FRAGMENTS.

MAYOR ARMSTRONG has gone to Mountain Dell.

MAYOR HOWELLS, of Wellsville, is on a visit to Salt Lake.

THE Art Bazar is making extensive preparations for Valentine's Day.

THE Territorial Supreme Court has adjourned until Wednesday, Feb. 2.

BUSINESS is dull in the Police Court—not a single arrest by the police last night.

THE partnership between S. H. Gilson and E. A. Franks has been dissolved, Gilson continuing in the management of the "detective agency."

SHERIFF W. M. ALLISON found time enough to forsake his snowy retreat and pay us a brief visit to-day. He returns to Summit County to morrow.

ON Sunday morning, in a hotel in Butte, Montana, a woman named Nettie Renaurd was aroused from her sleep by her bed being on fire. The flames were extinguished by those who heard the woman's screams, but she was severely burned and will be badly disfigured for life.

THE funeral of the late Homer J. Stone took place this afternoon from the residence of Mrs. Howard, in the Eighth Ward. The services were conducted under the auspices of the Episcopal Church, and a large number of sympathizing friends congregated and followed the remains to the cemetery.

THE Richmond (Va.) Herald, in speaking of the "grand opportunities for agriculturists in Utah," says there are still 41,000,000 acres in the Territory of unsurveyed lands. Just so; and this vast area is likely to remain unsurveyed until some method is discovered of transforming snowclad mountain peaks, rocky plateaus and sandy deserts into fruitful gardens.

LOCAL NEWS.

Arrest at Willard.—On Monday afternoon Peter Madsen, of Willard, Box Elder County, was arrested on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. He waived examination and was placed under $1,500 bonds to await the grand jury's action. The witnesses were required to furnish bail in the sum of $200 each.

Exit Chinese.—On Saturday last the citizens of Livingston, Montana, ordered every Chinaman within the town limits to leave immediately. The Celestials were followed up and compelled to take their departure. The alleged reason for this action was that the people wanted to get rid of the opium dens, all of which were run by Chinamen, and public sentiment against them was aroused by the death of a white man the night before from the effects of opium smoking.

Cattle Deal.—T. J. Spikeman, of Eagle Rock, Idaho, extensively engaged in the cattle business, is in town on matters pertaining to his calling. He to-day effected a purchase from White & Son of 400 head of steers, to which he adds as many more of his own, to be taken north and delivered to Edwin Thompson, of Eagle Rock, for the purpose of supplying the northern market. This is a large transaction, but only one of many that are going on every now and then, illustrating the extent and importance of the cattle business. The animals sell for 3¼ cents per pound on foot.

The Concert.—The vocal and instrumental concert in the Theatre last evening was well attended, the fashionable part of the house being nearly filled, as is customary on society occasions, the other parts being fairly represented. The sale of seats had been mainly by subscription, thus securing an audience the bulk of which was known in advance to be friendly to the cause of the divine art of music and to the promoter and beneficiary of the entertainment, Prof. H. S. Krouse. It was a fine array of local talent that appeared before the auditors, and the numbers were well selected and finely rendered. Salt Lake has musical ability which is worthy of cultivation and which only needs to be known to become famous.

The Funeral.—The funeral service over the remains of the late Elder William A. McMaster was held in the Seventh Ward meeting house yesterday afternoon. The building was crowded to its utmost capacity by the friends of the deceased. The opening prayer was offered by Elder Robert Morris, and the speakers were President Angus M. Cannon, Elder Elias Morris and Bishop Alexander McRae. They spoke of the many good qualities of the deceased, of his faithful and effective labors in the cause of truth, and exhorted his family and friends to emulate his worthy example. The service was closed by benediction by Elder William Brighton. A large funeral cortege followed the remains to the cemetery, where Elder F. A. Mitchell offered the dedicatory prayer.

