to Says Col. Barrera-Reyes Declines To Say Whether He Will Accept The Presidency.

New York, Nov. 22 .- The Colon, Colombia, correspondent of the Herald cables the following version of the mysterious disappearance of Gen. Patino: Your correspondent has been informed by Col. Barrera, the revolutionary leader, that Gens. Patimo and Cortissoz who were respectively first and second in command of the attacking insurgent force, left Gatun, which is six miles from here, in a small boat for Colon. It was a very dark night and their boat capsized in the river. Gen. Patimo who was wounded in one arm, endeav-ored to save Gen. Cotissoz, who could not swim and both were drowned.

The deaths of these two leaders are regarded as a great blow to the liberal party.

CAN RESIST ATTACK.

New York, Nov. 22.--A dispatch to the Herald from Colon says that Gen. Lugo is on his way to Colon from Chorrera to take charge of the campaign. Col. Barrera declares that the insurgents can resist any attack by the government troops.

GEN. REYES' VIEWS.

Orizaba, Mex., Nov. 20,-Gen. Rafael Reyes of Colombia, was on a train be-tween Fortin and Orizaba, on the Vera Cruz raliway, with the other delegates to the Pan-American conference today when he was shown the Associated Press dispatch announcing the taking of Colon by the Colombian liberals. ## London Morning Post Says Temper Of the German People is Becoming Dangerous.

London, Nov. 22 .- The fact that the anti-Chamberlain agitation in Germany has at last extracted a semi-official expression of approval from the North Clerman Gazette, has had the effect of convincing the British press that the situation is becoming serious. Heretofore there had been a disposition to disregard and belittle the influence of the agitation. Now the papers are taking the trouble to explain that Mr. Chamberlain's words are not intended to insult or offend Germany.

"The temper of the German people is cangerous," says the Morning Post, "and it behoves our people to be on their guard. The Germans appear to regard Great Britain as covetous, ra-pacious and barbarous. From that be-lief to the corollary that a barbarous nation ought to be suppressed is a short and easy step." The Daily News remarks: "Mr. Chamberlain, as the French say, 'costs dear.' The new imperialism which was to strengthen our position in the world has left us without a friend. America cannot supply what we have lost in Europe, for the German, Dutch and Irish elements in that great community are today more hostile than they were during the Venezueian trou-

The Daily Chronicle, which admits that the agitation is "the outcome of misrepresentation of Mr. Chamberlain's ill-judged and ill-timed remarks," says: This does not diminish the gravity of the situation. It is a serious thought that Lord Salisbury's self-congratulation at the Guildball at the correct attitude of the great powers is beginning to be falsified." Referring then to the "scurrilous attacks made by the German press," the Daily Chronicle con-cludes as follows: "Unless the authorities restrain the unlicensed abuse of England in the German press we fail to see how this country can much longer ignore these accumulated inadits

but they recognize that "Such agitations, even when artificial, are not al-ways harmless, and it is a good thing that the relations between the two gov-ernments are so friendly and that Queen Victoria's blood runs in the kai-veins.'

The Standard and the Daily Tele-graph are much less alarmist in tone

All the papers publish long specials from Berlin describing the public feeling and agreeing that the article in the North German Press is a proof that the German government is altogether powerless to stem the agitation which is intended if possible to force Count candidate, in this morning's papers. His attitude in Galway was not sufficiently anti-national to secure for him the full unionist vote. The government may not have sufficient evidence to show that Col. Lynch fought for the Boers, so that if he decides to disavow the testimony of his backers, he may after all be able to act as a member of parliament. PLUNKETT BADLY BEATEN.

Dublin, Nov. 21 .- The election today in the parliamentary contest in Galway, between Col. Arthur Lynch, who fought as a colonel in the Boer army, and Horace Plunkett, unionist, resulted in a victory for the former by the following figures: Lynch, 1.247; Plunkett, 473.

On the whole the polling was con-ducted with comparative orderliness. A large additional force of police pre-vented numerous street scrimmages, which were the outcome of drunken ness, from developing seriously. Wo-men were conspicuous in these affairs and many of them were arrested. In the event of Col. Lynch's election being quashed on the ground that he is traitor, LIr, Plunkett says he will decline to take the seat, thus reverting to him, declaring that he will be re-turned straight or not at all. Col. Lynch's friends seem satisfied that he will attempt to take the seat,

Vessel Had Field Guns Aboard.

