

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

Salt Lake has seen no busier social season than the present, the spring months so far having been filled with delightful festivities. With the coming of June roses these will augment into a flood with the inevitable weddings, and with other functions already booked, will make the season one of the brightest on record. One of the largest events of next week will be the University banquet and ball next Wednesday night at the U. of C. buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Howard entertained at dinner on Wednesday in honor of Miss Mary Robinson of Michigan, the decorations being in green and white, bridal wreath being used with ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hagenbarth entertained at dinner at the Alta club in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood on Monday night, the affair being in every way elaborate and delightful. The decorations were red peonies and American Beauty roses, and the place cards had been decorated in roses. An orchestra furnished delightful music and toasts and personal reminiscences were features of the event.

Miss Helen Bamberger was guest of honor at a card party on Monday evening by the Misses Daly, the rooms being bright with pink sweet peas and carnations, and about 30 guests being present.

Miss Emily Whitney was guest of honor at a pretty afternoon affair on Tuesday given by Mrs. Grace Clawson Woolley, the rooms being prettily decorated and a number of intimate friends participating.

Mrs. Abner Lamm entertained the "500 club" yesterday at her home.

Miss Katherine Moffatt was the guest of honor at a pretty Kensington on Wednesday given by Mrs. H. S. Knight, the rooms being bright with flowers and refreshments served.

Miss Cosgriff gave a morning bridge party on Wednesday followed by luncheon at the Kenyon in honor of Mrs. Ahmad of London, about a dozen guests being present.

Mrs. Samuel Weltz and Mrs. Adolph Simon gave a delightful luncheon at the Commercial club yesterday, the table being bright with flowers and a number of mutual friends being entertained.

The Misses Seaton entertained at a pleasant card party this afternoon at their home.

Mrs. Jacob Moritz was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Miss Helen Bamberger and Mrs. Charles Ranshoff, the table having for its decorations red peonies, blue bells, and white carnations, while Hawaiian mats and flags were used, while the food was served from Hawaiian dishes. Invited to meet the guests of honor were Mrs. Simon Bamberger, Mrs. J. J. Bamberger of New York, Mrs. Oscar Lehman, Mrs. J. A. Gibson and Mrs. Harry Joseph.

Mrs. Harry Knight will entertain at cards next Wednesday.

Miss Katherine Moffatt will be the guest of honor at a Kensington, to be given on Tuesday afternoon by Miss Bessie Williamson.

Mrs. J. P. McGloth entertained about 40 guests on Thursday at bridge tea, being assisted by Misses Lane and Casley. An innovation of the awarding of prizes was that at each table the player having the most points won a prize, the fortunate ones being Mrs. Harkness, Mrs. J. M. Thompson, Mrs. W. J. Glendinning, Mrs. Charles Post, Mrs. Winder V. Rice, Mrs. Lane, Miss Helen Buckingham, Mrs. B. A. Gemmel, Miss Addie Zane and Mrs. P. J. Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cosgriff entertained informally at cards on Wednesday night, about 15 guests enjoying the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lazarus and the Misses Lazarus who have been visiting with Mr. Lazarus' sister, Mrs. Henry Siegel, entertained a number of their friends delightfully on Thursday in their private car, at the O. S. L. depot, luncheon and tea being enjoyed respectively by a number of their older and younger friends. In the evening the family left for their home.

One of the largest home affairs of the week was the card party given by Mrs. J. H. McMillan on Thursday, the amusement being "500." The rooms were bright with honeysuckle and wild roses, and the prizes were won by Mrs. E. Buckingham and Mrs. J. T. Lynch. The guests were Mrs. Everett Buckinghan, Mrs. J. P. Taylor, Mrs. Billings, Mrs. O. P. Smith, Mrs. La Fayette Hanchett, Mrs. Ernest Drake, Mrs. T. B. Black, Mrs. A. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. V. Peaslee, Mrs. George W. Snow, Mrs. F. E. Snyder, Mrs. Joseph Young, Mrs. Milton Lipman, Mrs. E. E. Root, Mrs. Charles Blanchard, Mrs. Graham, F. Putnam, Mrs. C. H. McGuire, Miss Harriet Dunster, Mrs. Emmett Moore, Mrs. C. D. Moore, Mrs. Clint B. Leikh, Mrs. C. O. Whittemore, Mrs. Abner Lamm, Mrs. Thomas Maymoucaux, Miss June Whittemore, Mrs. J. T. Treasure, Miss Phil Pointer, Mrs. G. W. Shores, Mrs. S. P. Whitney and Mrs. B. W. Rowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ray and Miss Evelyn Thomas gave a dinner at the Alta club on Thursday in honor of Miss Mary Sharp and Mr. George T. Badger, the table being decorated in red with flowers, ribbons and red-shaded candles adding in the pretty effect. Covers were laid for eight.

