HOUSE.

Bills Passed—1778 Officers and Clerks in the Government Service Without Authority of Law.

WASHINGTON, 11.—The bill from the committee on pensions, giving pensions to certain soldiers and sailors of the war of 1812, and restoring to the pension rolls persons whose names had been struck therefrom on account of disloyalty, passed, as did also a bill from the same committee, granting thirty dollars for an artificial eye to soldiers who have lost an eye; also a bill providing for the reversion of the pension of a deceased or re-married soldier's wife, or a deceased soldier's children to his dependent parents or other relatives.

The house then went into a committee of the whole on the legislative appropriation bill. Parker spoke in relation to the Indian service.

Randall followed and called attention to the fact that there are now employed in the various departments of the government 1778 officers and clerks without authority of law. He criticised and denied the correctness of Garfield's statements and figures.

At three o'clock the committee rose, and the Speaker presented a telegram announcing the death of Senator Sumner.

Dawes moved, in view of the sad intelligence, that the House adjourn, and the House thereupon adjourned.

EASTERN.

Last Hours of Senator Sumner.

WASHINGTON, D.C., 11.—During the last two hours of Senator Sumner's illness his intellect seemed much clearer, and he was perfectly conscious to the last; this condition was doubtless the result of his recovery from the effects of the morphine administered during the morning. His sufferings towards the last seemed intense, and he several times exclaimed, "I want to be quiet, I am tired." He recognized the friends who came into his room, and one of the last to whom he spoke was ex-Attorney General Hoar, of Mass., to whom he said, "Take care of my civil rights bill." About a quarter before three o'clock he was attacked by a slight spasm, in which he died. Around the bed at the time were ex-Attorney General Hoar, Dr. W. P. Johnson, of this city, Major Ben Perley Poore, George T. Downing and Jas. Wormley; other friends, who had been with the dying senator throughout the day, had left just previous, not anticipating that his death would be so soon. Senator Schurz and Montgomery Blair entered the room just as he breathed his last, but Sumner was then too near dissolution to recognize them. The only relative that Senator Sumner has, is a sister, the wife of a physician in San Francisco, and to her the sad news was telegraphed immediately after his death. When the death of the Senator was announced to the crowd who filled the sidewalk in front of his house, the grief of many, especially of the colored people, hundreds of whom had gathered there, found vent in heartfelt exclamations of grief and weeping. Sumner's age was 63 years, 2 months and 5 days. He had been for some time anxious about his health, and remarked last night to a friend, some hours previous to the attack which ended his life, that he wanted to talk to him about his health, he was afraid he was working too hard. The funeral ceremonies will take place in the Senate chamber.

Cause of Sumner's Death. His Last Words.

Dr. Brown Sequard, who arrived here to-night, expresses the opinion that Sumner's death resulted from the rupture of a blood vessel at the heart. After Sumner had the paroxysms his body remained cold and clammy and the pulse very feeble, breathing slowly, but with some rattling in the chest. Soon after death his body showed signs of discoloration, and it became evident that decomposition had set in. The work of embalming the body commenced to-night, and upon the success of the process depends, somewhat, the time for the funeral; should the embalming be successful the body will be detained here until the arrival of the committee appointed by the Massachusetts legislature. About the last words of the deceased Senator were to Judge E. R. Hoar, and they were —"Tell Emerson I love him and revere him." This was about ten minutes before his death. Just after it escaped his lips a paroxysm seized him, in which he died. It is remarked as a fortunate coincidence, that the resolution of the Massachusetts legislature rescinding its vote of censure upon Sumner should have been received and read in the Senate before he left it on the last day of his presence in the chamber.

Senator Sumner, about two o'clock yesterday afternoon, moved from his seat in the Senate chamber to one beside Senator Sargent, and inquired of Sargent who, like himself, had taken a prominent part in the opposition to the centennial bill, whether he had received any anonymous, insulting letters on the subject, adding that he, Sumner, had received a number of such letters, and packages of a more offensive character, both through the mail and by express. He seemed considerably annoyed by these insults, and Sargent therefore turned the conversation to the resolution of the Massachusetts legislature rescinding its censure of Sumner, and he expressed himself greatly pleased with this action. An hour or more after, Sumner called Senator Terry, of Conn., to a sofa in the Senate chamber, and talked with him, as he had frequently done before, in regard to their respective States, the ill health of both resulting from affections of the spinal cord.

Massachusetts Congressmen will attend the Funeral — National Testimonial by the Colored Citizens.

