SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE comedy of "Married Life," and the farce of the "Fool of the Family," at the Theatre to-night.

PERFORMANCE at Theatre commences at eight o'clock to-night.

WHERE DOES IT COME FROM.—Pints and quarts of filthy catarrhal discharges. Where does it come from? The mucous membrane, lining the chambers of the nose, and its little glands, are diseased, so that they draw from the blood its liquid, and exposure to the air changes it into corruption. This life-liquid was to build up the system, but it is extracted and the system is weakened by the loss. To cure, gain flesh and strength by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which also acts directly upon these glands, correcting them, applying Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, the only method of reaching the upper cavities where the discharge accumulates and comes from.

Catarrh of Twenty Years' Standing Cured.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 50 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p.m. to-day. Cloudy, changeable.

Lots of Them.—There are between fifty and sixty lawyers in this City.

The Members of the High Council are requested to meet at the City Hall on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock.

"Charlie" Moore Dead.—Charles Moore, well known to most of our citizens, died last evening, at the residence of his sister, in the 17th Ward.

Storm.—The rain, hail, and snow, mixed storms, on Sunday afternoon and evening, were another prolongation of the wintry weather and backening of spring growth.

Not So.—Mr. W. Willes informs us that he is not the owner of the dog which was shot through the lower jaw and was starving to death in consequence, as previously stated.

Notice.—The Superintendents and teachers of Sunday Schools will hold their usual monthly meeting at the City Hall on Tuesday evening next at seven o'clock. A general attendance is requested.

Will Move.—The Church quarrymen, who are getting out the rock for the Temple, will soon remove from Granite City to a point a mile higher up the canyon and another about two miles above. The quarters for the men will shortly be constructed.

Lecture.—On Wednesday evening, at half-past 7 o'clock, Bishop A. H. Raleigh will deliver a lecture, under the auspices of the 19th Ward Young Men's Institute. Subject—"The Footprints of God in American History." The public are invited to attend, admission free.

Utah Mining Gazette for April 4 contains illustrations of "Hydraulic Engineering," "Ophir District," "Resources of Utah," Mitchell's "Improvement in Stamp Mills," "Iron Mines of Utah," "Terrestrial Magnetism and Geology," illustrated, etc.

Personal.—We were visited today by Mr. James W. Towne, who is connected with the firm of Blake, Robbins & Co., importers and jobbers of various kinds of paper, San Francisco. Mr. Towne has been residing in New York, where he has been working in the interest of the firm with which he is identified, and is now on his way to California.

Too Attentive by Half.—A man in soldiers' clothes, and carrying more "spirit" than discretion, on Saturday, entered some houses on South Temple Street, and endeavored to make himself familiar and agreeable to the "women folks," but only managed to make himself disagreeably so, his room being considered infinitely preferable to his company. Some people have a way of making themselves more free than welcome.

An Egg Story.—When a little boy was at breakfast the other morning, he was surprised upon divesting an egg of its shell, to find some characters distinctly traced upon the white. He called his parent's attention to it, who recognized them as English letters, some turned right side up, others vice versa, showing that the printer had not thoroughly studied his business. Therefore, nothing could be made out of them, but this is not strange, as the work must have been done by a foul (fowl) compositor.

A Sneaking Scoundrel.—On Friday afternoon a man who was formerly and perhaps is now a bookkeeper for a mining company, called at the residence of Mr. George Crocheron, 8th Ward, in the absence of the head of the house. He stated that he was looking around for some real estate, which he wished to purchase, and, as he was very tired, wanted the privilege of sitting down in the house, which he was allowed to do. After asking a great many questions, he made the announcement to Mrs. Crocheron that his real object was not to purchase real estate, but he had come expressly on purpose to see her. She was astounded at the fellow's impudence, and finally ordered him out of the house, when he left.

That fellow had better not keep up the business of sneaking into people's houses during the absence of the male inmates, or it is probable some one may make it hot for him.

People should be guarded about allowing strangers to enter their houses under any pretence whatever. It is not the safest thing to do.

Theatre.—There was a satisfactory performance at the Theatre on Saturday evening. "Margaret of Burgundy" and "Our Cousin Hamlet" constitute a bill by no means to be despised.

This evening, Easter Monday, Buckstone's brilliant comedy of "Married Life" will be presented, with Mr. Vinson as "Samuel Coddle," Mr. Sawtelle as "Mr. Younghusband," Mr. Foster as "Lionel Lynx," Mr. Rea as George Dismal," Mr. Crosbie as "Henry Dove," Mrs. Belle Douglas as "Mrs. Coddle," Miss. Cogswell as "Mrs. Lynx," Miss Walters as "Mrs. Dove," Mrs. Rea as "Mrs. Dismal," Miss Adams as "Mrs. Younghusband." A strong cast.

The "Fool of the Family" will conclude the entertainment, Mr. Thorne as "Mr. Sanders," Mr. Crosbie as "Zeb," Mrs. B. Douglas as "Betty," Mrs. Crosbie as "Lucretia."

Mrs. Belle Douglas will be remembered as the "Madame Prudence" of Julia Dean Hayne's "Camille."

To-morrow Miss Carrie Cogswell will take a benefit, when will be presented an entirely original drama, "The Prussian Spy, or the Vivandiere of Paris," by Mr. Al. Sawtelle, and a popular farce.