Ben Siegel entertained informally at dinner at the Country club on Wednesday, his party including about a half dozen guests.

The most elaborate affair of the week was the reception and dance given last night at the Ladies' Literary club by Mr. and Mrs. James E. Jennings in celebration of their eighteenth wedding anniversary, the rooms being handsomely decorated and a large number being present.

Mrs. William C. Jennings entertained at two afternoon affairs this week.

Mrs. Ira Tuttle entertained informally at dinner at the Country club yesterday.

Miss Chloé Burns, whose marriage is to take place tonight, entertained her bridal party on Thursday evening, a delightful time being spent. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Cannon, Mrs. Christine B. Clayton, Mr. F. W. Nelson, Mr. Clarence N. Sampson and Miss Burns.

Miss Katherine Judge entertained informally at luncheon on Thursday, covers being laid for eight.

Mrs. M. A. Sears entertained Monday afternoon at a parcel shower in honor of Miss Una Pratt. Luncheon was served to thirty guests, who were taken to meet Miss Pratt. During the afternoon vocal solos were rendered by Miss Anna Rogers and Mrs. C. O. Winkler.

Mrs. F. L. Oswald entertained at a dinner on Thursday in honor of Mrs. J. F. Spalding and Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin Brewster.

A pleasant surprise was given Miss Maggie Johnson last Saturday evening at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Mollerup. The evening was spent with games and music, and refreshments were served. Sixteen guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb entertained informally on Thursday night.

Last night Mrs. Robert G. Smith entertained informally at dinner at the Country club in honor of Mrs. Jack Jenne.

Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Donohoe entertained at dinner last night at the Emory-Holmes, the table being bright with flowers, and covers being laid for about a half dozen.

Mrs. D. S. Murray entertained informally on Thursday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Jack Jenne.

Miss Mary Sharp was guest of honor at a delightful Kensington on Monday given by Miss Daisy Raybould, the rooms being bright with spring flowers, and the hostess being assisted by Mrs. J. B. Sadler and Miss Ella Mantor. A doll-dressing contest was the amusement of the day, the prize being won by Miss Abbie Wells, and a special prize going to the guest of honor.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage of Miss Mary Sharp and Mr. George T. Badger will take place next Wednesday, the ceremony to be performed in the Temple during the day and a large reception to take place in the evening at the bride's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Derrick announce the marriage of their daughter Annabel to Mr. H. E. Watson, which will take place June 6, in the Salt Lake Temple.

Next Thursday Miss Emily Whitney and Winslow F. Smith will be married, the ceremony to be performed in the Temple, to be followed by a luncheon, after which an informal reception will take place during the afternoon at the bride's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ruf announce the engagement of their daughter, Emily, to Frank U. Frazier. The marriage will take place June 11.

John Lloyd announces the engagement of his daughter, Florence, to Juan Castina. The wedding will take place June 27.

The wedding of Miss Katherine Riddle and Edmund Logan Thompson will take place Monday, June 11. The wedding will take place at the bride's home, followed by a large reception. Over a hundred invitations have been issued.

A quiet but pretty wedding was that of Mrs. Lillie Thompson and A. H. Nettles, which took place on Wednesday at the home of the bride, the ceremony being followed by a wedding breakfast and reception, the rooms being bright with flowers for the event. Mr. and Mrs. Nettles will make their home in Pocatello.

