

HEARST REPLIES TO FORAKER'S REPLY

Produces Two More Letters from
Archbold of Standard Oil
Co. to Ohio Senator.

TAKES A WHACK AT MR. BRYAN

Calls Him a Shell Game Man at a Country Fair and an Astounding Juggler.

St. Louis, Sept. 18.—W. R. Hearst, in a speech opening the Independence party campaign in Missouri at the Odeon theater here tonight, answered the reply of Senator Joseph B. Foraker to the letters read by Mr. Hearst in Columbus, O., last night, and read two more letters from John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil company to Mr. Foraker.

The new letters, Mr. Hearst said, refute the claim of the Ohio senator that all his work for the Standard Oil company related solely to Ohio matters.

A good sized audience greeted the New York editor when he began his speech at 8:30 o'clock, but approval of his utterances was not unanimous. Hisses mingled with cheers when he assailed the Democratic party and Mr. Bryan.

Not only did Hearst reply to Senator Foraker, but he also devoted a portion of his speech to Gov. C. N. Haskell of Oklahoma, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, whom he charged with having served the Standard Oil company.

To the defense of Mr. Haskell that another man of the same name was involved, Mr. Hearst replied with affidavits alleged to have been made by former Atty.-Gen. Bennett of that state, in which he gave the front rank of the Democracy stands C. N. Haskell, along with those other patriots and martyrs, Roger Sullivan, Tom Taggart, Murphy and McCarran.

Mr. Hearst spoke about 50 minutes and then made a dash in an automobile for the Union station, where he took a train for Memphis, Tenn., where he speaks tomorrow night. He was followed at the theater by Thomas Hilsen of Massachusetts, the presidential candidate of the party. Hilsen discussed the campaign issues raised in the party platform and analyzed the conditions which, he declared, made the formation of the Independence party necessary.

Mr. Hearst in his address said:

"Mr. Foraker replies in characteristic Republican manner. He practically admits that he did serve the Standard Oil and is proud of it. His statement is based on letters I read last night. If he had seen the letters I am going to read tonight, he would have denied the whole matter."

"The first letter follows:

MORE ARCHBOLD LETTERS.

"26 Broadway, New York,

"January 27, 1902.

"My Dear Senator—Responding to your favor of the 15th, I give you pleasure to hand you herewith certificate of deposit for $40,000 in accordance with our understanding. Your letter states the conditions correctly, and I trust the transaction will be successfully consummated. Very truly yours,

"J. D. ARCHBOLD.

"Hon. J. B. Foraker, Washington,

D. C."

The second letter, as read by Mr. Hearst, was:

"26 Broadway, New York,

"February 25, 1902.

"My Dear Senator—I venture to write you a word regarding the bill introduced by Senator Jones of Arkansas, known as 'S. B. 9,' intended to amend the act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies, etc., introduced by him Dec. 4.

"It really seems as though this bill is very unnecessarily severe and even violent. Is it not much better to test the application of the Sherman act before resorting to a measure of this kind? I hope you will feel so about it, and I will be greatly pleased to have a word from you on the subject. The bill is, I believe, still in committee. With kind regards, very truly,

"J. D. ARCHBOLD.

"Hon. J. B. Foraker, Washington,

D. C."

"The bill referred to in this letter is one introduced by Senator Jones of Arkansas in the United States senate. Consequently, Foraker's statement does not convince when he said the correspondence had nothing to do with any legislation in Congress.

A WHACK AT BRYAN.

"When Bryan was nominated in 1896, I had just reached success with my New York paper. I pondered all night what I should do. I stood everything to lose, and I decided to gain. I did not believe in free silver, but I did believe in Democracy. I decided to make a fight for Bryan.

"My successes crumbled, advertisers threatened to withdraw their patronage if I continued to support Bryan. The deficit for October, 1906, was $158,000. But we did not surrender."

Mr. Hearst said he gave his reasons for leaving the Democratic party.

"Mr. Bryan," he said, "is a shell-game man at a country fair, executing a shell game. While he is the little ball-free silver, public ownership, the referendum—gone."

"Mr. Bryan is an astounding juggler. He balances on one hand Belmont, the union labor broker, and on the other Gompers, the union labor leader."