How It Is.—The Provo Enquirer, in referring to the steps taken to remove A. O. Smoot, Jr., from the office of U. S. Commissioner at Provo, says:

"It has been believed here for several days that the 'Loyal Dave' has been plotting for the removal of Mr. Smoot from the office of U. S. Commissioner. It now comes to light that this same person has forwarded to the Supreme Court at Salt Lake a formal request of that nature, and at the same time praying for the appointment of Emery Hill as his successor. It is not probable that Mr. Smoot ever made the statement charged by Attorney Dickson. Whether he did or not, it is a notorious fact that he has never had an opportunity to exercise his discretionary functions upon the class of cases referred to. Through an abuse of process by the Salt Lake lee combination, all such cases have been carried past him to Commissioner McKay. Inasmuch as this abuse has been going on for years with perfect impunity and under no fear of interruption by the courts, it is certainly a poor piece of diplomacy on the part of the Salt Lake Syndicate to agitate its discontinuance. There has either been a sudden awakening among the fee fiends to the possible results of an investigation, or else a stroke of brotherly love has moved them to divide the spoils with their southern allies."

Tahlequah, Indian Territory, has a sensation in the woman who has become a desperado. The Cherokee Advocate says of the effects of her example: "Belle Starr, the notorious Amazon, has succeeded in awakening a spirit of emulation among certain females at this place. Two women living near this place now wear belts of cartridges and carry six-shooters in the approved Belle Starr style. It is reported that one of these female desperadoes shot at a white man the other day, making him skeddidle to a lively tune."

It is reported in Vienna that 15,000 Jews have been expelled from the government of Kieff, Russia.

ERICK HOGAN DISCHARGED.

ANOTHER CITIZEN PLACED IN UNNECESSARY JEOPARDY.

At 5 o'clock last evening the preliminary examination commenced in the case of Erick Hogan, of Bountiful, Davis County, accused of unlawful cohabitation. The defendant was represented by Attorney Moyle, and the prosecution was conducted by District Attorney Dickson.

The first witness was Mrs. Anna Hogan. She testified that she was the wife of the defendant's father; her husband was dead; defendant's wife's maiden name was Perfindia Hatch; she had been married ten or fifteen years, and had six children; the youngest was three or four years old; witness had not visited Mrs. Hogan's for two years; never heard that the defendant had a second wife; she could swear to that as loud as Mr. Dickson wanted her to.

Mrs. J. Hogan testified that she was also the wife of the defendant's father; lived about a block from defendant's house; had not visited him for four years; his wife visited witness' house occasionally; the youngest child was three or four years old; witness did not know its name; never heard that the defendant had a second wife until Deputy Pratt told her so when he came to subpœna her.

Mrs. Louisa Johnson testified that she knew the defendant's wife Perfindia; never knew of a second wife; never heard that he had one until she was told so by Deputy Pratt.

Miss Olivia Johnson testified that she had been acquainted with defendant and his wife about 22 years; had never been at his house, and had never heard that he had a second wife.

John Johnson knew the defendant, but never heard of his having a second wife.

After a whispered consultation with Deputy Marshal Pratt, Mr. Dickson stated that he had no further testimony to offer.

Commissioner McKay then informed Mr. Hogan that, as there was no evidence on which to hold him, he was discharged.

CITY COUNCIL.

The City Council met in regular session at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening, Mayor Armstrong presiding.

C. F. Annett, manager of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone Company, in a communication to the Council, tendered the use of the telephone poles for the adoption of a system of fire alarm. He recommended, if his offer were embraced, that the Gamewell system be that chosen.

On motion of Mr. Riter, a vote of thanks was returned to Mr. Annett for his courtesy, and his recommendation was referred to the committee on fire department.

Jeremy & Co., salt manufacturers at 58 N. Sixth West Street, asked leave to use sufficient of the street to build a switch from the D. & R. G. to their warehouse. The petition was endorsed by a number of property owners in that vicinity. Referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

Elizabeth Brown, 213 S. First East Street, asked that her license for "purchasing old garments and making them over," be remitted for one year, stating that her husband was in the insane asylum and that she had four children to support. Granted.

Conrad Newham presented a doctor's certificate signed by Dr. Beatty stating that he was an invalid. On this certificate petitioner asked leave to peddle oranges without license. Referred to the committee on license.

