The following day they came to Boise by stage. As to their future coins or the present whereabouts, softling is known. The deserted husband is here with his two little boys, and is assisting the police in running down his wife and the wrecker of his home.

FILES ANOTHER SUIT.

As a result of the action of the state berd of examiners in disallowing the becember elaim of the wife of the state auditor for services rendered in its office and in reducing the second one the salary of the auditor's son from $135 to $75, the state auditor, Rob-the the salary of the auditor's son from $135 to $75, the state auditor, Robert S. Bragaw, has filed a suit in the supreme court asking for a writ of hobibition, preventing further interference of the board in the adjustment of salaries in his office.

The writ 'is virtually mandamus in it nature, for it asks the court to direct the board to allow the bills as riginally presented. The auditor contends that the appropriation of the spelfied sum, allotted his office by the legislature for cierk hire, is wholly lithin his own jurisdiction, to be paid at in such salaries and to such clerks is he sees fit to employ. The state leard of examiners on the other hand, holds that the salaries in question are necessive and much higher than the ulary of those rendering similar services in other departments, and that he hours engaged in the work of the diffice by the parties above referred be were comparatively short, making the salary asked for all the more excitant. A demurrer will be filed to be complaint by the attorney general.

RIGHTS OF MARRIED WOMEN.

RIGHTS OF MARRIED WOMEN.

The state supreme court decided a case the first of the week, which involved the rights of married women and has been the source of no small amount of interest about the state's capital city this week. The case is entitled Bank of Commerce vs. George C. Baldwin and Sarah H. Bowers. Suit was filed over a year ago in the district court to recover on a note of $11,000, the court deciding in favor of the defendant and the bank failed to recover on the promissory, note. The case was appealed to the supreme court and on some technicality was remanded; the same decision being given by the lower court, another appeal was taken. In the meantime a suit was filed in the district court by Mrs. Bowers against her daughter, Mrs. Bell Coglan, to have deeds, which the daughter declared on the witness stand were given in an attempt to defraud the bank, set aside. The daughter admitted that she had destroyed other deeds made out at the same time conveying the property back to her mother. A judgment was given declaring the deeds null and void.