"Mr. Bryan is the political loose-skin man. You cannot tell whether he is coming or going."

"Mr. Bryan charges that I am angry at him because he did not support me for the presidency. That is not true. The Independence party was formed to restore genuine Democratic government. I am in this party because I find in it a better and truer Democracy than in the old parties; because I find in it more patriotic and intelligent leadership than in the old parties."

FOUR PATIENTS DEAD.

Result of Mary Arthur, Nurse, Giving

Poison by Mistake.

San Diego, Cal., Sept. 18.—The carelessness of Mary Arthur, nurse at the county hospital, has cost the lives of four patients to date and four others who drank from a pitcher containing atropine are seriously ill. It is believed, however, that these will recover.

THE DEAD.

J. Young.

Charles Kemp.

Henry L. Palk.

August Fickler.

Miss Arthur, who is in a state of collapse, failed to confess her neglect until the poison had taken deadly effect. According to her statement, she left a solution of atropine in the pitcher, which was later filled by some other person. After a short absence Miss Arthur administered the water to several patients and others helped themselves from the pitcher.

While an investigation has been made by the county authorities it has not yet been determined whether or not the nurse will be held legally responsible for the four deaths.

LT. MOTLOW ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

San Francisco, Sept. 18.—While confined in the general hospital in the Presidio, First Lieut. Felix W. Motlow, artillery corps, yesterday attempted suicide by slashing his throat with a razor. He was discovered by one of the hospital corps soldiers and given immediate attention, but because of his enfeebled condition, his recovery is said to be doubtful. According to the statement of his brother officers, Motlow has been brooding over the fact that this brother, Second Lieut. W. G. Motlow, became mentally unbalanced a year ago and has been confined in St. Elizabeth's asylum, Washington. It is said that the younger brother feared that he was to be overtaken by the same fate.

JUDGE W. H. TAFT

REVISED ITINERARY

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Owing to pressure for Mr. Taft's presence in the west, Mr. Dixon announced today that it had become necessary to rearrange the candidate's itinerary. Tuesday, Oct. 6, St. Louis.

Wednesday, Oct. 7, Chicago, 11:30 a. m.; deep waterways convention; Galesburg, Ill., 4:30 p. m.; Chicago, evening banquet.

Congressman Nicholas Longworth has accepted an invitation to speak at a banquet of the Hamilton club, Chicago, on Sept. 28. Other speakers are to be James S. Sherman, Republican candidate for vice president, and Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan.

BARBER-MOON CASE CONTINUED

Eau Claire, Wis., Sept. 18.—In the United States court today the case against Barber and Moon before United States Commissioner McCain in connection with Idaho land deals, was continued to Sept. 24. The commissioner received a telegram from Boise making a request for continuance.

NOT GOV. HASKELL BUT

A MAN NAMED HASKELL

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma gave out a statement here tonight saying that he has ever had anything to do with the Standard Oil company, as charged by Mr. Hearst at Columbus.

"It is true that a Mr. Haskell was mentioned in the records," said Gov. Haskell, "but instead of being me it was W. C. Haskell, a former United States marshal at Cleveland, and now an employee of the District of Columbia. Mr. Hearst's statement at Columbus is just like his assertion about my fight against union labor. It is false. Mr. Hearst is not making any relations of any kind with the Standard Oil company nor any request from them to act for them in any capacity."

A highly interesting display of Navajo rugs and blankets.

We have secured a rare selection of these beautiful and curious productions of the aborigines' art, direct from the reservation. There are many rare designs—many of great historical importance.

One especially we mention—it is a genuine "medicine man" or "sacred" blanket the Indian name being "Yabashi," meaning "sand painted"—there are only four of these in the world. The patterns or design is composed of a red field encompassing a constalk with the "devil spirit" emerging from the top—won first prize at the Portland Fair—This blanket is priced at $175.00. See it.

Another rare specimen is the "Chieftan"—carried by a renegade chief who was banished to the Catilina Island—The design is a red field with two large white stripes running the length of the blanket and bordered with black stripe indicating in Navajo lore that the chief can not swerve from the truth—other lines in the rug indicate the "Three graces." The "Swastika" or good luck emblem also enters into the theme—a very rare and valuable curio.

The collection embraces many other meritorious designs. Prices begin at $6.50 and range upward.
