

SEE AMERICA LEAGUE IS NOW ORGANIZED.

Nominating Committee Makes Its Report Which is Unanimously Adopted.

JOHN HENRY SMITH SPEAKS.

Members Pledge Themselves to Boost And Boost Hard—Address by Dr. Grant.

The features of yesterday afternoon's session of the "See America First" convention were the choosing of officers, the selection of headquarters and the address of Dr. Roland D. Grant on American scenery.

As stated in the "News" yesterday, Fisher S. Harris was unanimously selected as executive secretary of the "See America League" for the ensuing year, and Salt Lake was chosen as the temporary headquarters of the movement.

Chairman Harris called the convention to order on schedule time. L. G. Monroe of Spokane moved that the convention reconsider its action of the morning in voting to make Dr. Grant its good roads resolution. The matter was referred to the executive committee after a brief discussion.

HON. JOHN HENRY SMITH.

Hon. John Henry Smith was then introduced and made a brief speech, which was interrupted at intervals by applause. Mr. Smith outlined his conception of the "See America First" movement for the good of the entire nation. "This movement foreshadows great good for Western America," he said. "It is a movement which should be encouraged and pushed. The speaker then went on to say that as a young man he himself went abroad and visited the capitals of Europe without first having seen Washington. He visited the capitals of Europe," he said, "and on meeting there my own countrymen, I was forced to sit abashed and embarrassed in their presence when they described the scenes in the capital of my country. Since then several of my sons have gone abroad, but I have insisted always that before going, they see for themselves the seat of government of their own nation."

He emphatically declared that the "See America First" movement was one that should enlist the support of every loyal and devoted American citizen and then went on to pay tribute to American scenery which he compared to European panoramas. He declared that the latter's disadvantages, Yellowstone Park, the Grand Canyon of the Colorado and other natural attractions of the Great West came in for beautiful words.

TRIBUTE TO THE FLAG.

He closed his address with a patriotic reference to the flag which had the effect of arousing deep enthusiasm in the convention hall.

"When I look upon this flag," he said, pointing to the Stars and Stripes above the chairman's platform, "I thank God that I am an American citizen. I rejoice that I was born under this flag—the joy that it is my flag. I rejoice that, among all the children of men, it has been given to me to dwell under its protecting folds. I am glad that my children and my children's children have been reared to believe that they will never make their hands against it, and that their first duty is to protect it."

L. G. Monroe of Spokane then moved that Salt Lake be made the temporary headquarters of the "See America First" movement, and that the executive committee be empowered to select the permanent headquarters. The motion went through without a dissenting vote.

PLEDGED TO BOOST.

A brief address was then delivered by E. W. Palmer, secretary of the Pueblo Business Men's league.

PLEDGED TO BOOST.

Tom Richardson of Portland offered the following resolution, which was adopted by a unanimous dissenting vote: "Resolved, That each and every delegate in attendance upon the 'See America First' convention, held in Salt Lake City, Utah, on Jan. 25 and 26, 1906, pledge himself to be personally responsible for a public gathering to be held in his home city to discuss the objects of the movement, and to bring at least two speakers of note with him to present the subject in all of its details."

NOMINATIONS REPORTED.

Douglas White, chairman of the nominating committee, announced that the committee was ready to report. The document which was handed to and read by Secretary James A. Metcalf of Montana was as follows:

"The committee was called to order by Governor George E. Chamberlain of Oregon, and on motion of Douglas White of California, was made chairman, and James A. Metcalf of Montana was made secretary."

"After the calling of the roll and the reading of the law governing the acts of this committee, L. W. Pratt of Tacoma placed in nomination as a member of the executive committee for 1906 Robert L. McCormick of Tacoma, and this nomination was seconded by Tom Richardson of Portland and J. H. Richards of Idaho. On motion of T. J. Nerny of Butte, the nomination of Mr. McCormick was made unanimous."

"Governor A. C. Mead of Washington moved that at least two members of the executive committee be chosen from the eastern country; presented at this conference, that, one of these two be from east of the Mississippi and one from east of the Missouri. This motion was seconded by Herbert Cuthbert of British Columbia and passed by a vote of 10 to 0."

"Mr. Richardson of Portland then placed in nomination Nathan C. Schaffer of Harrisburg, Pa., president of the National Educational association, and former Governor David R. Francis of Missouri as the next two members of the executive committee. The nomination of Mr. Francis was seconded by J. A. Runyon of Kansas City, and on motion of S. K. Hooper these nominations were made unanimous."

"E. J. Westlake of Minneapolis placed in nomination the Hon. T. B. Walker of Minneapolis. This nomination was seconded by Gov. Chamberlain and A. L. Craig. Mr. Craig moved that the nomination of Mr. Walker be made unanimous. This motion was carried."

"James Callbreath, Jr., of Denver then placed in nomination as a member of the executive committee Irving Howbert of Colorado Springs. This nomination was seconded by Henry Russell Wray and S. K. Hooper."

the name of the Hon. Lee Mantle as a possible member of the executive committee. This name was withdrawn, and on motion of James A. Metcalf of Montana, the nomination of Mr. Howbert was made unanimous.

"The motion was made and carried that the next nomination should come from California. W. Frank Pierce then took the floor and placed in nomination as the sixth member of the executive committee David Starr Jordan, president of Stanford university. Several seconds were made to this nomination, and on motion it was made unanimous."