COMING AND GOING

Mrs. A. K. Brinton left for California yesterday to visit her daughter Mary at Stanford. Both will spend the summer on the coast.

Mrs. J. W. Thompson of Sugar City, Ida., will be in town during the week to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Whitney.

Mrs. J. J. Bamberger of New York is the guest of Mrs. J. E. Bamberger for a few weeks. The Bambergers home on east First South street.

Mrs. W. E. Kinnerley and Miss Barbara Kinnerley are at the Hotel Lankershim, in Los Angeles.

Miss Winn and Miss Block, who have been guests in Salt Lake the last month, will return the first of the week to their home in St. Louis.

Mrs. Russell C. Wehrman, who

the home of the bride's parents. Apostles and Mrs. O. F. Whitney.

Tonight the wedding of Miss Chloé Burns and Clarence N. Sampson takes place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sarah Burns, the ceremony to be performed by Elder Royal B. Young. Mrs. Christine Clayton will be matron of honor, and Mr. F. Nelson best man. A reception will follow the ceremony, and later the bride and groom will leave for Boston to visit Mr. Sampson's parents. The bride is one of Salt Lake's popular young belles, and the groom is connected with the Consolidated Fuel & Iron company of this city. They will have the best wishes of many friends.

The wedding of Miss Mamie White of Ogden school, and Oscar A. Berg, will take place about the middle of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Brewster announce the engagement of their daughter Louise May to Mr. Alex. H. Ohlad. The wedding will take place in the very near future.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rampton of Boun-

Oakland, where they have spent the winter. Mrs. Woodruff will be the guest of Mrs. Julia Kimball, and Miss Blanche Kimball for the summer.

Mrs. Frederick W. Little expects to leave soon for Long Beach to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McIntyre have moved from the Progress flats and will shortly be settled at 114 east Eighth South street.

Miss Winnifred Woodmansee left yesterday for Long Beach, where she will spend the summer.

Judge and Mrs. Le Grand Young left yesterday for New York to be gone several weeks.

Mrs. O. E. Cary is at home with Mrs. Russell L. Tracy for a few weeks.

Mrs. M. A. Hayes, accompanied by her daughters, the Misses Louise and Ethel Hayes, left this week for Los Angeles.

Mrs. George Nye, accompanied by her son and Miss Georgia Webber, have returned, is here for a short time. She will return to Los Angeles, accompanied by her son Hooper and will remain through the summer.

Mrs. E. B. Mudgett and her daughter, Edith, left this week for Springfield, Ill.

Mrs. E. Kendrick of Los Angeles is here visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. McIntyre.

The Misses Rees and Mildred McMillan will visit friends in Ohio on their way home from National Park seminary.

Miss Edgarda Wedgwood will go to Grand Junction to spend a short time with friends early in the month.

Miss Maud Haggood has returned from De Lamar and will leave today for Ogden, where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Hoag.

Mrs. J. C. Weaver of Park City is in town for a stay of a fortnight with friends.

Miss Lillian Turner, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wetzel, will leave within a few days for Seattle to spend the summer.

Mrs. Charlotte Newman leaves tomorrow for Denver.

Mrs. C. E. Reilly has gone to Boston to spend the month of June with her son, William, who is in the Boston school of technology.

Miss Adelle Primeaux and Miss Bess Primeaux, who have spent the winter here studying music, will leave the first of the week for their home in Tuscarora.

Mrs. T. W. Armstrong and her daughter will leave today for Atlantic City to spend the summer.

Miss May Burnett and Miss Edith White left this week for Los Angeles for a month's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wood of Spencer, Ida., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hulaniski of Ogden are guests in the city.

Mrs. E. W. Duncan and Miss Edna Duncan left this week for their home in Kansas City.

Miss Sallie Fisher of New York is the guest of Mrs. J. C. Hooper at the Louise flats for a month or six weeks.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

The Second ward amusement hall was the scene of a sumptuous reception and banquet given Wednesday evening in honor of the retiring member of the Weber Stake Sunday school board. Besides the members of the board, the presidency of the stake, a few invited guests were present, and covers were laid for 60. At the banquet table Heber Scofield presided as toastmaster, and a number of toasts were pleasantly responded to by President Shurtliff, H. H. Rolapp, Samuel G. Dye, Nathan J. Harris and others. The hall was very tastefully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants and palms. The retiring members are Mrs. Lottie Smith, W. G. Cragun, James Barber, W. F. Emmett, David Thurman, Bell Kerr, Robert Taylor, Sarah T. Evans, and Charles Bitter.

