THE EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, . . Jan. 2, 1875.

The Osage Massacre.

HOW WHITE MEN IN KANSAS BUTCHERED PEACEFUL AND UNOFFENDING INDIANS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20, 1874.

On the 7th of August last a small band of Osages, near Medicine Lodge, Kansas, were attacked and four of them killed by a party of white men. The remainder of the Osages fled to their reservation, abandoning their camps and other property, which were taken by the whites. Captain Ricker, the leader, reported the affair as an attack by Indians, and rumor soon enlarged it into Indian war along the border, with the Osage nation raiding upon the settlers of Kansas. The governor called out the militia and telegraphed the Secretary of War for a supply of arms and ammunition, to be issued to the citizens of that State.

Subsequently information discovered the fact that the Indians attacked were entirely peaceable and friendly, and that the parties styling themselves militia were a number of persons who were skirmishing on their own account and were afterward organized into a militia company, with Ricker as captain, whose commission antedates this massacre, so as to call it an act of war. These facts heretofore reported are now verified by a statement of a member of the militia, of whom the Probate Judge of the county says, under his seal, "He is an old resident of Barbour County and a respectable and reliable man." He states that he went himself, unattended and unarmed into the camp of these Indians the day before they were murdered, was well treated, and saw no indication whatever of hostility; and stated further, that the Indians did not fire first, nor at all; that they were well known to be on a peaceable hunting expedition; that the four Indians were killed after they had been captured, and when they were entirely helpless, by the order of Captain Ricker, and that at the time of this raid upon the Indians, the parties who have since styled themselves Kansas militia, of whom he was one, were not ordered into service.

It is a significant fact that the same mail, which bore this communication to the Indian office also contained a certified copy of the resolutions of the Legislature of Kansas condemning the present policy in the management of the Indians, and recommending that the Indian Bureau be turned over to the War Department.—N. Y. Herald.

TESTIMONIAL.

Editor Deseret News:

I had a son who appeared to be in ill health, being in a pining condition. I was unable to determine the nature of the disease which affected him. A few days since I placed him under the treatment of Dr. Plant, who, within a few hours, and without pain or inconvenience to the lad, freed the patient of a tapeworm about forty feet long, since which time the boy has been improving. I wish you to publish this circumstance, as much for the benefit of people afflicted similarly to my boy, as to award credit to Dr. Plant, whose skill in that line of complaints can be relied on, besides his charges are moderate.