"On motion of Tom Richardson, the six nominations heretofore made were declared to be the unanimous choice of this committee for members of the executive committee for the ensuing year. The motion was carried by rising vote."

HARRIS FOR SECRETARY.

"L. W. Pratt of Tacoma then moved that it be the sense of this committee that Fisher Harris of Salt Lake City be chosen as the executive secretary of the 'See America League' for the ensuing year. This motion was duly carried."

"K. Hooper moved the appointment of a sub-committee of three, which should prepare and present to the conference a series of resolutions expressing appreciation of the splendid ability and faithful work of Fisher Harris, and that James Callbreath, Jr., of Colorado be named as chairman of this committee. This motion was duly carried, and the chair appointed D. E. Burley of Utah and Tom Richardson of Oregon as the other members of this committee."

"In conformity with this action your committee nominates a committee to do hereby present for the consideration of members of executive committee for the ensuing year the following named persons: Robert L. McCormick of Tacoma; Nathan C. Schaffer of Harrisburg, Pa.; David R. Francis of Missouri; T. B. Walker of Minneapolis; Irving Howbert of Colorado Springs; and David Starr Jordan of California. We do further recommend that it be the sense of this conference that Fisher Harris be chosen as the executive secretary of the 'See America League' for the ensuing year. Respectfully submitted, 'CONFERENCE NOMINATING COMMITTEE.'"

"By Douglas White, Chairman. 'Attest: J. A. Metcalf, Secretary.'"

CLUB BEATS THE PAVING PROTEST.

Judge Morse Holds That Action Of City Council Was Perfectly Legal.

JENNINGS LOSES HIS CASE.

Plaintiff Asked for Injunction Restraining City From Paving First Street.

Judge Morse today rendered a decision in the First street paving case brought by T. W. Jennings et al against Salt Lake City to restrain the city from paving said street with asphalt in which he held that the action of the city council in authorizing the paving of the street was legal and hence a decree was entered in favor of defendant.

The plaintiffs asked the injunction on the following grounds: That the notice of intention to pave the street did not state what kind of paving was proposed to be laid so that the property owners would have an opportunity to enter a protest as to the quality of paving; that more than a majority of the property owners protested against the paving and the petition asking for the improvement did not contain the names of one-third of the property owners hence the ordinance authorizing the improvement was illegal and the assessment of an opportunity to enter a protest as to the quality of paving; that the paving damaged the value of the abutting property; and that the paving was done in the winter time it would be a hardship on the property owners to pay the cost of the paving and to have the property damaged by the paving.

Judge Morse decided against the plaintiffs and held that the action of the city was perfectly legal. The paving was completed more than a year ago and since then has been in constant use.

SCHOOL BOARD GETS JUDGMENT.

A verdict in the sum of $8,000 was returned by the jury in Judge Lewis' court last night in favor of defendant in the condemnation suit of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake Railroad company against the board of education of Salt Lake City, as damages for the condemnation of a part of the Utah school property in Poplar Grove for railroad purposes. The jury found that the value of the land to be used by the company as a right of way was $250 and the damages to the school building and the remainder of the lot was fixed at $7,750. The jury found that the building will be unfit for school purposes after the railroad is built and the board of education asked $12,000 for the property.

ADmits IT HIMSELF.

Colored Policeman Testifies That He Has Been Often Arrested.

When W. H. Chambers, colored, was appointed to a position on the police force the Deseret News called attention to the fact that Chambers did not have an enviable record. That in fact he was a notorious violator of the city ordinances. It was pointed out that certain officials have vent to a large number of arrests of Chambers. Proofs were demanded and the defenders of Chambers even went to the length of "challenging" the "News" to produce "one scintilla of evidence" in support of their charges. In this paper—statements not against the colored people of this city.

FACTS CERTIFIED.

Being a State official of California and authorized by Law to administer oaths and to attest certificates, I was requested by the John J. Fulton Co. to examine their mail of the last two days, and I found in it the following original documents:

One letter was from the Editor of a prominent daily in this State in which he stated that as a result of a dozen of their Diabetes Compound that he had recovered from a bad case of Diabetes, and he reported that he knew of another recovery.

Another letter was from another Editor in Missouri, who stated that his brother was on the treatment, and improving so rapidly that they look now for his recovery, although eminent doctors told him he could not live.

Another letter was from a wealthy man in Denver who had been afflicted for Bright's Disease, and after all else had failed, was now nearly well under the same treatment.

Another letter was from a lady in Charlotte, N. C., a case of Bright's Disease. She stated that two physicians had given her up and that unknown to her she had at the last moment put herself on the Fulton treatment and was now nearly well.

I was not surprised to read the above, for I have already certified to probably two hundred recoveries for this company and know that, notwithstanding the books, that chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes are now positively curable.

In certification of the above I attest my hand and seal at San Francisco, California, this 24th day of October, in the year 1905.

SILVERWARE RECOVERED.

Chief of Police George A. Sheets is responsible for the recovery of over $700 worth of silverware, which had been stolen by the three youthful burglars, Young, Morris and Martin, from residences in San Francisco. Martin had been taken into custody, exposed to him, and when he was arrested a baggage check was found among his effects.

Chief Sheets took the check and, going to the depot, found two suit cases literally filled with silverware. Most of the pieces were stamped "E" and the police are now trying to locate the owners.