The engagement of Miss Carrie Fry to Lester Child was announced this week by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fry.

George W. Larkin and wife, James Clarke and wife, and Mrs. Charles Welch have all left Ogden for Boston, where they will take the steamer Arabia on June 7 to sail to England, where they will spend the summer vacation and visiting with relatives and friends, returning home in September.

James L. Barker and Miss Kate Montgomery, two of North Ogden's most popular young people, were married this week in the Salt Lake Temple. They left Ogden yesterday for France, where Mr. Barker goes to complete his study of the French language.

Miss Lottie Munns of Brigham City is visiting in Ogden this week, the guest of Miss Ellen Larkin.

Rev. E. I. Goshen of Salt Lake City entertained an appreciative audience at the Congregational church when he gave his interesting lecture on "Voltaire."

Amos Sebring returned home this week from a pleasant trip to Portland.

Dr. George W. Baker and wife left Ogden Monday for Boston, where the doctor will spend a few weeks in the hospitals. They will then make a tour of the east, before returning home.

At the home of Mrs. D. V. Bell, 154 Twenty-seventh street, last Saturday afternoon, a parcel shower was given. Miss Gertrude White, which was participated in by a number of her lady friends. Miss White, who is a very popular young school teacher, will be married this month to E. B. Thomas, principal of the First Points school.

Mrs. George Browning entertained the Jolly Kensington club Wednesday at her home on Twenty-seventh street.

Mrs. Thomas Carr was hostess at a pretty card party given last Saturday afternoon at her home on Grant avenue, which was enjoyed by a large number of her lady friends. The head prize was won by Mrs. Will McGraw, and the consolation of Mrs. Mabrie. The parties were prettily decorated with yellow roses and evergreens. A dainty lunch was served after cards.

Mrs. Lewis, wife of the dining car manager, gave a delightful luncheon at the Virginia in honor of Mrs. Edna Armstrong Earhart of Cheyenne, Wyo.

The alumni of the Ogden High school gave a most enjoyable dancing party at the Hermitage Thursday night.

Miss Eddy entertained a large number of her lady friends last Saturday at the Virginia.

The Weber Stake academy had a joyous field day at the Lagoon yesterday.

PROVO.

Miss Grace Dunn and Mr. George B. Thompson of Salt Lake were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Dunn, in this city today, in the presence of immediate members of the family. After a wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left for Salt Lake, where they will reside. Mrs. Thompson is one of Provo's most estimable young ladies, and Mr. Thompson a promising young railroad man with the Union Pacific in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Gee were Heber visitors Monday.

Miss Elizabeth Page delightfully entertained last night of Mr. and Mrs. David Barton Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cluff. Music, recitations and games were enjoyed by a large crowd of friends. Light refreshments were served.

Among the weddings to be solemnized during the month of roses will be that of Miss Sylvia Brown and Mr. Eugene L. Roberts, both of Provo. Miss Rogers

A MOURNING TAILOR-MADE.

Tailored costumes are a necessity for every well-planned wardrobe, and in none do they serve a more practical purpose than when used as part of a mourning outfit. Fine serge is used for this trim and stylish a woolen suit, the skirt heavily banded with grosgrain silk, and finished with a protective binding of black velvet, the pony coat with an inner vest of the black silk and the elbow-sleeves with cuffs of the same. Dead black China silk is used for the accompanying bodice, and the silk-covered hat, trimmed with poppies, is banded and looped with a ruche of black maline.

charming girls. Mr. Roberts is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Roberts, and has been a successful teacher in the public schools for several years. The wedding will take place June 20, immediately after which the couple will start for Europe for an extended absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron C. Newell announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Emma, to Mr. J. Leo Brown of Fayette. The wedding will take place in June.

