The Army.

WASHINGTON, 7.—There is an army of 430 companies, necessarily widely scattered over our vast domain to guard property, and to prevent, as far as foresight can, complications and troubles of every variety and kind, at one time protecting settlers against Indians, and again Indians against settlers. When this occurs, it is always sudden. Reinforcements have to be hurried forward from great distances, and always at heavy cost for transportation of men, horses, wagons and supplies. This cost, in the aggregate, will, in my judgment, be more than a sufficient supply or increase of 20 per cent. in private soldiers, all that I would ask for at this time, because I believe that this increase will add little, if any, to the annual cost of the army, and yet give relief to our over-taxed soldiers. In the last 10 years our frontiers have so extended under the protection of our small army, as to add a thousand million dollars to the taxable wealth of the nation; has enabled emigrants to settle up remote parts of the country, and is the principal cause of the great prosperity which is through all parts of the country. When the National Treasury was poor and loaded with debt, the army endeavored gracefully to submit to overwork; but they now appeal for relief, and I do most earnestly ask the Secretary of War to apply to Congress to repeal that clause of the existing law which limits the enlisted force of the army to 25,000 men, and to enact that each and every company in the army may be enlisted to at least 50 privates, making 62 enlisted men and 3 officers to each 430 companies, thus increasing the army to 26,600 enlisted men. This should form the combatant force, and as experience and universal practice have demonstrated the necessity for another non-combatant force, I further urge that special provision be made by law for each of the following separate and distinct purposes, viz.: Engineer battalion, 200; permanent recruiting companies and parties, 1,250; enlisted men, detailed on general service (clerks), 420; ordnance department (laborers and mechanics), 400; West Point detachments (military academy), 192; prison guard at Fort Leavenworth, 90; hospital stewards, 175; ordnance sergeants, 112; commissary sergeants, 150; Indian scouts, 100; signal detachment, 500; total, 3,789; which number, added to 26,600 before explained, will make the total enlisted force of every nature and kind, 30,449.

Gen. Sherman submits a statement of the actual number of enlisted men in the regular army, Oct. 15, as cavalry, 6,882; artillery, 2,408; infantry, 10,530; total combatants, 19,815; non-combatants (engineer battalion, ordnance department, recruiting service, signal corps, etc.), 3,781; total enlisted force of the army, 23,596.

Nearly every general commanding troops on the frontier asks for a larger increase than I have herein indicated, but this may be better accomplished by going to the President, who has the right to increase it at his discretion, the companies most exposed to danger, to any number of privates not exceeding 100, limited always in practice by the actual appropriation of money rather than by the fixed number of men. The General asks for an increase of majors in the inspectors corps and recommends the whole question of coast defense be submitted to a board of high officers, while a similar board shall consider the matter of military posts and stations now obsolete. These recommendations are with a view to sale and the relief of the army from the care of useless forts, posts and stations. Some old forts, General Sherman admits, are worth retaining, and in order that these may be properly taken care of, he recommends that the President be authorized to transfer out of the class of enlisted men who have served for 25 years or more, a number not to exceed 500, including ordnance sergeants (now 112) and to establish a veteran corps, to be stationed at these old forts with the rank and pay they held at the close of their active career of army service, to be subject to the rules and articles of war, but only to be used for guarding public property. One or two officers of the retired class and a half dozen of those old soldiers would compose a good garrison for an abandoned post or fort. By granting retired officers thus detailed, fuel and quarters, we would provide homes for worthy veterans which would be most honorable and charitable to them and advantageous to the government. As regards the West Point Academy, General Sherman takes a direct issue also with the recommendations of the Board of Visitors.

Superstitious Sacs and Foxes.

The commissioner on Indian affairs to-day gave audience to a delegation of Sacs and Foxes, endeavoring to obtain the Great Father's consent to the payment to them of $40,000, accumulated annuities, without being obliged to sign the pay-rolls, as required by law. The reason given for their refusal to sign is that it would be disastrous or "bad medicine" to use the names of their wives and children for any such purpose. They offer to append their own personal signatures.

More Election Returns.

NEW YORK, 8.—One hundred and forty-five election districts in this city give Purcell, democrat, for Secretary of State, 19,282 votes; Carr, rep., 11,328.

Seventy-five election districts give Maxwell, dem., for State Treasurer, 10,907; Husted, rep., 5,024.

There are 670 election districts in New York City. The democratic majority in this city for Secretary of State is estimated at 35,000. Maxwell's majority over Husted is estimated at 45,000 at least. The total vote of the city is estimated at 150,000.

