

DIVORCE COURT GRANTS DECREES

Jennie Cullinan Legally Separated from the Man Who Abused Her.

MRS. WANLESS ALSO DIVORCED

Wife of Defaulting Salt Lake Attorney Freed from the Obligations of Matrimony.

Judge Armstrong today granted Jennie Cullinan a divorce from Patrick E. Cullinan on the ground of cruelty. They were married in this city on Nov. 12, 1892. Plaintiff testified that on Jan. 27, 1895, in this city, her husband slapped her face, disfiguring one of her eyes and rendering her unfit for household duties for two weeks.

On the night of October 1, 1901, while they resided in Chicago, she said he came home intoxicated and drove her and her daughter out of the house and they were compelled to seek shelter at a neighbor's home. He repeated the act on the night of Nov. 10, 1901, and as she was far from friends she sat on the doorstep all night and contracted a very severe cold which made her ill for six months.

In August, 1902, he used vile and abusive language toward her and again slapped her face. They moved to Los Angeles in October of that year and she said that his treatment of her became worse, and that he threatened to kill her, whereupon she and her daughter fled from their home for safety and were compelled to stay away one week. In June, 1903, she testified that he left her for good, that he would kill her, and she and her daughter returned to Salt Lake to their relatives. For more than a year past she claims that he has failed to support her. She was granted a divorce and was allowed to resume her maiden name, Jennie Rowe.

MRS. WANLESS DIVORCED

Corilla C. Wanless was today granted a divorce by Judge Armstrong from Will P. Wanless, the Salt Lake attorney who recently left the state to avoid arrest upon the charge of misappropriation of funds belonging to a client. The ground for divorce is failure to support. The plaintiff testified that during their entire married life defendant had failed to provide her with sufficient and proper food and clothing, and during the winter just passed she was dependent upon her friends and relatives for means to provide her with necessary clothing and food. They were married at Phoenix, Ariz., on Feb. 9, 1903. Plaintiff is allowed to resume her maiden name, Corilla C. Fisher.

FORECLOSURE SUIT

Frank Gustin Seeks to Recover Payment of $500 Note.

Frank G. Gustin has filed suit in the district court against E. C. Rognon and wife and P. T. Elwell, Franklin Lawrence and Salt Lake county to foreclose a mortgage on several lots in East Side adding to the mortgage was given by Rognon and wife on Feb. 1, 1897, to secure the payment of a note for $500 in favor of A. E. Dent, which note has been assigned to plaintiff in this action. It is charged that Elwell, Lawrence and Salt Lake county claim some interest in the property, hence they are made parties defendant. Judgment is asked for $500 and interest from March 5, 1905.

BOY ROBBED HELD

Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus Denied by Judge Armstrong.

The petition of Harry Benson for a writ of habeas corpus was denied by Judge Armstrong today, and he was remanded to the custody of Sheriff Emery to await the action of the juvenile court. His case will be attended to by Judge Brown without delay should he decide that he will take jurisdiction in the case.

Benson is 17 years old and is charged with robbery. The petition for a writ of habeas corpus was made on the grounds that the complaint against him was not sworn to before a committing magistrate as provided by law, but was sworn to before a deputy clerk of the city court, and that the complaint was made merely on the basis of hearsay belief and not upon positive knowledge.

Judge Armstrong held that the deputy clerk is authorized by law to administer an oath and that such authorization is sufficient for him to take oath of a complainant in such a case as this. He also held that the papers in the case did not show that the complaint was sworn to merely on information and belief. He accordingly denied the writ.

Suit on a Note

Suit has been filed in the district court by Fred G. Lynberg against John H. and Mary Ryan to recover $200 and interest alleged to be due on a promissory note executed by defendants on Oct. 10, 1904, and which they promised to pay out of an inheritance from the estate of Ryan's father.

COURT NOTES

Judge Ritchie has rendered a judgment of dismissal in favor of defendants in the case of Richard Howe against Isaac Sears, T. E. and Eliza-best Jewett. The case was brought to revive a judgment for $2,894.42 secured by plaintiff against defendants in October, 1895. Defendants pleaded the statute of limitations and the court sustained the plea and dismissed the case.

HAD A GREAT TIME

Woodmen Return But Not With Expected Headquaters.

Several of the Woodmen's delegation to Los Angeles have returned, with reports of a great time in southern California. The trip included a sail to Catalina Island, and excursions to various other points of interest. They remark that there is not much chance of the Woodmen's headquarters ever leaving Denver, and that attempts to bring before the convention the view of any change of location only resulted in the tabling of the motion. It was also noted that the big states gobbled up all of the offices. Therefore, the smaller states like Utah and Idaho had been remembered with something of a representation; but this time they are left entirely short.

STILL KICKING

Grain Dealers Now Complaining of Auto Invasion.

dealers call attention to the fact that automobiles do not eat hay or grain, they never need the attention of the blacksmith, as they never need shoeing, and they cut into the vehicle trade. Automobiles tend to reduce the number of horses and in consequence there is also a reduction in the amount of horse trading, and then the veterinarian is having so much less to do.

SENT TO REFORM SCHOOL

Edith Goodfellow Committed to That Institution by Judge Brown.

Edith Goodfellow was sent to the reform school at Ogden today by Judge Brown of the juvenile court. The girl is only 15 years of age, and was committed to the school several days ago on the charge of incorrigibility, but sentence was suspended during her good behavior. She failed to be good, however, and was preparing to leave the state and go to Nevada and thus violate her parole, so she was gathered in by the sheriff and will now have to go to Ogden. The complaint against her was made by her father, who said that he could not control her.

SCHETTLER INQUIRY

Examination Resumed This Afternoon Before Referee Baldwin.

From the line of examination of B. H. Schettler this afternoon in the court room of Referee in Bankruptcy Charles Baldwin it was evident that the depositors will make a searching investigation of the transactions of the ex-banker. This afternoon the questions directed against him insinuated that he had given to all his family their total deposits just before the receiver took possession, and that he had transferred property to one of his sons, which in turn was transferred to his wife, for a nominal consideration, shortly before the bank closed, and when the books showed the bank to be totally insolvent. Additional subpoenas have been issued in the case for Receiver T. H. Anderson, who is planned to place upon the stand tomorrow at 10 o'clock and for the wives and all of the grown children of Mr. Schettler, who will be questioned in relation to their personal relationship with the bank.

The examination, which was continued from yesterday afternoon, was conducted by Attorney C. B. Stewart, Attorney Will Ray, of the firm of Rawlins & Ray, representing Mr. Schettler, Mr. Blakely, the trustee in bankruptcy, and the morning in the office of Stewart & Stewart, searching through the books for data upon which to question Mr. Schettler this afternoon. Andrew Grunfor, David Hirsch, and other heavy creditors were present when the hearing opened. The first series of questions dealt with the difference in values on real estate between the sworn statement of Schettler's bank made on Sept. 17, 1904, and the values listed in the schedule. In the latter statement appeared to be $29,000 larger than the former. In the examination yesterday queries were put to Mr. Schettler as to the nature of the payment of $25 to W. B. Preston, and today another item of $500 paid to Mr. Preston was found, and it was the intention to query Mr. Schettler as to the nature of it. Another item which Mr. Blakely did not favor, about which the attorneys intended to examine Mr. Schettler later, was a payment of $500 to the mother-in-law of Cornelius Schettler. Another payment to the family that was investigated was to Carl Schettler of $162 in October. Following up a claim of Mr. Schettler made yesterday that the handwriting in the ledger making a certain entry was not the day before, it is now thought that the examination will not be concluded for a week or 10 days.
