EASTERN.

PITTSBURG, Pa., 10.—Joe Cloud, the man who is rowing a boat from Philadelphia to New Orleans, turns out to be an aquatic fraud. His agent, Mr. James, quit him at this city and returned to Philadelphia for the reason that Cloud got drunk and was not doing the square thing. Instead of rowing all the way he arrived in Harrisburg on Monday morning, and left that city by rail the same afternoon, arriving at Harrisburg on Tuesday morning at half-past one. His boat remained at the depot until the p.m., when it was taken to the Varieties theatre, where it was exhibited that evening, and remained until the next morning. It was consequently out of the water from Monday morning until Wednesday morning, during which time Cloud was constantly on shore, when he is obliged, according to the articles of agreement, to stop on the water in his boat. James says that not a cent is pending on the result; that the $5,500 is a myth. Tribbe, at the hotel where Cloud stopped, says he did not even pay his board bill, and in no way deported himself as he should. The fellow is a fraud of the first water.

NEW YORK.—The man murdered in Green St., and first identified as a coal-heaver on a steamer, now turns out to be captain of a sloop and a prominent citizen of Fall River, Mass. The fact that this gross murder was committed within a block of Broadway, in a street infested by the most desperate and dissolute characters in New York, has called attention to the danger of that section of the city. The police it is said contemplate a raid on the street, with the design of driving these notorious characters to the remote parts of the city. For years they have been under the protection of the police. The new administration will insist upon their being stamped out.

The remaining street booths along 16th street, will be demolished to-night. The health board, which has absolute power, now contemplate the removal from the sidewalk of all manner of booths which obstruct travel or endanger health.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Secretary Richardson recently issued an order, which places both the fibre and the distinctive paper upon which the national bank notes are printed and the engraving of the plates for the notes themselves under the absolute control of one man. Secretary Boutwell, who caused this distinctive paper to be introduced, and who had a higher appreciation of it as a safeguard against counterfeiting than the general public, took especial precautions, as a check against counterfeiting and over issue, to have the manufacturer of the paper and the engraving of the notes placed under different control. By the special order of Secretary Richardson the manufacture of this paper has been placed under the management of the bureau of engraving and printing, who also supervise the engraving of the plates, and have them in custody after they are engraved. This distinctive paper is printed at Glenn's falls, Pa., and the committee which has recently inspected the progress of working in the establishment made a favorable report. It is, however, considered that to entrust one man with power which would permit him to place over issues or counterfeits in circulation, in a manner which would defy detection, is a most dangerous measure.

WASHINGTON, 10.—The people of Baltimore expect that upon the completion of the branch of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad to Chicago direct, the grain trade between those two cities will greatly increase. It is stated that the road will be completed in the fall, when through passengers and freight trains will run from Baltimore and Washington to Chicago. For some weeks past with the present connections, the receipt of western grain has been enormous. The track of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad is blocked with cars loaded with western corn.

NEW YORK, 10.—The published letter of commissioner Van Nort, bitterly arraigning comptroller Green, for extravagance in office, causes widespread comment, altogether unfavorable to Green, and Green represents Tammany. The present bitter antagonism threatens to become a serious affair, as Van Nort is a personal representative of Tweed and the Murphy organization, and naturally the war will have to be to the knife, and will bring about some curious complications before long. Green's unpopularity is daily growing. He conciliates no interest, and has a strong faculty of offending every body with whom he comes in contact. He contests every bill presented to him, and even after the courts have decided the claims shall be paid, he insists on vexatious dilatory movements. He seems to think every contract fraudulent and every claim dishonest. Green was preparing, about the close of the legislature, to have Van Nort removed by the mayor, and sent under charges to the governor. But Dix put a stop to this, and insisted that Van Nort should withdraw from the board of appointment or Green wished, and that Green and Havemeyer should pledge themselves to support Van Nort. Green has done nothing but oppose him, and Van Nort at last turns on him with a statement which will give Green great trouble to withstand. It is already urged in Tammany that Green will have to be repudiated next fall, or the election will be endangered.

The council of the Corporation has given an opinion that the police commissioners had no authority in law for their action of a few days ago, in prohibiting the movement of processions with arms through the streets.

The Brooklyn Trust Company resumed business to-day. The paying tellers were kept tolerably busy.

CHICAGO, 10.—The arrangements are now definitely concluded for the holding of a grand billiardistic tournament in this city, in the last week of September. The noted players whose exploits kept New York in a furore of excitement for several days, are expected to attend.

NEW YORK, 10.—A desperate prize fight took place this a.m., about 20 miles from here, between Bill Donovan and Tom Malone, at $100 a side, at catch weight. A large number of sporting men left here this p.m. to witness the fight. Twenty-seven rounds were fought, lasting fifty-eight minutes. Donovan was decided the winner. Both men were frightfully punished.

QUINCY, Ill., 10.—The branch of the Quincy & St. Louis R. R., from Fall Creek to Hannibal, is completed. Trains will begin their regular trips to-morrow, making connections with the Missouri, Kansas & Texas R. R.

NEW YORK, 10.—Phillip Stephenson quarrelled with his wife last night, and stabbed himself in the right breast. He will probably die.

A man named Williams quarrelled with his wife on Saturday night, and kicked her several times in the stomach, causing dangerous and probably fatal wounds. He fled.

NEW YORK, 10.—The yacht club starts on its annual cruise to-morrow, eighteen schooners and sloops will participate.

ST. LOUIS, 9.—The mortality last week, ending this p.m., as reported by the board of health, shows 230 deaths, of which 18 were shown 37 cholera infantum, and 30 cholera morbus.
