LOCAL NEWS.

Bishop Tuttle's Successor.—A dispatch received in this city from Bishop D. S. Tuttle, of Missouri, states that Rev. R. M. Kirby has been elected Bishop of the Utah jurisdiction of the Protestant Episcopal Church...

M. I. A.—The following are the officers of the Tenth Ward M. I. A.: Recently elected: President, H. Baddeley; first counselor, R. A. Pyper; second counselor, C. N. Woods; secretary, Miss Louie Paul; assistant secretary, Don Duncan; treasurer, J. E. Paul; librarian, W. J. Strong; assistant librarian, Joseph Pohl. Meetings are held on Tuesday evenings, at 7:30.

FOUND DEAD.—At South Cottonwood, last Friday afternoon, Anna Maria Soderman, about 30 years of age, was found dead, her head and shoulders lying in a ditch which she had gone for a bucket of water. At the inquest the jury found that the deceased had come to her death by falling into the stream while in a fit. She bore a good character, and was an industrious lady. She was buried yesterday.

The Mikado's Uncle.—This morning's D. & R. G. W. train brought in from Ogden, on its journey eastward, Prince and Princess Komatsu, of Japan, and suite, ten persons in all. The distinguished visitors arrived in San Francisco on Wednesday last, and on their way across the continent stop one day each at Salt Lake, Chicago and Philadelphia. The objects of the party are to enjoy the pleasures of a trip around the world, and to gain information that will be of practical benefit to their native country. They will pay a formal visit to President Cleveland and the naval academy at Annapolis, where the Prince's brother studied for some years, will receive attention. From New York the party will go to England, France, Germany and other European nations, and will return via India, reaching to reach Japan in December, 1887, the entire journey occupying about fourteen months.

The Prince Komatsu is an intelligent looking gentleman, under medium height, and from 40 to 45 years of age. He was the adopted son of the grandfather of the present Mikado of Japan, and is consequently the latter's uncle by adoption. In the civil war in Japan, in 1867, he was commander-in-chief of the Mikado's forces, and to his military skill was due his sovereign's ultimate success. He is a graduate of the Royal Naval Academy, where he remained two and a half years, studying the language, and naval and military science. His wife, the princess, is about 35 years of age, and is the first Japanese princess to visit America or Europe.

The Mikado's suite consists of the Grand Master of the Court, Yoshitane Sonomyia; his wife, a lady in waiting on the princess; Mr. Tatsumi, first aide de camp; Court Body, Master of Ordinance; a maid and valet de chambre. In addition to these, Court Yards, courtiers, and Mr. Dada, a doctor, accompany him as companions. Yoshitane Sonomyia's full title is Grand Master of the Imperial Court of Prince Komatsu, Master of the Court of her Majesty, the Empress, and Master of Ceremonies. He speaks English fluently, having been educated in England. His wife is of English birth. He is the Prince's chief counselor. Count Arima is the cousin of the Princess, and is a man of wealth and influence. To-morrow the party continue their journey, going over the narrow gauge. They have been viewing the sights of the city to-day.

Police Court.—Only three culprits were before Justice Pyper this morning, a less number than is usual for Monday. The first called was Henry Wilson, a street-crossing sweeper. The charges against him were drunkenness and disturbing the peace, and when asked to plead, he replied that he had been a little off, but was trying to reform. For this he asked the Court to be lenient. The fines for both offenses aggregated $7.50.

Iris Cook, though a young man, is an old offender. When called upon to plead, he began: "I was either drunk or crazy; I don't remember anything but the first drink. Since I was hurt for a bucket of water. At the inquest the jury found that the deceased had come to her death by falling into the stream while in a fit. She bore a good character, and was an industrious lady. She was buried yesterday."

A Fine Publication.—The November number of Magazine of Art is a really fine specimen of art literature, containing a large number of engravings of remarkable perfection and beauty, accompanied by interesting and appropriate literary notes. The mechanical appearance of this periodical is as near perfection as is often seen. It is published by Cassell & Co., 730 and 741 Broadway, New York.

Free Entertainment.—A free literary and musical entertainment will be given in the Seventeenth Ward school-house to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. Some of the best elocutionists and vocalists of the city will take part in the exercises. The gratifying success which has attended similar entertainments in other wards should secure a full attendance. The selections will be taken from J. H. Ward's "Ballads of Life."

A Silver Brick.—The first production of the Bannock Gold and Silver Mining Company's large mine at Erie, Idaho, was deposited with McCornick & Co. to-day. It is in the shape of a silver brick, weighing 1,100 ounces. The metal is 966 fine, and the brick is valued at over $1,000. The Bannock mine is chiefly owned by Salt Lake capitalists, among whom are the Greenback Brothers, James & Sons, and other well known business men.

Daily's Vacation Company.—This charming company will appear at the Salt Lake Theatre, next Tuesday and Friday evenings. The Lowell (Mass.) Morning Transcript, Sept. 3, 1886, says of this troupe: "Music Hall never before held between its walls so large an audience as assembled there last evening to witness the ninth performance in this city of the Daily Brothers' Vacation. Every seat was sold before the doors were open, and the box office receipts were up, and the box office receipts were up, and the box office receipts were up."

Raiding Indians.—A special dispatch from Benton, Montana, to the Helena Independent says: "The Indians made a raid on the settlers in the vicinity of Utes last night and stole thirty head of horses. In some instances taking every animal owned by poor ranchmen. A party headed by John L. Over, an old-time hunter and guide, have gone in pursuit. The stealing is thought to have been done by Northern Indians, perhaps the Bloods, who have been stealing across the line in small bands for some time. It is believed that the Indians are taking revenge on the Piesans for killing six of their bucks beyond the border. The apprehensions of international complications from the raid across the border are revived by this raid and the raid made on the cattle company of Federal troops in the hills in the Maunavai, who are out scouting after them."