Postmaster Davis of Ogden was the guest of Postmaster Clove Tuesday.

Miss Newa Rose of Soda Springs spent the week with Mrs. M. H. Hardy and family.

Miss Vi Finlayson of Payson is spending a few days in Provo visiting friends.

Misses Etta and Eva Ellertson of Moab are visiting Miss Edna Paine.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Thorne visited relatives in Pleasant Grove this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Jones were Spanish Fork visitors Wednesday.

Miss Sarah Douglas was here from Salt Lake visiting relatives during the week.

Mrs. Marie Alberg visited relatives in Bureka the past week.

Mrs. Perry Snow of Mantle is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Gertrude Page gave a delightful supper Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Anna Douglas. Many beautiful presents were received by the guest of honor and charming social evenings passed with music, song and games. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Anne Sorenson of Nephi was the guest of Mrs. Gertrude Page the past week.

Mrs. J. M. Jensen entertained at dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Fern Bush and Miss Maud Van Wagoner entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. R. D. Sutton at a shower in honor of Miss Anna Douglas. The time passed pleasantly, song, music and merry games, and the discussion of dainty refreshments. Many beautiful presents were received by Miss Douglas.

Prof. John Moody Foster, instructor in the Rexburg (Idaho) academy, is here to spend the vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Fredric Clift.

Miss Tillie Foster, who has been teaching in the Beaver branch of the Brigham Young university, is here for the vacation.

LOGAN.

A very enjoyable social event of the week was the reception given by the A. C. Women's club in the college library on Tuesday evening, when about 200 guests had been invited to witness the unveiling of the statue which the club has presented to the library. The statue is a copy of the Diocletian by Myron, and is certainly a beautiful piece of art and a splendid addition to the room in which it is placed. A very graceful presentation speech was made by Mrs. G. H. Champ, and the statue was unveiled by Mrs. W. S. Lange and Miss Elizabeth Smith. The speech of acceptance was made by President W. J. Kerr. Refreshments were served and the Pavilion orchestra furnished delightful music during the evening. Among those present were the following: Messrs. and Mesdames W. J. Kel, E. W. Robinson, J. E. Carlson, M. J. Bullard, J. Odell, W. S. Langston, A. M. Flemming, L. A. Ostler, R. L. Campbell, B. K. Cobb, F. W. Thatcher, E. R. Ball, J. A. Hendrickson, S. O. Stead, W. J. Wadine, J. Nebeker, Guy Thatcher, P. A. Yoder, Thos. Smart, J. T. Child, Jr., Fred Cates, La Roy Carlson, G. H. Champ, Bezell, G. W. Thatcher, J. the Misses Margaret Wilkerson, Elizabeth Smith, Verna Bowman, Doris Wright, Rose Horner, Julia Nibler, Kate Adams, Effie Smith, Doris Gustaf, Amanda Holmgren, Veda Thatcher, Hilda, Annie, Nora Eliason, Verna McAllister, Blanch Craine, Ella May Maughan, Elva Eliason, Hattie Smith, Jennie Eliason, Gretha Carlson, M. A. Torgensen, Mrs. Benj. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Maughan, Prof. Arnel Rolfe, Preston Nibler, Prof. McKel, Ariel Carlson, Carl Garff, Charles Ross, Preston Peterson, Stuart Lee, Dora Farrell, and many others.

The children and grandchildren of

GHIRARDELLI SAVED.

Fortunately our manufacturing plant was saved from the great fire and we are running to our full capacity as before. Every grocery is being supplied with the celebrated

GHIRARDELLI'S Ground Chocolate

Ghirardelli's Cocoa

SAME QUALITY - - - SAME PRICE

D. GHIRARDELLI CO.,

SAN FRANCISCO.

LUCIAN A. RAY, SALT LAKE AGENT.

A JAUNTY SAILOR.

Pale lavender, blue and yellow m. casine taffeta ribbons trim the high crown of this smart narrow brimmed sailor of a golden honeycomb straw. Broad loops and knots conceal the fastening of the pair of white Mercury wings set on the left side of the crown, and on the back meshpeigne, setting

Mrs. Russell C. Wehrman, who