THE PRESIDENT'S CONDI-TION.

THE latest dispatches from Washington convey a more gloomy impression than any that have been received up to date. The indications are that the sufferer is nearing his last hours on earth. We shall be but we cannot resist the impression of the physicians in charge, the case of the illustrious patient is well nigh houseless.

'MORMON" EATER'S DIS-GRACE.

THE name of Christiancy first came into public promisence through the connection of the Senator bearing that name with the "Mormon" question. Senator Christiancy figured for awhile as a pious statesmen whose chief legislative efforts were directel against the sup pression of "Mormon" polygamy. He fathered coupled with infamy in all future a bill prepared for him by some generations, so long as it is remem Utah adventurers and worked hard bered at all.
