FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Col. Goffrey, of the Utah Commission, has returned from his visit to the East.

See the dispatches regarding a terrible and destructive earthquake off the coast of Italy.

Excavations on the site of the proposed new Bagley Church, near the County Court House, are in progress.

Who has found a buckskin purse containing $10? The owner is one that needs the money and the finder will do a good act by leaving it at this office.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Lost—By John Lawson, between Wells, Fargo's and the Deseret National Bank, three five dollar bills. Return to this office and be rewarded.

Tabernacle Services.—Yesterday afternoon the congregation was addressed by President W. Woodruff, who delivered a discourse on the first principles of the Gospel and the eternal nature of the marriage covenant.

Seventies' General Meeting.—The Seventies will please take notice that their semi-monthly meeting will be held in the Social Hall, on Wednesday next, at 7:30 p.m.

On behalf of the First President of the Salt Lake City, July 29th, 1883.

A Fraternal Call.—This afternoon we received a fraternal visit from Isaac M. Keeler, Esq., proprietor of the Fremont Journal of Fremont, Ohio, and J. W. Spencer, Esq., proprietor of the Evening News of St. Joseph, Missouri. The first named gentleman is a veteran journalist, having been in the profession since 1840. Both gentlemen are on a vacation trip through this West.

More Small Boy and Matches.—About 4 p.m. last Wednesday Mr. Ben. Hutchings was going upon the bench above when he espied a little boy of Mr. Andrew Merris kindling a fire right on the top and in the center of the latter gentleman's straw stack, or rather shed Mr. Hutchings gave the alarm, and rushed to put out the incipient fire, but too late, he had only time to rescue the little boy, when the flames with lightning rapidity had got beyond control. Of course the property pertaining to the shed and stable was utterly destroyed. Heavier County Record.

A Couple of Hard Cases.—Last evening two young men, named J. C. Williams and Joseph Davis, had been looking but active and cheerful fellows, were brought in from the United States in the custody of an officer. They claim to have come from Minnesota. They attacked the Chinaman near the reservation hearing house, with the intention of robbing him. They beat him over the head with their pistols, and the screams of the Chinaman brought several men to the rescue, and they fled. The following day they were captured by Indian police, who had followed their trail, showing genuine man's sagacity in the pursuit.

Accidentally Poisoned.—A most lamentable incident occurred yesterday in the family of Joseph M. and Nellie E. Cason. They were on a visit at Mrs. Kugler's, in the Fifth Ward, when their little son Ashley E., aged about three years, entered a back room and found a cup in which there was a quantity of liquid lye. The unfortunate little fellow swallowed the stuff, and although every means that could be thought of was administered, his condition appeared to fluctuate, causing his relatives to change alternately between hope and despondency, until this morning, when he was released by death, which occurred shortly after ten o'clock. His grand parents and parents are grief-stricken at the sad occurrence.

Funeral of a Youth.—The funeral services over the remains of Brother William C. Watson, son of Alexander and Margaret Watson, were held yesterday in the Sixth Ward school house. The room was densely crowded, a portion of the audience being unable to find space in the main hall, having to occupy the vestry. An unusually large representation of young people was present. Elder John Y. Smith offered the opening prayer, and the funeral discourse was delivered by Elder John Nicholson, followed by brief and appropriate remarks from Elder Jesse West. The benediction was pronounced by Elder Alex. Hart. The procession of mourners to the cemetery was unusually large.

The deceased was in his sixteenth year; his demise was totally unlooked for, and caused a severe shock to the family and friends. He was a universal favorite among all who were acquainted with him.

No Practical Connection.—We are in a position to state, from personal knowledge that Mr. G. H. Snell, of this city, has no interest whatever in the so called Midland Fire Insurance Company. The two founders of the concern are Messrs. Wood and Jackson, strangers in this city. Mr. Snell was earnestly solicited by them to be one of the incorporators, the law requiring that there should be at least three residents. Believing that the two gentlemen named proposed starting and conducting a legitimate business he consented to become an incorporator, but refused positively to hold any office or accept of any of the stock. Any use of his name in connection with the company beyond what is here stated has been totally without his authorization or consent and decidedly opposed to his firmly expressed wishes. Mr. Snell published a card to the same effect as herein explained in the daily papers of July 6th.

A CALAMITY AT KANAB.

GREAT DAMAGE DONE BY A FLOOD.

The following dispatch came over the wires of the Deseret Telegraph to day, from Kanab, Kane County: "Yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the heaviest flood known in this part of the Country came down the Kanab Canyon. The force of the water was so great that masses of earth as large as a common house floated down the stream with willows still standing upright. The damage cannot as yet be estimated. All the wheat in the upper field is washed away. The water covered the entire field from fence to fence, the stream at that point being one mile wide. The wheat in the lower field is mostly safe, which is only about one sixth of the whole crop. In the canyon it was washed a channel thirty to forty feet below the former bed of the creek. A number of cattle were washed away and drowned. No lives are reported lost. A number of rapids, rapids, hay-rakes and wagons were washed away. Some of the lower lots of the town were considerably damaged. All the farming and meadow land in the canyon is destroyed. The telegraph line in the canyon is believed to be mostly torn away."

The Last Offices.—The funeral services over the remains of Brother Richard Septimus W. Andrews, who was accidentally shot and killed in Godde, Pitts & Co's drug store on Saturday last, were conducted in the Seventh Ward Meeting House yesterday afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock, the proceedings being conducted by Bishop W. Thorn, by whom the opening prayer was offered.