At a meeting of the Massachusetts delegation to Congress, tonight, it was agreed to attend the funeral of Sumner as mourners. E. R. Hoar was appointed to present resolutions of respect in the House. Boutwell was unable to be present on account of illness, and will not be able to announce the death of his colleague in the Senate, so Senator Anthony was assigned the sad duty.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Civil Rights council, Geo. T. Downing, chairman, this evening, it was resolved to recommend the colored people in every city and town in the country to drape their houses and churches in mourning, and that they offer memorial services in the churches next Sunday, and otherwise manifest their grief, in every fitting manner, at the death of Sumner, who was pre-eminently their friend, and that the respective State councils take immediate steps toward having a monument erected to his memory.

Congregationalist Imbroglio—Havana News.

NEW YORK, 11.—The committees of the Rev. Drs. Storrs' and Buddington's churches have made a public statement, which is to be forwarded to the churches invited to take part in the council that is to consider the alleged irregularities in Beecher's church; the documents set forth that the matter to be settled is simply one of church discipline, whether the action of the Plymouth church in the Tilton case was right according to order and usage, and whether the position of that church, as to entire independence toward all churches exterior to itself, can really be maintained while its public congregational relations continue.

A letter from Havana says the city is filled with volunteers, who are daily departing for the seat of war; each one receives a hundred dollars from the government on entering the barracks, and has $800 deposited to his credit in the bank, subject to the order of himself or his heirs at the end of six months' service. All of them look well, and in marked contrast with the defeated militia, who receive but ten dollars.

Argument in Relation to Tweed's Sentence.

Judge Brady has fixed Friday next for the argument on the motion to make the clerk's record conformable to the stenographer's notes of Judge Davis' language when passing sentence on Tweed, so that the record will stand—"county jail instead of "penitentiary."

Funeral Honors to Sumner at New York.

A large number of the leading men of this city met at the Fifth Avenue Hotel to night, and expressed a desire that the remains of Sumner shall receive funeral honors here on the way to New England.

The Power of Prayer Exemplified.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, 11.—The crusaders moved on a saloon kept by a German, who had threatened to turn the hose on them if they visited him, and being warned away they prayed near his place, when forgetting his threats he came out and thanked them.

Extradition Treaty Disregarded.

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, 11.—The proper papers for the extradition of A. D. Hamilton, the defaulting treasurer of Jersey city, have been served on the Mexican authorities of Matamoras, but they absolutely refuse to arrest the fugitive, the judge frankly stating that the man is protected by Cortina, mayor of the city, and should he attempt to make the arrest, his life would be in danger.

Respect to Sumner.

BOSTON, Mass., 11.—Both branches of the legislature adjourned until to-morrow on the announcement of the death of Sumner; the flags of the State House and city buildings are half-masted. The two branches of the city government will have a special meeting to-morrow, to take appropriate action relative to the death of the senator. A deep feeling of sadness pervades the entire community.

Still Rules Against the Ladies—Meeting of Colored People.

The city solicitor has again decided against the right of women to serve on the Boston school committee; he says the Supreme Court, in its recent opinion, only decided the constitutional right, making no reference to the statute.

There were several fires in this city to-night; one on Plympton St. block, destroyed a building occupied by several wood workers; loss $60,000.

The colored people, at a meeting to-night, voted to hold a public meeting on Friday evening, to make arrangements for taking part in the forthcoming obsequies of Chas. Sumner.

WESTERN.

Denounced by the Press—Ridiculous Temperance Bill Passed—Attempts to Burn Reno—Trains Running on Time—Another Storm in the Mountains—The Temperance Crusade—Unsettled Weather.

SAN FRANCISCO, 11.—The State Senate, to-day, passed a resolution favoring the San Antonio creek improvement project. It is denounced by the Bulletin and other papers here as a scheme similar to that by which the Central Pacific tried to obtain Goat Island.

In the Assembly a bill was passed making it a misdemeanor to invite any person to drink or accept an invitation to drink liquor at any public bar.

In the Senate the bill to reduce the military of the State was reconsidered and again passed; the prospect is not encouraging to the militia. The bill now goes to the Assembly.

One of the delayed eastern trains with mails, arrived to-day.

Two attempts were made last night to burn the town of Reno, Nevada; the incendiaries were not captured.

The Central Pacific trains, east and west, are running on time, but the storm is renewed to-night in the mountains, and more trouble is anticipated.

Six saloon keepers in this city have agreed to close out selling liquors, and to confine themselves to the grocery business. Thus far the woman's temperance crusade has been confined to corner groceries, where liquor is sold.

The weather here and in the interior remains unsettled, with alternating frost and rain; the farmers, in most localities, need now a few days warm pleasant weather.