A New Scheme.—A son of the late John B. Hiltstead has just received from Philadelphia a card containing his father's name, age, time of death, an appropriate inscription and two lines of poetry, the readers asking how many the son would like to have. As he never saw or before heard of the firm, he was for a while puzzled, but later found out that this is a new industry, that is doing a good business. They get all the newspapers they can, clip out the deaths, insert the name of deceased, date, etc., and send a sample to any relative whose name may appear with the notice. The novelty of the thing and the apparent dissimilarity of gathering friends at a distance, make the scheme go.

The Appeal.—To-day Judge Zane, at the request of counsel for the appellant, fixed the bond on appeal in the case of Apostis Lorenzo Snow at $300.

Address Wanted.—Mrs. Mary Thorpe, of Ephraim, Sanpete County, Utah, wishes to obtain the address of her former daughter, Mrs. Susette Jensen, a civilized Indian woman, raised in Ephraim, who, when last heard from, was living in Idaho. Address as above.

A Deserter.—Early this morning it was discovered at Fort Douglas that a private named Gray had deserted, and search was immediately instituted for him. He is described as five feet six inches high, weighs about 100 pounds, has sandy hair, light moustache and grey eyes.

Deputies Active.—From private letters and other sources we learn that the deputy marshals now on duty in Cache Valley are quite active. Houses are being searched by them with greater frequency than has yet been the case in this section, and some sixteen or more arrests in all have been made since the crusade opened there.

I. O. O. F. Entertainment.—This society will give an entertainment at their hall on Thursday evening next, the 28th inst. As a portion of the exercises on the occasion refreshments will be served, and it may consequently be expected that all who attend will enjoy themselves. We acknowledge the courtesy of a complimentary invitation.

Will Pass This City.—Harry Lynton, agent of the Golden Beach Realty Company, called at this office this afternoon and stated that he had been unable to secure the Theatre in which to have his company appear, and that, for this reason, they would not perform in this city, as announced. The company will go direct to Denver and Omaha, and will not return to Salt Lake at the latter place they will embark for South America.

From Indiana.—This morning Mr. Robert Hodgins, of Richmond, Indiana, made a pleasant call upon us. He is visiting relatives in this city, and is a member of a number in Utah and Wasatch counties. He is foreman of a railroad machine shop in Richmond, and appears to be a very candid and agreeable gentleman. He has been a subscriber for the WEEKLY NEWS for several years, and takes much interest in visiting the Territory about which he has read so much.

Damage Suit.—The long-pending suit of Sam Levy vs. Salt Lake City will probably be reached in the Third District Court to-morrow. On a former trial the jury assessed a sum of $5,000 damages, alleged to have been suffered by the plaintiff in the loss of a large quantity of cigars and tobacco, which had been stored in his cellar. A quantity of water had seeped through the ground into the cellar, it is claimed, and the plaintiff alleges that the city is liable for the damage therefrom.

The Saloons.—For some time past it has been generally stated that quite a number of the liquor saloons in this city have been violating the law by doing business on Sunday. On Saturday night saloons keepers were notified by the police to keep within bounds. About 10 o'clock on Sunday night some of the officers went to Williams & Gorman's saloon, where they managed to gain an entrance when a party was compelled to stand out in the cold, bareheaded and in his shirt sleeves, for over an hour. When the police finally gained admission, they found inside a number of men and two women. No arrests were made.

Without Mail Service.—The people of Ashley and, indeed, of the whole of Uintah Co. are entirely without regular mail service, and have been since the 30th of June last. Such a statement made of a region so near to railroads and large commercial centres, and having such a population as Uintah County has, seems extraordinary in these days. And when it is remembered that the government has an important military post and two Indian agencies of a combined population of about 2,000 in the county, it seems still more extraordinary that there should be no mail service between it and the rest of the world. We understand that the reason why the mail service has been discontinued was because the contractor who had to carry the mails from Green River City, Wyo., to Ashley, through ignorance offered to do it at a figure so low that, rather than attempt to keep his contract he decided to forfeit his bond. It is said to be a fact that it was cheaper for him to make his own men good than to carry out his contract with the government. He made one trip over the route which caused him to come to that conclusion. Efforts have been made to have a mail route established from Price to Ashley, carrying by way of it the mails to Fort Du Chene, the Uintah and Grand Indian agencies and the numerous white settlements on Ashley's Fork.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS. CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES. A. B. Harrison, a merchant of Richmond, Cache County, has made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors, John O. Gooch being the assignee.

At Frisco lately the two-year old child of George Brown, narrowly escaped a frightful death; he found a can of lye lying around prominently and put pieces of the caustic contents into his mouth which was so badly burned that a physician had to be called.

On the 22nd inst., James King, aged about 19 years, a freeman on a yard camp at Laramie, in attempting to couple some cars had his right leg crushed by a moving car wheel, which crushed his leg from the foot almost to the knee, necessitating the amputation of the leg. Amputation just above the knee was performed, and it is thought he will recover.

Recently at Butte, Montana, the examination of Frank McCune, commonly known by the name of Oyster Mac, took place in the Probate Court before Judge Irvine. Dr. Johnson was the examining physician. After hearing all the testimony the jury adjudged him insane. The patient's wife and two children were present at the examination, and were very good health and spirits. The father only recognized his little children by the name of Oyster Mac. It is thought that the father seemed to affect him a great deal, and when the jury had rendered the verdict the scene of the wife and two children embracing and kissing their father was most heart-rending, and strong men turned their heads and left the court room.