One hundred and sixty-five election districts give Purcell, 24,743; Carr, 14,583; 132 election districts give Maxwell 18,635; Husted 7,003.

Three hundred and thirty-nine districts, just half the number, which is 678, give Purcell, 45,243; Carr 25,792. Three hundred and fifteen districts give Maxwell, 43,228; Husted 18,753.

President Arthur did not vote. His official business detaining him in Washington, he did not arrive in time to register.

Grant and Conkling walked through the Ninth Congressional District, presumably in the interest of W. W. Astor, republican candidate.

The Eleventh Congressional Districts gives Astor 816 votes; Flower, dem., 922. These are regarded as republican districts. The majority has been reduced.

The Sixth, Eighth Ninth, Fourteenth, Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-third and Twenty-fifth wards in Brooklyn show a republican majority of 76 and a republican gain of 1,785.

In the Ninth Congressional District Hardy is elected over ex-Collector Thos. Murphy by an immense majority.

A dispatch from Brooklyn indicates the election of Seth Low, for Mayor, by a small majority.

One hundred and twenty-six towns outside of New York and King's counties show a republican majority of 8,935 and net democratic gain of 7,124.

BROOKLYN.—The election is quiet. The vote will probably be far short of the register. There is an interest ing contest for the Mayoralty. There will probably not be 1,500 majority either way. Low, the Republican candidate, gets a big majority in the aristocratic wards, but in the strongholds of the Democracy Howell is reported holding his own, the Germans favoring Howell, and may elect him.

POUGHKEEPSIE.—This city complete gives Cart 331 majority, a Republican gain of 505. The county (Dutchess) gives a Republican majority of nearly 2,500, a gain of about 300.

PLATTSBURG.—Clinton county gives S. F. Brown, Republican for Senator over 2,000 majority.

UTICA.—Patrick Leiffin, Republican, First District Oneida county, is elected by 121 majority.

JOHNSTON.—Complete Republican majority 583; a Democratic gain of 285.

The Fifth Assembly District New York City, with one election district missing, gives Purcell 1,767 majority, and the Twelfth Assembly District, with one election district missing, gives Purcell 2,322 majority, both indicating heavier Democratic gains and majorities than in 1878.

HUDSON, N.Y.—The city complete gives Purcell 435 majority.

SYRACUSE.—For Assembly, First District, Alvord, Rep., concedes his defeat. John Lighton, Dem., in Third District and Farmer, Rep., in the Second are probably elected.

AUBURN.—The Cayuga county Republican ticket is elected by a large majority.

MASSACHUSETTS.

The following are the correct figures of the vote of Boston: Long, rep., 15,439; Thompson, dem., 13,251; Almy, prohib., 142; Andrews, greenback, 142.

Last year's vote: Long, 25,666; Thompson, 27,191; Prohib., 84; Greenback, 293.

Long's majority this year over all, 1,872. In Suffolk County, comprising the city of Boston, seven republicans and one democratic senator were elected; a loss of two democrats.

WORCESTER, 8.—Total vote of the county, 13,750 republican; 6,801 democrat; 200 prohibition and 517 greenback. The republicans carry five senatorial districts, 23 out of 31 representative districts, and elect county officials.

VIRGINIA.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., 8.—The election to-day was closely contested and a full vote polled. About one-third of the colored vote was cast for the democrats, but the readjusters have made an equal gain of hearth tax in the counties of Louisiana, Spottsylvania, Stafford and King George. It is probable the readjusters have gained a senator, electing also three delegates out of four.

RICHMOND, Va., 8.—Up to 9.30 p. m. 61 voting precincts in the State were heard from, which give J. W. Daniel, democrat, for governor, 10,480; Wm. E. Cameron, readjuster, for governor, 8,725.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, 8.—Returns up to 9:30 indicate a very light vote all over the State. Milwaukee city and County gives Rusk, (rep.) for Governor, 255 majority, while Falk (dem.) for State Treasurer, runs over three thousand ahead of his ticket, and there is a bare possibility of Falk's election. Returns from 82 towns and over 200 precincts in the State show a net democratic gain of 2,950. The Republican State Central Committee at this hour claim the State by ten thousand majority.

Out of sixteen hundred towns in the State 125 heard from give the democrats a gain of 1,800.

MISSISSIPPI.