The performance commences at eight o'clock.

Thrown Out.—This afternoon as the horse and wagon belonging to the 20th Ward Co-operative store was travelling along South Temple Street, the axle-tree broke, tilting the vehicle and spilling Elijah Cox and Amos J. Lucus upon terra firma. The latter, who was driving, held on to the lines, and the young men escaped with a few bruises. The detached wheel took to traveling some distance on its own account.

Third District Court.—According to adjournment the District Court for the Third Judicial District opened at 10 o'clock this morning. The Marshal elected by the legislature, and the individual appointed by the Governor to that office were both there, but they received no official recognition from Chief Justice McKean, who himself uttered the customary "Hear ye, hear ye, the District Court for the Third Judicial District is now open," after which he announced his readiness to hear exparte motions.

Attorney General Z. Snow read the following motion for a grand and petit jury for the Third Judicial District—

"Territory of Utah, } s.s.
Salt Lake Co. }

"Third Judicial District Court, Hon. James B. McKean Judge:

"Now comes Z. Snow, Attorney-General of this Territory, and informs the Court that no venire for either a grand or petit jury has been issued returnable at the present term of this Court as provided by law. And that there is a large number of cases which ought to be submitted to a grand jury, and a large number of cases on the calendar of this court ready to be submitted for trial, as he is informed, to a petit jury. He therefore prays for a venire to be issued, returnable at such times as the Court shall name. Z. SNOW, Att'y-General."

His honor read an opinion in the case of C. Youman, vs. Salt Lake City, taken up on habeas corpus from Justice Clinton's Court. The ruling sustained the latter and remanded the plaintiff to the custody of the City authorities. The opinion, in alluding to the main point in the plaintiff's argument, the unreasonableness of the amount of the liquor license charged by the City, the case being one in which Youman was fined for selling without license, stated that, although perhaps no other City charged so much, the Court was of opinion that, when the circumstances of this City were considered, $100 was not unreasonably high.

The judge rendered an opinion in the case of O. F. Strickland vs the Flagstaff Mining Company, in which an attachment had been issued against the defendants. An application for a stay of execution and to re-open the case had been previously granted, for a stipulated time, on condition that the defendants pay the plantiff $20. The ruling went against the defendants, because they had paid the $20 to the clerk of the court, as an intermediate party and not to the plaintiff, and because certain papers in the case were not accompanied by a name, and were therefore void. The decision was that the attachment was in force. Mr. Baskin, for the defendants, gave notice of an appeal, and he was given ten days in which to prepare necessary papers.

The calling of the law calendar was then commenced, the first case brought up being Joseph Silver vs. Salt Lake City, Appleby for plaintiff, Snow and Hoge for defendants. The plaintiff's attorney not being present, the case was dismissed for want of prosecution.

C. W. Tappan vs. Salt Lake City. This was a case wherein the plaintiff had been fined $100 by Justice Clinton for keeping a house of ill fame, and in which an appeal was taken to the Probate Court, but the case was subsequently brought before Judge McKean on certiorari. The judge stated that he was ready to hear the argument, but Judge Haydon, counsel for Tappan, said he didn't know anything about it, and Messrs. Snow and Hoge were not well prepared because they had expected the case to be dismissed.

The main question to be decided was an exception taken to the papers by Tappan's counsel, who contended that they should have been issued in the name of "the People of the United States in the Territory of Utah," and they were issued in the name of "the People of Salt Lake City." The Supreme Court of the Territory had decided, in a recent case, that the city could prosecute in the name of the city, and the case was dismissed, and the judgment of the justice's court affirmed.

Mr. James M. Kimball was admitted to the Salt Lake bar.

Several other cases were variously disposed of.

(SPECIAL TO THE DESERET NEWS.)

Murder and Robbery at Corinne.

CORINNE, Utah, 6.—J. Bornstein, an old and respected citizen here, was found murdered in his dwelling this morning. His family are all absent visiting West. It appears that the old man went home about 12 p.m., and started to go into his bedroom to retire, when a blow from an axe, in the hands of an assassin, concealed behind the door, felled him to the floor. A slight scuffle seems to have followed, but the murderer made sure work, burying the axe deep in Bornstein's head. Deceased was found in the dining room, adjoining the bed room, his pocket book by his side empty, and his watch gone, showing that robbery was the motive. It is not supposed that he had much money about at the time. A vigorous search is now going on to find the clue to the murderer, and the citizens are subscribing liberally towards a reward for his apprehension. Two Chinamen have been arrested on suspicion, but there is no positive proof against them yet. There is great excitement in town, and if the murderer is found out, he will meet summary justice. The deceased leaves a large family.

Since receiving the above dispatch, we have learned that Mr. Bornstern's watch was of gold, with hunting case, number 2412, M. J. Tobias, Liverpool, maker.

First District Court—Territorial Marshal Sustained.

PROVO, 6th, 4 p.m.

Editor Deseret News.

The First Judicial District Court met this afternoon, at one o'clock, his Honor Judge P. H. Emerson presiding. The matter of the Territorial Marshal was ruled upon by his Honor, the Acts of the Legislative Assembly creating the office and the mode of electing the Marshal were fully sustained by him. J. D. T. McAllister, the officer, who was present, was ordered to open court for Territorial business, which he did.
