WASHINGTON.

Announcements to the Washington treaty.

WASHINGTON, 15.—The Senate refused to take up the resolution heretofore offered, providing for the reporting, in confidence, of the debates on the Treaty of Washington by the official report of the Senate. It is said the report is to be subject to a further disposition by the Senate. On the objection against the resolution was that the debate would be thereby prolonged. It was thought best to complete action on the treaty as soon as practicable. A report prevailed this morning that the protocol had found its way into print. This is regarded as unfortunate, as it is calculated to strengthen the opposition.

The select committee on privilege of the Senate in connection with the preparation of the publication of the treaty, have summoned to appear before them among others, the correspondents of the Tribune, Herald and World, and the Assistant Secretary of State, Davis.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of John W. Franks, of Troy, N. Y., to be minister resident to Greece, in place of Tuckerman, recalled at his own request.

Cameron reported the treaty with a favorable recommendation, and made a few remarks. He was followed by Morton on its support.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Joseph A. Lewis, to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court in New Mexico. John J. Crittenden, of Kentucky, to be counsel at St. John's, Canada; Charles B. Dahlgren, to be counsel at San Dundas, Mexico; and Anthony G. Quarles, to be counsel at Corrientes, Spain.

While it is known that a majority of the Senators are in favor of the ratification of the Treaty of Washington, as a measure of peace, some of them will propose to add certain conditions which they consider so fundamentally plain, and which without modification may lead to dissatisfaction in the future. One of the objections against the treaty is, that the man Juan question is to be submitted to the arbitration of the Emperor of Germany. The report reporter of his independence, and he has not yet suggested any in the event of his death, when if Frederick William would succeed to the throne, and then take the place of his father, as arbitrator. Should this question not be settled during the present Emperor's lifetime, the arrangement of the joint general commission is considered of little value. Dombrowski has immediately took up his residence in the city, and is now engaged in the business of the Emperor's family.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock this morning, at which time only twelve members were in their seats. After prayer and reading the journal of Friday, Senator Cameron came into the Senate chamber from a meeting of the committee on foreign affairs, and moved that the Senate go into executive session, which was agreed to. At 2:30 the doors closed.

On motion of Scott, it was resolved that the secretary of war be requested to communicate to the Senate the final report of the board of engineers, appointed under section five of the act approved July 15th, 1871, to examine and report upon the bridge across the Ohio river.

On motion of Vicker, it was received that the committee on judiciary be requested to examine and report whether members of the Senate are entitled to mileage at the present special session. The Senate then adjourned until tomorrow, without debate.

NEW YORK.

General Dombrowski's orders not obeyed—Effect of under warfare—Protestant conference—The Excommunicate—Insurrection convention.

NEW YORK, 15. London, 15.—The Times special dispatch from Paris says: "M. Fyodorov's insistence that the fall of the commune is imminent. The chief of guards decline to march and thus of opening the gates to the Versailles. General Dombrowski's orders are not obeyed. The women of Paris have in-viewed the Commune and demanded arms to fight the Versailles."

The Telegraph's special dispatch says the Versailles had been driven back to Longchamps, from the advanced position they had taken in the Bois de Boulogne.

Viscount Gooderich and Mr. Cremer, of the joint high commission, left the city on Saturday for St. Petersburg.

The local alliance has resolved to convene the general Protestant conference, postponed last year on account of the war in Europe, in the spring or fall of 1872.

The annual election of officers of the board of fire underwriters took place this afternoon, resulting as follows: President, George E. Stearns; Vice-President, Rudolph Gastique; Secretary, William W. Hanshaw; Assistant Secretary, John W. Murray; Treasurer, Marcus F. Hodge.

A convention of the official heads of insurance departments of the several States, is called to meet here on the 24th of May, to consider and mature plans for the simplification, uniformity and general improvement, not formal, but systematic, of governmental supervision, with a view to harmonious action and liberal reciprocity regarding supervision and legislation relating to insurance in the different States, and to promote the growth, development and general improvement of the insurance system. Delegates will report to Gen. W. Miller, New York, insurance superintendent of the Avenue Hotel.

Washington specials say the President has ordered the military officers in command at Spartanburg, South Carolina, to arrest the ruffians who have been committing outrages there. Col. Higgins, who was recently driven out of Mississippi, goes back this week with it is said, a sufficient force to enable him to arrest those who have been resisting the law.

The Tribune's Raleigh special says, Watch Master, assisted by U. S. troops from Raleigh, arrested several persons alleged to be concerned in recent Ku-Klux outrages in Rutherford county. No show of resistance was made, and the accused were handed over to the sheriff. They are well known men, and some of them are of considerable note. The sheriff released them on the personal recognizance yesterday morning before commissioner Moore at Cleveland, Clinton county. The general impression is, that the arrests might as easily have been made without troops. The soldiers returned to Raleigh.

Governor Caldwell, of North Carolina, has issued a proclamation of which he has given a copy to the Klan. His arrangement with the organization is by far the severest accusation made against them, either at the North or the South.

Dr. George Eldermiller, one of the most prominent physicians of the city, died last night, from injuries received when being thrown from a buggy two weeks since, aged 40. He was a native of Germany, and leaves a family.

William Fay, of Eureka, Nevada, who came here for medical assistance, died suddenly in his room, at the Alta Lodging House, yesterday.