President John Taylor delivered a discourse pregnant with instruction and consolation to the bereaved. He spoke with marked calmness and deliberation. He alluded to the accident, by which the life of the deceased had been so suddenly yet unintentionally taken. This speaker showed that if we were more familiar with the purposes of God in the events of human affairs, we would not mourn so deeply on occasions like the present one as we do. Those who had indulged in hopes regarding an anticipated career of usefulness on the earth for the deceased did not need to suppose that the young man who had been called away would not have opened before him in the other life a sphere of operations that would be in every sense broad and extensive. The character of the deceased was respectfully spoken of, as being from reports from all quarters, amiable and exemplary.

President Woodruff was the next speaker, and followed in a similarly instructive and consoling strain. He very feelingly alluded to a somewhat similar instance that occurred with a member of his own family. One of his sons, regarding whom he had entertained many fond anticipations was, some years ago, accidentally and suddenly bereft of life. He inquired of the Lord the reason for his having been taken away, and was given to understand that as he (the speaker) and others were operating in the Temple on behalf of the dead, it was necessary that there should be representatives of the family behind the veil to co-operate with those living in mortality. President Woodruff thought that the young man whose casket of clay was present, was wanted in the other world.

Bishop Thorn made a few closing remarks, in which he paid a high tribute to the excellent character of the deceased.

The benediction was pronounced by Elder William M. Lachlan. Long before the hour announced for the holding of the services the large hall was filled to overflowing, and as time proceeded not only was all the available space in the interior occupied, but a large crowd were on the outside of the building. Mr. Watters, the unwitting cause of the sad circumstance, and his wife were present, and appeared deeply affected, the latter weeping during most of the services.

After the services were over the coffin was taken outside and placed under the shade of some trees, the large audience passing the casket on each side of it and viewing the face of the dead.

The remains were followed to the cemetery by a large cortege. The benedictory prayer at the grave was offered by Elder Joseph E. Taylor.

To-Night.—To-night in the Thirteenth Ward Assembly Rooms a very interesting lecture will be delivered by Mr. J. Bailey Brown, a clever writer over the signature of Tim-Bae-Too. A charge of five cents only will be made for admission, just to help expenses. Go and hear the traveler writer, and public speaker. Subject: "Those who live in glass houses, etc."

Surrendered by His Bondman.—This morning officers Brown and Ballantyne came down from Ogden, bringing with them David P. Rich, who had been surrendered by his bondman. We understand the reason for this action to be the outrageous character of his conduct since his release on bail, he having been drinking, creating disturbances, and guilty of unbecoming conduct on general principles. He was delivered into the hands of the United States Marshal to-day.

Bishops and Counselors.—There has been quite an extensive response to the request made by Brother Geo. Goddard, for all persons who have been ordained and set apart as Bishops or their Counselors outside of the regular meetings of the Bishops, since 1851, to forward to him the dates and particulars for record. A number have not yet responded, however, and those who have not done so have their attention again directed to the importance of attending to this matter, that the record may be made as complete as possible.

Washington County Ticket.—The following is the People's Ticket of Washington County, as nominated by the County Convention held July 14th, 1883: Councilor to Legislature, Edwin G. Wolley; Representative to Legislature, John Rider; Probate Judge, Edw. G. Wolley; Sheriff, County Clerk, Joseph C. Bentley; County Recorder, Moroni Snow; County Treasurer, Richard Bentley; Sheriff, Augustus P. Hardy; Assessor and Collector, Augustus P. Hardy; County Prosecuting Attorney, Martin Slack; County Surveyor, Joseph Opat.

A Fierce Fight.—This morning a sanguinary fight occurred at a Chinese wash house, near the Phelps corner, opposite the Continental Hotel. The combatants were Ah Sing and John He. It was a fierce and gory encounter, and as knives were freely furnished it looked for a while as if there would be a certain amount of dead Chinaman around. The police interfered before that consummation was reached, however, and the belligerent "coolies" are cogitating behind the bars of the city jail.

It appears that John He had bargained with Ah Sing on Saturday for the purchase of a wash house. This morning when He called upon the other party he found he had gone back on the agreement. This situation caused him to see blood, and the fierce fight was the outgrowth of the business unsteadiness of Ah Sing. One of the combatants had his head split open in the contest.

The Accident of Saturday.—The shocking accident which bereft Brother R. S. W. Andrews of life on Saturday afternoon, caused a sensational thrill to pass through the community. The deepest regret appeared to fill every breast, and the sympathy for the bereaved parents and wife, especially as the latter is in delicate health, is most profound. The esteem in which the deceased was held, he being of a mild and gentlemanly disposition and exemplary character, served to intensify and deepen the emotion caused by the occurrence.

In the absence from town of the Coroner on Saturday, an inquest was held over the remains by Justice Spleers and a jury. No specially new facts were elucidated, aside from those with which the public are already familiar. The details in a nutshell are that Mr. John Watters, the main day, had a pistol reloaded by Mr. Joseph Barker. Having other articles of the same kind he picked up what he supposed to be this particular one, and began handling it before placing it in the safe. It was not the same pistol, however, but a loaded one. The hammer fell, the weapon was discharged, the bullet passed through the partially open doorway, and entered Brother Andrews' neck near the base of the brain, while he was in the act of raising a glass of soda water to his lips, and he fell dead.

Judge Hoge moved for the discharge of Mr. Watters, on the ground that the demise of the deceased was caused by an accident.

Mr. Whittemore objected and took the ground that Mr. Watters should be held for examination. Justice Spleers decided that an investigation should be had, and placed the bonds at $1,000.

The case is set for to-morrow at 2 o'clock, when Mr. Watters will answer to a charge of involuntary manslaughter.
