frank Oliver, give a clear and con-cise statement of his stewardship, with hich his constituents here were well oleased.

RAILROAD PROSPECTS SIDE-TRACKED.

The people of Cardeton, who were coling somewhat elated over the prostheir prospects have been side-tracked, A public meeting will be held on the st of October to draft a petition against the granting of further govern-ment subsidies unless the railroad comes direct to Cardston. Geo. Patten, an inmate of the insane asylum, died at that institution today. The cause of the young man's mental condition as well as his death is due to a so-called practical joke perpe-trated upon him by friends during the isit of Governor Reosevelt recently o Salt Lake City. Patten was about 29 years of age, and Hved at Manti. Sampete county, and with a number of Sampete boys, went to Salt Lake to par-ticipate in the "Rough Riders" par-ade in honor of Governor Roosevelt, Patten was a man who never drank into visiting ligners and had the recou

Intoxicating liquors, and had the repu-tation of being a very moral young man. His companions, knowing these conditions, twitted him a great deal, and Patten finally commenced to drink a little with them to stop their making fun of him. His companions then took him around to "do the town," and most of the dives of the city were visited during the night. When Patton recov-ered from the effects of the liquor, he felt that he had disgraced himself as well as his family, and being of a very sensitive nature, the affair preyed greatly upon his mind, and he became very remorseful, and then a raving maniac, and was committed to the State insane asylum about a week ago, and continued to grow worse until today,
