AMUSEMENTS.

Salt Lake wanted to see May Irvin very badly—nothing else could have induced an audience to sit through a sweltering evening and wait until 9 o'clock for the first curtain to rise without the slightest sign of impatience or ill nature. The scenery was late in arriving which accounted for the delay in the opening of the performance, but once it was opened, everything seemed to be forgotten except May Irvin and the unfolding of her heavenly amusing farce "Mrs. Black is Back." Some one once said that no woman ever had a real sense of the ludicrous. That someone certainly never encountered May Irvin. She is gifted to the keenest degree with a sense of everything that ought to and does cause a laugh. Her magnetic comedy methods which are given most harmoniously may be the witty author of her farce, were never in better evidence than last night. She "came out of her role" long enough to indulge in several of her own songs, sung in the inimitable way that only May Irvin can render them, and made the usual hit, especially with the catchy "Two-toned" song. She was excellently supported by a strong company of ladies and gentlemen, though few of them had much to do except to fill in around the central figure. Specialty good instances of acting were the Emily Naeve of Jane Beerly and the Tom Larkey of Mr. Foley.

CLAIMS NEW CURE FOR CONSUMPTION

New York, Aug. 25.—Physicians of this city are much interested in a circular issued yesterday by the New York post graduate hospital announcing the discovery of a new cure for consumption. This new remedy is the juice of raw table vegetables—potatoes, beets, carrots, onions, celery and the like, prepared by grinding and squeezing, a dose being two ounces after meals.

The statement is made that 11 patients with well developed pulmonary tuberculosis have been absolutely cured and are now good subjects for life insurance risks. Fifty other patients are still under treatment and said to be progressing satisfactorily.

Experiments along these lines have been going on at the hospital for several years and occasional brief accounts have been published of cures alleged to have been performed. The basis of the work has been that to cure consumption beyond the indolent stage an "unknown something" must be found in the "juice." Now it is declared that this unknown something or remedy has been at last discovered in vegetable juice.

Accompanying the circular are the names of two New York physicians, who, it is stated, were appointed by the hospital authorities to observe and report on the experiments, and they speak in most sanguine terms of what has been accomplished and what will doubtless follow as the work progresses. In addition to applying the raw vegetable juice as a cure for the most obstinate case of consumption the hospital's circular announced that "it is believed, moreover, that this may lead to a means by which everybody may be rendered immune from the deadly tubercle bacilli, just as vaccination safeguards against smallpox."

It is stated that the experiments were begun on a small scale, with only a few vegetables used by hand. Later, however, the method was carried out on every vegetable used as food employed.

A CRIMINAL'S CAREER.

Frank Punshon After Many Times
In Prison, Up Against It.

Chicago, Aug. 25.—After three weeks of freedom, Frank Punshon, swindler and general thief, who for 34 years has been outside prison bars for no time exceeding three months, faces a penitentiary sentence again. With the charges and identification of six women, who declare they have been victimized by him since his release from the jail, Punshon on Aug. 26 confronting him, the man whose record in criminology is unique, complacently views his return to prison and expresses little regret.

The criminal efforts of Punshon are said to have started within 24 hours of his completion of a four-year sentence in Joliet, Ill. He claims the "Chicago" police had sought a man known as Frank Hope, who inserted advertisements in newspapers seeking the services of a thief and nurse. Meetings with applicants were arranged in the lobbies of downtown hotels, and always resulted in the hiring of the applicant and the transfer of small amounts of money on some pretext to the advertiser, who represented himself as a clergyman.

Counsels of Royal Arcanum.

New York, Aug. 25.—Sixty-three counsels of the Royal Arcanum in this city probably will accept a delegation to the special convention to the supreme council to be held Aug. 30 at Put-in-Bay, Ohio, to see that the 15 supreme representatives of New York state stand by their pledges to vote for the rescinding of the rate law established by the council last May.

A call was issued yesterday with this object in view. It asks the local council to meet in a session when it is proposed to discuss the matter, and if found feasible the delegation was appointed.

THE FIRST MOTOR TORPEDO BOAT.