One retail liquor license was granted.

B. Y. Hampton was granted an auctioneer's license for one year and Jas. Hegeny was granted a license as retail liquor dealer, for the term of three months.

REPORTS.

The chief engineer of the Fire Department presented his annual report for the year 1886. The number of alarms during the year was 45. Losses, $33,400; insurance, $11,500. The present value of the Fire Department plant is: $16,884; the expenses of running the department for the year were $10,275.39. Referred to the committee on Fire Department.

The City Auditor presented his report of the receipts and disbursements for the quarter ending November 30th, 1886, showing as follows:

Balance on hand Sept. 1st	$ 5,519.00
Receipts during quarter	80,505.99
	$86,025.00
Disbursements	63,254.71
Balance on hand Dec. 1st, 1886	$ 2,770.29

The auditor also submitted a supplemental report for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1886, showing as follows:

December 1st, 1885, balance on hand	$ 22,242.63
Receipts during year	200,165.68
Total	$222,349.31
Disbursements during the year	219,570.02
Balance on hand December 1st, 1886	$2,770.29

These reports were referred to the committee on finance.

The committee on license, to whom had been referred the petition of G. S. Erb, asking a rebate on his various licenses, amounting to some $115, reported in favor of allowing him $105.40 rebate. Adopted.

The same committee reported favorably on granting B. H. Williams a six months' license as a job wagon driver free; unfavorably on the prayer of Mathew Barnes who also asked a free license; unfavorably on the petition of T. H. Morrison, making a similar request, and unfavorably on the petition of A. F. Youngberg, asking that he be given the benefit of two months' time on his license, during which time he desired to close up his business "to wait for better times."

The committee on curollmeat reported the completion and publication of the ordinance relating to second-hand dealers.

The Council then adjourned till Friday night.

IMPORTANCE OF PURE ICE.

A SUBJECT OF INTEREST TO CONSUMERS OF, AND DEALERS IN, THE ARTICLE.

The remarkably open character of the present winter until recently was a cause of considerable anxiety to the icemen lest they should fail to secure the requisite amount to supply the market. The recent frosts, however, have had a tendency to relieve their minds on this subject. But there is another feature of this question that to the public at large is of paramount importance; that is the quality of the ice put up for general consumption.

The consumption of ice is constantly on the increase for various purposes, and as to the advantage, of it when rightly obtained and properly employed, there can be no question. But it is a well known fact that the inordinate use of ice-water as a beverage is prejudicial to health, and when to this is added an impure article contaminated with the germs of disease, such we do not hesitate to say has been put upon the market, people cannot be too careful in discriminating against it. An impure fountain cannot bring forth pure ice any more than it can pure water.

On this subject an eastern board of health comes to the following conclusions:

Ice formed in impure water has caused sickness; it may contain from eight to ten per cent of the organic matter dissolved in the water, and in addition a very large amount of the organic matter that had been merely suspended or floating in it; it may contain living animals and plants, ranging in size from visible worms down to the minutest spores, and the vitality of these organisms may be unaffected by freezing.

It is of course quite impossible to ascertain exactly how much sickness in the community is attributable to the use of an impure article, but now is a good time for consumers to inquire into the source of the supply and see that it is reasonably free from such impurities as are calculated to engender disease.

THE BRIGHAM CITY RAID.

A FRUITLESS SEARCH—DEPUTY M'LELLAN ANXIOUS TO SHOOT SOMEBODY.

The following account of the raid on Brigham City Box Elder County, on Monday morning is given by our correspondent:

The equanimity of our quiet town was disturbed at an unusual hour this morning (January 24th) by the presence of Deputy Marshals Steele, Whetstone, Cudlnee, Exum, McLellan, Chas. Corey, Geo. Corey and one other whose name was not learned. We occasionally have a complimentary call from one or two of them but this is the first professional visit from the whole organized force for nearly two months. As you will see they were quite numerous this time, and apparently their plans were well laid; they seemed more eager than heretofore, and evinced a settled determination to get "their man."

