

PLANNER STAYS; UNION MEN WIN

A Sort of Two-Sided Victory in Stone Cutters' Controversy.

IS NOT ALL SETTLED YET.

Question of Whether Non-Union Cutters Will Join the Union, Still Under Consideration.

The stone cutters' situation has been planned and smoothed over, and an adjustment reached as far as the contractor and the Journeymen Stonecutters' association are concerned. The contractor practically recognizes the union, and the union gives up the fight to have the planer thrown out. The planer is to run eight hours a day, the same length of time the cutters work, and when one side of the planer runs, at least six union men are to be employed, and when both sides run at least 12 union men will work. The minimum limit of number of hands is thus fixed at 12, when the machine is in full operation.

National Executive Officer Fitzgerald for this district has been arguing the matter with both the international and local unions, quietly, but effectively, and has arranged with the contractor to employ union men, the non-international unionists to retain their jobs on joining the organization. The local men had up to this afternoon failed to accept the offer of Mr. Fitzgerald, who agreed upon their admission to the international union on payment of $15 initiation fee, and $4 per year dues. These dues are divided between the home organization, the national body, the trade journal and the insurance fund. Mr. Fitzgerald also promised remission of all past fines imposed when the locals left the international some years ago, and called their attention to the fact that after a man has been a member for four months, he becomes eligible to $100 insurance for his family in case of death, and that crippled or incapacitated members were specially looked after. The regular scale of union prices of $4.50 per day continues. Mr. Fitzgerald remains over until tomorrow night, by which time the local stonecutters are expected to decide whether to accept the offer or stay out. At all events union men are to be employed as cutters at the federal building, and cutters not belonging to the international union will not be employed. In fact only union men are working there now.

Mr. Fitzgerald stated this morning, that his efforts, wherever he was called, were to prevent strikes and effect compromises between employer and the employed. He does not like strikes, which, he says are so often disastrous to all parties interested. Conciliatory measures are his way. Methods of action, and the establishment of good feeling is always aimed at.

PRIVATE FISH PONDS.

County Clerk Advised Not to Issue
Licenses to Owners Thereof.

County Clerk James has received an opinion from County Atty. Westervelt in regard to the issuance of a license to owners of private fish ponds as provided in the new fish and game law. Mr. Westervelt states that there is nothing in the act nor in the general law which would confer upon the county clerk any authority to issue such licenses and he therefore advises the clerk to decline to issue the same. The act provides that the county clerk shall issue a license to owners of private fish ponds, but it does not fix the amount of the license nor authorize any one to fix the same. Mr. James, therefore, raised the point that he had no authority to fix the amount of the license, and submitted the matter to the county attorney for an opinion, which is as stated above.

WATER SUPPLY SHORT.

Belief That It Will Be Even Less Than It Was Last Year.

From all indications the water supply of the city for this season will be even lower than that of last year. Observations have been made by Land and Water Commissioner MacKnight, Chairman John G. Labrum, of the Parley's Creek water commission, and Deputy Land and Water Commissioner Ralph Bailey of the streams in Parley's and the Cottonwood canyons and also of the snow in the mountains and it is their opinion that there will be a greater shortage of water this season than last.

None of the streams mentioned are now flooded in the least from melting snow and there will be no flood waters at all. This is due to the fact that, owing to the dry condition of the soil in the canyon, the water sinks into the ground before it reaches any of the streams. All three of the gentlemen stated that the snow in the mountains is practically all gone now. The condition at Utah lake bears them out in their predictions, as it has become necessary to commence pumping operations already in order to get sufficient irrigating water. The lake did not reach the compromise level this year at all and now that the pumps have been started it will not reach that point.

Too Great a Risk.

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of cholera or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all druggists.

HUMOROUS.

Marion has reached the age when the problems of life assume interesting proportions. "I was born in Washington, D. C., grandmother. Where were you born?" she asked recently. "Way out in Kansas," answered the old lady. "Father was born in New Orleans," continued the child, "and mother in Denver. Do you know?" "Effectively," it seems to me, "that you were born most any place,"—Lippincott's.

Judge Edward B. Thomas of the United States circuit court claims to have a friend who is the worst heckled man he ever knew. On a recent occasion an agent for a photograph company dropped into the friend's office and inquired if he had a talking machine at home. "Yes," was the reply. "And may I ask of what company you bought it?" persisted the agent. "Didn't buy it, married it,"—New York Times.

"Marry! Marry! Are you out of your mind? I marry!" "Many have done it," she replied seriously, "and lived."—Josephine Dodge Dakam.

There was a very small audience present, and it was rapidly dwindling away. On the stage, the hero and heroine are holding a rendezvous. Hero (to heroine)—Are we alone? Heroine (thinking of the audience)—Not yet. There are two fellows near the door who look as if they might be able to sit through another act.—Illustrated Bits.

"And you won't rent the rooms to us because we have a child?" "Sorry ma'am, but we can't admit children into this apartment house."

"You seem to have forgotten that you were once a child yourself?" "Yes but that was before the day of apartment houses, ma'am."

MRS. ALFRED VANDERBILT.

Mrs. Alfred Vanderbilt has taken to wearing a mixture of the very slightest shades, which at times hardly go with the brown of the Vanderbilt liveries. She travels with her husband on all his expeditions to and from Newport, and sometimes makes a trip several times a week. In town she always drives in a landau, and is very conspicuous with her feather boas of another shade, and cloth gowns, which are frequently embroidered in gold. She is seldom seen wearing a toque, but almost always affects the very largest Gainsborough effects, and dresses so much after the paintings of her by Hall and other artists that one cannot fail to recognize her.—New York Times.

CAN SLEEP ALL NIGHT NOW.

What a Blessing to Be Able To.

"For a long time I was obliged to get up several times during the night. I suffered so severely from Kidney and Bladder Trouble, relief seemed doubtful. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was recommended to me for this terribly distressing disease. I took it but a short time and found almost immediate relief. Instead of getting up a number of times I can now sleep all night!"

GEORGE STEVENS, Co. I, National Soldiers Home, Va.

Bright's Disease, Gravel, Liver Complaints, Pain in the Back, Rheumatism and Bladder Troubles, too frequent and painful passing of the water and Dropsy, are all caused by disorders of the kidneys. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has cured thousands of people of these diseases, in each case restoring the patient to perfect health. It is prescribed and recommended by the best physicians in the United States. It acts directly on the kidneys and the blood. It drains the blood of all poisonous substances, such as uric acid, etc., which cause disease. Favorite Remedy is the only kidney medicine that acts as a laxative—all others constipate.

Druggists sell it in New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles. Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail.