The peculiar craft shown in the cut has been launched recently in England. It is a motor torpedo boat, and its lines are not especially neat, but it is expected to show great speed and to be able to dart up to a hostile ship and deliver its deadly missile and get away without detection. It has been christened the Dragon Fly. The British authorities are so convinced of the usefulness of the invention that they have ordered several others to be built at once.

GOLF WHERE ONE WOULD LEAST EXPECT TO FIND IT.

The building illustrated herewith is the clubhouse of a golfing association at Sierra Leone, on the west coast of Africa. This portion of the African coast has obtained a bad reputation for insalubrity. It has been termed not inappropriately "the white man's grave." It would seem, however, that there is no locality too unhealthy for golf. On these links the game can be played only from January to April, for they are under water the rest of the year. There are no greens; instead they call them "putting browns."

TWO VIEWS OF A WATERSPOUT ON THE LAKE OF ZUG.

The views herewith given were made from photographs taken by M. Leopold Wolfli, who happened to be sailing on the Lake of Zug when the phenomenon occurred. It was at 4 o'clock on a recent afternoon and the day had been perfect, not a cloud appearing in the sky until the waterspout began to descend. When the cloud column reached the lake the water was violently agitated and rose in a pillarlike mass to a great height. M. Wolfli, who is the ex-archduke of Austria who gave up his title to marry a woman of humble birth, was nearly capsize, but he managed to secure two good snapshots of the waterspout.

A SPOON SHAKER

Straight From Coffeedom.

Coffee can marshall a good squadron of enemies and some very hard ones to overcome. A lady in Florida writes: "I have always been very fond of good coffee and for years drank it at least three times a day. At last, however, I found that I was indulging in a habit which was doing me harm. I became bilious, subject to frequent and violent headaches, and so very nervous that I could not lift a spoon to my mouth without spilling a part of its contents, my heart got 'rickety' and beat so fast and so hard that I could scarcely breathe, while my skin got thick and dingy, with yellow blotches on my face, caused by the condition of my liver and blood. I made up my mind that all these afflictions came from the coffee, and I determined to experiment and see."

"So I quit coffee and got a package of Postum, which furnished my hot morning beverage. After a little time I was rewarded by a complete restoration of my health in every respect. I do not suffer from biliousness any more, my headaches have disappeared, my nerves are as steady as could be desired, my heart beats regularly and my complexion has cleared up beautifully—the blotches have been wiped out and it is such a pleasure to be well again. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

HUNDREDS OF TRUNKS STOLEN.

Roy Aldrich, Alias Espey, and
Daisy Dean Worked a Simple Scheme

EXCHANGED CHECKS ON BAGGAGE

Went to Agents and With Half a Dollar Showed Checks, Got Trunk Out
And Then Changed Checks.

Chicago, Aug. 25.—The Inter-Ocean today says:

The mysterious disappearance of hundreds of trunks and other baggage from railroad trains and stations in Chicago, St. Louis and Denver during the past two years has just been revealed through the arrests here of Roy Aldrich, alias Roy Espey of California, and a woman giving the name of Daisy Dean, and her home as Denver. They were arrested on a charge of stealing furniture from a store in the Masonic temple. When their rooms were searched the police found a large number of trunks and suit cases and a production of the most expensive clothing and toilet articles for men and women.

Also Dean confessed to the police yesterday her participation in a scheme which has caused a large number of railroads to lose a vast amount of valuable baggage.

The scheme was simple. They would take a trunk, satchel or suit case containing only a shirt or some other articles of clothing and check it to some nearby point. After the trunk was placed in the baggage car either the man or woman would go to the baggage agents and with half a dollar show the check and asked to be allowed to open the trunk in order to get out a clean shirt or some other article.

In not a single case did the baggage master refuse the request. While ostensibly getting something out of one trunk to wear, the man or woman would exchange the check on the empty trunk or value for one of the best appearing trunks or valises in the car.

When the trunk reached the destination to which the dummy baggage had been shipped, Aldrich immediately would put on a duplicate check, which would be transferred to another trunk, get it, and take it to his room. When the owner of the trunk called for it he would be offered the dummy trunk of the shipment.

Detectives of the roads are now trying to trace the stolen property. The Dean woman admits that much of it has been stored in various places, but she refused to reveal where.