New York, Nov. 22.-The precise cir-cumstances which have induced the cusoms authorities to detain the steamer Ban Righ in the Thames are now known, says the Tribune's London correspondent. Parts of field guns were found among her cargo, and it had been assumed that they were to be sent to the Transvaal. The documents in the possession of the customs authorities show, however, that the vesael was destined to take an active part in what is described as the revolution between two South American states with which England is at peace, and the officials recalling the Alabama case, detained the vessel under the foreign enlistment law.

Athens, Nov. 21.—The agitation against the proposal to translate the Gospels into modern Greek was continued today. Twenty thousand per-sons assembled around the ruins in the temple of Jupiter Olympus and took part in a demonstration organized by the students.

A resolution was passed calling on the holy synod to excommunicate any person who translated the Gospels into Greek as now spoken. Eight hundred marines were landed co-operated with the troops in patrolling the locality. Several collisions occurred and occasional shots were fired. The students still hold the uni-versity buildings.

During the demonstrations following the assemblage several shots were fired at M. Theokotis, the Greek premier, but without effect. During the encounters between the military and the turbulent demonstrators seven uersons were killed, thirty were severely injured and many others slightly wounded

Great excitement prevails tonight. Strong military detachments guard the palace and the residence of the premier Everywhere anxious groups are discussing the situation.

Heartrending scenes occurred when the bodies of the dead were handed over to their relatives. It is reported that armed men have arrived at the uni-versity, but the building is still guarded by the students, who are adopting military discipline.

Opposition deputies paraded the streets during the day, exciting the rioters by violent language.

There were no further disturbances during the evening, but it is feared that there will be a renewal of disorders tomorrow.

Among those slightly injured are the prefect of police of Athens and the prefect of Attica.

The commander of the gens-d'arerie and the prefect of police have resigned. Gen. Vasses has been placed in command of the armed forces.

Cubans Desire Annexation.

New York, Nov. 22 .- Francisco Gamba, president of the Cuban commission, sent by the merchants, business men and agricultural associations of Cuba to the United States, with a petition for the improvement of relations be tween the two countries, has just been interviewed on Cuban affairs. When asked if it was his opinion that the United States should annex Cuba, he said

"As a member of this commission representing all classes and political parties of Cuba, I do not feel myself at liberty to express an individual opin ion. But, were you to say that 90 per cent of the business people and prop-erty holders of Cuba favored annexation, you would be correct.'

> FIXED THE MINISTER. And He Needed Looking After.

"In a minister's family in Los Angeles where I was visiting sometime ago, the wife complained of serious indiges-tion and dyspepsia. She admitted that used coffee and said she more than half believed that was the trouble. I told her that I knew it was the trouble for I had gone through with the ex-perience myself and had only been cured when I left off coffee and took up Postum Food Coffee

She said she had tried the Postum. both for herself and her husband, but they did not like it. With her permission, I made Postum next morning my-self, and boiled it full fifteen minutes Then when it was served, it was a rich, deep brown color and had the true fia-vor and food value that every Postum maker knows. It is all folly to talk about trying to make Postum with one or two minutes' steeping. You can't get something good for nothing. It must be bolled, boiled, bolled, and to keep it from bolling over. use small lump of butter, perhap twice the size of a pea. That morning the minister and his wife liked Postum so well that their whole lives were changed on the question of diet and they abandoned coffee at once and for all time.

Now after a hard day's work, they are comforted, refreshed, and rested by a cup of well-made Postum for supper They are both enthusiastic in its praise. The wife has entirely recovered from her dyspepsia. I will not go into the details of my own case, except to say that I was a desperate sufferer with dyspepsia and discovered by leaving off coffee that coffee was the cause of it. I quickly got well when I took up Postum Food Coffee. I carnestly hope many more coffee drinkers may get their eyes open." Name and address given by Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Batt

ARTHUR LYNCH'S ELECTION.

He Led the Irish Contingent Against The British in South Africa.

New York, Nov. 22 .- Commenting upor the election of Mr. Arthur Lynch over Mr. Plunkett in the preliminary election at Galway, Ireland, the Lon-don correspondent of the Times says: Arthur Lynch, who has been elected o parliament from Galway, led the socalled Irish contingent against the Brit ish flag in South Africa. It seems imsible that he should attempt to come to England to take his seat. He is a handsome young Irishman, impulsive, emotional and sentimental. The appa-rent indisposition of the London press to make light of his South African venture is suggestive.
