THE EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, - - October 24, 1871.

PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected Daily by BANK OF DESERET.
SALT LAKE CITY, October 24, 1871.
Buying at $1.10; Selling at $1.13.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE JAPANESE TROUPE.—The performances of this Troupe at the Theatre last night were wonderful. The strongest terms that could be used in their favor would not convey an adequate idea of them. They cannot be described, and must be seen to be appreciated.

ARRIVED.—Elder Albert Carrington arrived last evening from England.

CATECHISMS FOR SALE.—Those expecting to be catechised as to their fitness to serve as jurors, are hereby informed that a large number of catechisms are on sale at this office.

WHAT MAY BE.—The Omaha Herald, speaking of the arrival of recruits at Camp Douglas, says, "Ten times one hundred, nor ten, nor fifty, nor an hundred times one hundred troops will prevent the ruin of vast interests in that Territory, if the Judicial Junta there shall" proceed to extremities with "Brigham Young, by the aid of courts and juries organized and packed to convict."

ANOTHER CHIEF JUSTICE.—The Sacramento Union has the following—

Pat Lannan, formerly of Grass Valley, has opened a meat market in Salt Lake City. Pat distinguished himself, some years since, by ruling in a constable's court in Virginia City, over which he presided, that the Civil Rights bill was unconstitutional, and that colored men could not testify in court, and thereafter acquired the sobriquet of "Chief Justice Lannan."

MARRIED.—In this city, October 23rd, Mr. Bernard McAdams and Miss Martha Jones, both of the Eleventh ward of this city.

ADVANCING.—The desire for licensing the worst of crimes appears to be increasing, showing that the world does move, if only crawfish fashion. The St. Louis Journal of Commerce has the following concerning Kansas City—

The Ordinance Committee think the evil which has so lately caused so much discussion in the city cannot be licensed or regulated as proposed in the ordinance presented by D. Lykins last week. Their report and the ordinance were yesterday referred to the City Council for a decision of the question. Should it be found that Dr. Lykins' ordinance comes within the provisions of the charter, it will most likely be adopted. It is precisely the same as the St. Louis system.

EXAMINATION OF A JUROR.—Yesterday afternoon Mr. Henry Grow was summoned as a talesman in a case in which a jury was being empanelled, and on being examined for cause, the following extraordinary colloquy took place, after Mr. Grow had been sworn, the prosecuting attorney putting questions.

Q. This is the case of Sarah A. Cook against Brigham Young, do you know anything about the case?
A. No, Sir.
Q. Never heard anything about it?
A. No, Sir.
Q. Do you owe Brigham Young anything?
A. No, Sir.
Q. Does he owe you anything?
A. No, Sir.
Q. Do you believe he is a prophet of God?
A. I do.
Q. Do you believe he is God?
A. I am not fool enough for that.
Q. Do you believe he is in the line of progression that in the future will make him a God?
A. I could not tell that.
Q. As a prophet of God, do you believe that he can do anything, or does do anything wrong?
A. I believe that he, like all other men, is liable to err. I do not believe that he is perfect. I would like to see a man that is.
Q. Would not your belief of him being a prophet of God affect your mind in his favor on a jury?
A. No, Sir; I generally go by what I think is just and right?
Q. Well, if the evidence shows he is wrong in this matter, would the fact of your believing him to be a prophet of God affect or bias you in his favor?
A. No, Sir, I believe in always doing justice in an honest way.
Prosecuting Attorney. Well, I shall not challenge you.
The counsel for the defense then said to the witness:
Q. Do you believe that Isaiah was a prophet?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Do you believe that Jesus Christ came into the world, according to the scriptures?
A. Yes, Sir.
Defendants Counsel. That is all, we are satisfied with the Juror.
Mr. Grow was then immediately peremptorily challenged and excused by the prosecution.

HOW IT WAS WITH THEM.—Once upon a time, not more than a thousand years ago, a certain jury of the class which are "organized to convict," by a strained interpretation of the law, convicted a man of adultery, and immediately afterward one of the said jury was asked how many of his brother jurors was innocent of the real crime of adultery, and he answered promptly and frankly—"Not a d——d one of them, only we have not been found out yet."

Telegraph Line to Pioche—More Congratulatory Messages.

The following are additional to what we published yesterday:

PIOCHE 23.—President Brigham Young: We opened the office here at noon to-day. Josiah Rogerson, from the Ogden office, is operator. The citizens are out in full force, greeting the advent most heartily. Firing cannon, speechifying with all the consequents, are the order of the day. With much esteem. A. M. MUSSER.

PIOCHE, 23.—Hon. W. Kirkpatrick: I send you greetings by telegraph. The Deseret telegraph line is completed and we feel that we have stepped into the world.
H. J. THORNTON.

SALT LAKE, 23.—Col. Harry J. Thornton, Pioche, Nev.: Congratulations in return upon your escape from barbarism to civilization. W. KIRKPATRICK.

PIOCHE, Nev., 23.—Gov. Woods, Salt Lake: The wires of the Deseret telegraph company reached here this morning. The people of Pioche greet their neighbors of Salt Lake.

P. E Connor, Harry Thornton,
B. S. Sides, Chas. Forman,
D. W. Perley, C. W. Lightner,
M. Fuller.

White Pine News, Hamilton, Nev. We are in telegraphic communication with the outer world. We greet you and our brethren of Hamilton.
P. E. CONNOR and others, as above.

PIOCHE, 23.—U. S. Grant, President United States of America, Washington, D. C.: We are to-day placed in telegraphic communication with the outer world. We greet you and through you our brethren of the great nation of which you are chief.
P. E. CONNOR and others, as above.

PIOCHE, 23.—Gov. Badley, Carson, Nev.: The Deseret Telegraph company has to-day opened communication with this place. We congratulate you on the event. It will greatly benefit our mining camp now so prosperously reviving from the fire, and shipping such large quantities of bullion. We do not feel that we are any longer the most distant part of your State.
P. E. CONNOR, B. F. SIDES and others, as above.

PIOCHE, 23.—C. C. Pendergast, Wm. S. Heron, and other citizens of Virginia, Nev.: The telegraph wire from Salt Lake reached here to-day. The citizens of Pioche greet the citizens of Virginia.
GEN. CONNOR, H. O. THORNTON and others, as above.

INTERESTING INCIDENTS AT COURT.—This morning one of our reporters visited the court room of the Third District Court, over the stable. He had not been inside the room more than one minute when he felt some one grasp the back of his coat, and on facing round he was confronted by Deputy U. S. Marshal Firman, who then seized the collar of the gentleman's coat with the other hand. The indignant reporter requested to be informed as to what it all meant, when the deputy informed him he must go out. On being told the vocation of the gentleman he was ejecting from court, the Marshal said that didn't matter, he had put one reporter out that morning already and the gentleman then in question would have to go also. The reporter requested the Marshal to immediately take his hands from his (the reporter's) coat, and if he desired him to leave the room to make the request in a becoming and gentlemanly manner. The Marshal then, very mildly, said, "All right," and loosened his grasp.
Our reporter then "retreated in good order," and he afterwards discovered that a reporter on the staff of another newspaper of this city, was ejected, in a most summary manner, from the court, some of the Deputy U. S. Marshals using him very roughly.
In alluding to the above incidents, we do not wish it to be understood that we believe the court had anything to do with them. The course of Judge McKean towards journalistic reporters, so far as our experience goes, has been uniformly courteous. We are always willing to accord credit where it is due. We wish it was due in all cases.
