LOCAL BRIEFS.

T. J. Buckley, manager superintendent of the Utah Electric Light and Power Co., recently returned from Chicago, where he has been visiting.

The Eureka Elks will attend Purple Day in this city in force, accompanied by a band and the famous local William Co. An unusually fine turnout is promised.

Marjorie J. Connor, son of the late Gen. P. E. Connor, has just died in this city at the age of 22. He will be buried in the military cemetery at Fort Douglas.

Prof. Edwin Stephens has been rusticated at Brigham's for a few days, but will be in town this evening, to conduct the musical services in the Tabernacle tomorrow.

A. R. Hager, formerly a teacher in the Salt Lake High school, has been placed in charge of the exhibit to be made by the Philippine Islands teachers at the St. Louis exposition.

The funeral of Carl A. Westman, who was fatally injured in front of the Hotel Utah on Thursday last, will be held at J. E. Taylor's undertaking parlors on Sunday, the 10th inst., at 2 p. m. Friends are invited.

The Eleventh ward will give a lawn party on the lawn adjoining the mostinghouse, Aug. 13 and 14. The dancing floor of the Salt Lake Theater has been secured and an enjoyable time is assured all who attend.

A Chinaman "took the place of a teacher" yesterday afternoon, when he hired out to sell ice cream bricks in lieu of one of the boys who had quit. He was greatly annoyed by boys following him around the streets, making rude remarks; but he did not mind them, and presently the boys became weary of working on a day subject.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey L. Evans of Farmers ward, who regret to learn of the death of their daughter Mary, which occurred at the Holy Cross hospital this morning from complications. The girl was 19 years of age and a favorite with all her acquaintances. The funeral will be held at the family residence, 457 Adams street, on Monday at 11 o'clock.

The Wagoner drug store on Second South and Third East was broken into last night and $5 in change and some cigarettes and cigars stolen. The thieves secured entrance by breaking open a window in the basement and then crawling into the main room. Two suspicious looking characters were seen hanging around the place about midnight, and the police have been furnished a good description of them.

As yet the board of public works has received no bids for the North State street and East Second South street paving, nor has a response to any of the company's even applied to the office for specifications for the work. The former bids made by the Barber Asphalt company and the City Street Improvement company were rejected by the board as being about 20 per cent too high and the work was re-advertised. This time for submitting bids expires next Saturday, one week from today.
