Yesterday the horse and buggy belonging to Scowcroft and Sons company was taken by some unknown man from the front of their store and used for awhile but not returned to the place where it was taken from, but tled up down near the depot, where the police officers found it after spending much time hunting for it.

LEFT HER GUARDIAN.

The sheriff's office was notified yes. terday that a young girl about 14 years of age had disappeared from the home of Mrs. Hancock out at Harrisville. Deputy Sheriff Balley went out to investigate the matter and after diligent search he found the girl at the home of Pettigrew with whom she had left the Hancock place several days ago. The gir! did not seem to be very anxious about going back to the guardian's home to live again, and it is very possible some trouble may arise over the affair, for Mrs. Hancock is determined to have the girl back again, but before she can get her back the court will have sign an order and the sheriff will have to take her from Mrs. Pettigrew.