The raid began before daylight at Brother J. D. Burt's premises, near the centre of town. An officer guarded each door without while two conducted the search within. While this was in progress a member of the family emerged from the house and was proceeding toward the outbuildings when Deputy McLellan called a halt and simultaneously. From the deportment of this deputy he seemed to be a rash personage, inclined to resort to a weapon first, and make inquiries afterwards.

During the search two of the force who were on horseback hurriedly rode to Brother Burt's premises in the northwest part of the city, where several of his sons are also located. These deputies, with their needle guns paraded about as sentinels to see that no one came or went out until the main force reached the place which was not long, as the object of their search was not discovered at the first place called on.

This being the third visit of deputies to Brother Burt's family the latter have lost the capability of being astonished at such "courtesies." After searching the last named place with the same success as at the other the deputies laid aside their straight-jacket etiquette and began searching houses with a vengeance. Among the places visited were the city home and the farm of Brother J. Hansen, the premises of John Batt, P. F. Madsen, Abraham Hillam, Lars Larsen, N. P. Anderson; also the Co-operative store and the tithing office. The only person arrested was father George L. Graehl who was

AFTERWARDS RELEASED.

During the raid the deputies made frequent calls at the saloon. Their pilot was one Charley Corey, formerly a merchant of this city. Most of the remaining portion of the force were gentlemany in the discharge of their duties.

About 2 p.m., after, making another call at Brother Burt's premises, they started for Ogden, after a fruitless chase, and now the town has gravitated to its wonted tranquility. D.

ARRESTED AND DISCHARGED.

JOHN D. LANG IS ACCUSED, BUT IS PROVED INNOCENT.

About 11 o'clock to-day Deputy Pratt arrested an aged and feeble resident of the Fifteenth Ward, of this city, John Daniel Lang, at the latter's tailor shop. The complaint was made against him by Rench, and accused him of unlawful cohabitation from Feb. 1, 1884, to Jan. 1, 1887, with Mrs. Lang and Jane Doe.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the defendant was arraigned, the alleged plural wife having been brought in from Brighton.

To the Commissioner's question—"What do you say to this complaint?" the defendant replied, "Mr. McKay, I have only one wife, and have had only one for 26 years."

Commissioner—You plead not guilty, then?

Mr. Lang—Yes, sir.

Mr. Moyle was telephoned for, but was not in his office, and the Commissioner asked, "Can't you get another man?"

Mr. Lang—I might, but I want Mr. Moyle.

The latter came in shortly after and the examination proceeded.

Elizabeth Connelly was called and testified—I live in Brighton, Salt Lake County; I know the defendant; I was married to him about ten years ago, but he has never lived with me; when I have milk and butter to sell, he takes it to the city for me; I have a farm in Brighton; there is an old house on it, with four rooms in it; I live alone; I was never married before; I never lived in Mr. Lang's house; I own part of the farm; I bought it from Mr. Adamson. Mr. Lang goes out to work when he has nothing to do at his business as a tailor in the city; sometimes he works a week digging and planting the garden; it is three miles; he don't stay all night; he was away south about two years, and came back a year ago; he has not stayed there since; I never had a divorce from him; never lived with him since we were married; he gives me a little tea, coffee and sugar, clothes, etc., as I need; I have never had any children; he takes his dinner with him, but never eats with me, except he comes in the house when the sun is hot and eats his dinner; I have lived there about ten years; was married thirteen years ago.

Commissioner—Do you know his other wife?

Witness—That's not my business.

Commissioner—Did you ever meet another lady who is married to him?

No answer.

Commissioner—Can't you answer that question?

No answer.

Commissioner—You know what I asked you, don't you?

Still no answer.

Commissioner—You sit over there a few minutes.

Mrs. Jones testified—I know the last witness; used to teach school at Brighton; she lives at her own house; I have been there; I am the defendant's daughter; my mother is Josephine Lang; my father lives in the same house; the last witness is reputed to have been sealed to my father; I do not remember the exact time; it may be 15 years; I have not seen her at father's house for a long time, about two years ago; he came to see me; I was at our house about three years ago; my father has not been there recently; he has a farm near by, and sometimes works it or hires men; she does not live on his land, but near by, on her own; he never owned her land; she is reputed to have been sealed to him; I don't know whether there is any difference between sealing and marriage, but think there is.

To Mr. Moyle—A man and woman, according to my religious belief, may be sealed when one is dead; two living persons may be sealed and still not live together; this is when they do not marry for this life; this latter is the understanding of my father's relationship with the last witness; my father has always lived with my mother, and when he goes to the farm he takes his dinner with him.

Elizabeth Connelly recalled—I know Mrs. Lang; I have visited her once or twice the last year, when I was in the city. I only stayed a few minutes on each occasion; I sometimes come in afoot; never stayed over night; Mr. Lang never stayed at the farm over night; he has no other house there; he leaves his tools at my house, and comes for them when he works on the farm; I am generally out attending to my cows; Mr. Lang never brought them; I work on my farm; I was married for eternity; I don't know whether I can call it sealed or married, but it was for eternity; a man must provide for his wife under those circumstances if he does right; I am now 57.

Mr. Lang stated that he was 63 years of age and a native of Switzerland.

Mrs. Jones stated that her mother was 57 years of age; she was not home at present.

Mr. Moyle stated that there were numbers of instances among the "Mormons" where parties were sealed or married for eternity, with the understanding that they should not live as husband and wife in this life.

Commissioner—Well, I guess I'll let him go. You are discharged.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Missionaries in Alabama—Cowardly Assassins—A "Shooting Affair."

DOVE, Sumpter County,
Alabama, January 1887.

Editor Deseret News:

Myself and companion are laboring near the State line, our travels being in both Sumpter County, Alabama, and Lauderdale County, Mississippi. If we were not "Mormons" we would be admirably situated to escape judicial process, if guilty of a misdemeanor in one State, by hopping over the line into the adjoining one. Being "Mormons," our policy is to live above the law. However, preaching the Gospel is sometimes considered a breach of law, i.e., "mob law," which is not confined to any State or county limits, as evinced some time ago when certain mobocrats, who drove Elders Wm. A. Cowan and Myrtillo Shaw from Missouri, made their appearance at Cuba Station, some four miles from our headquarters, and set to work to organize a mob to molest us. Their movements attracted the attention of a Capt. Holmes, who has proved to be our friend on several occasions. He mounted a box and addressed the crowd about as follows:

"Boys, I tell you, if you go to old man Odum's with any hostile intent, some of you will get hurt, as the old man is prepared for you."

His words had the intended effect upon the cowards, who dispersed, deeming caution the parent of safety. It was well for them that they arrived at this conclusion, as Mr. Odum had previously purchased some coarse shot for a special purpose, which he made known to those in the store at the time; moreover, the old gentleman's metal is such as to make mobs quail.

Subsequently, some kind of bill, called a "true bill" I think, was presented at Livingston, the county seat, praying for our expulsion from Sumpter County, but all to no purpose. We, through the blessings of the Almighty and the intercessions of fair-minded men, having stayed right here. All weapons formed against us as yet, have failed, except in doing for us what may be termed the very antipodes of what they were intended for—a large amount of good.

There is a new sect here called the Sanctified or Holy people. They claim complete sanctification through the blood of Jesus. This sanctifying process seems to be a finishing touch to "Christians" without regard to creed, as the "holy" people are Baptists and other sects. The preachers travel like showmen, with tents, which they erect in a village and continue there until they cleanse from all sin all who wish to be sanctified. The Elders and their doctrine generally speaking, are too "carnal" to deserve any notice from the "holy" people who, however, helped materially to circulate a rumor recently that we had baptized some persons, a few weeks ago, in a state of nudity! Absurd and false as this statement is, many swallowed this scandal greedily, thus fulfilling Paul's prophecy that people should believe a lie. However, by persistent effort, we succeeded in removing this delusion from the minds of some.

Myself and companion are enjoying our labors, and have long since decided that the experience we are acquiring is and will be far more valuable to us than all earthly riches and possessions.