MERIDIAN, Miss., 8.—Four white men were killed and two severely wounded by negroes to-day at Meridian station in this county. The negroes opened fire on the whites at the polls while the election was going on. The whites had no arms, consequently no damage was done the negroes. One man killed was A. T. Hatch, democratic candidate for County Clerk. The assistant sheriff, with a posse from this place formed about the negroes who were barricaded in a dwelling house with their leader, Ed. Evans, and they were fired upon by the negroes as they approached the house. Another body of armed men have gone from here to the scene to assist the sheriff. Otherwise, the election in this county was quiet and orderly.

NATCHEZ, Miss., 8.—The election passed off quietly. It is almost impossible to determine the result, but it is believed Lowry, democrat, for governor, and the democratic State ticket has been carried by an overwhelming majority.

VICKSBURG, 8.—The indications are that K. F. Beck, straight-out republican, is elected sheriff.

YAZOO County gives a democratic majority.

CONNECTICUT.

NEW LONDON, 8.—Robert Coit, republican, is elected senator from the ninth district by 2,091 plurality over Burgess, democrat.

NEW LONDON elects two democratic representatives. Groton, Stonington and North Stonington each elect one republican and one democratic representative.

HARTFORD, 8.—The republicans carried both branches of the legislature by reduced majorities. Last year the Senate stood 16 to 5, this year it will probably stand 14 republicans to 10 democrats. Three new districts have been added. The House will probably stand about 140 republicans to 100 democrats. Hartford elects a republican senator and one republican and one democratic representative. New Brighton is democratic, Waterbury, Meriden and Norwich are republican.

NEW JERSEY.

TRENTON, N. J., 8.—Monmouth County elects a republican State senator and two democratic assemblymen. The Third district is in doubt, with the chances in favor of the republican candidate. Ocean City has one republican assemblyman. In Morris county, two republican and one democratic assembly men are elected. Returns of this county indicate republican gains.

MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, 8.—There is less interest in the election than usual.

Whose Heart will Pity Patti's.

CHICAGO, 8.—New York specials give a gloomy view of Patti's prospects for success in her tour. One says: "The Frenchman, whom Mme. Patti brought over from Paris to manage her concert business, has blundered atrociously, and the result has been that up to noon today, not over 30 seats were sold for Wednesday's concert. All the first floor, including the side chairs against the walls and five rows in the first balcony, were announced for sale at $10 a seat—a price which the public have not shown any alacrity in paying. The management this noon became alarmed, and reduced the number of seats from 1,286 to 815, fixing the price of the others at $5. Even at the reduced prices, if all the seats were sold, the entire receipts, exclusive of general admission, would reach the somewhat extravagant sum $12,788 for each concert. During the afternoon the sale of tickets was more active. The management does not think it necessary to advertise Patti to any extent. Not a lithograph or bill board poster is anywhere to be seen.

People who know they can hear operas for $3 and have a good seat at that price, will hesitate before paying $10 to hear even Patti, who is not to be accompanied by an orchestra and whose brief vocal efforts are to be supplemented by singers and instrumentalists without reputation here.

MacVeagh's Duty.

The Tribune's Washington special says: It was not Arthur but Blaine who had a controversy with MacVeagh in the cabinet meeting, but it was entirely friendly. Blaine, without heat and in the most courteous way, took the position that it was MacVeagh's duty to appear publicly and prosecute the Guiteau case, and that regardless of whatever professional ethics or traditions of the department, hide-bound in red tape, might be. The terrible circumstances surrounding the President's assassination required MacVeagh to pay closer attention to the Guiteau case than he had done or was likely to.

Broken Hearted.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., 8.—Phillip E. Sullivan, alias Delaney, one of the youthful train robbers, recently sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment in the penitentiary, for robbing the train on the Iron Mountain Road, died this morning. From his entrance into prison he appeared to be heart broken, all efforts to revive him failed. A realization of the crime and the hopelessness of pardon crushed his spirit and caused his death.

A Fatal Kick.

LOUISVILLE, 8.—A Paducah special to the Courier-Journal says: Yesterday evening on the farm of Mr. Pardue, a six year old son of widow Edwards was playing near a mule that was hitched in the yard, when the mule turned and kicked the little fellow in the forehead, splitting open his skull and scattering his brains in every direction. He died instantly.

Not All Lost.

NEWARK, N. J., 8.—The bank examiners estimate that the depositors the Mechanics' National Bank lose about 50 per cent. Whatever is saved from Nugent & Co., and on other accounts, will increase the per centage to the creditors. The firm of C. Nugent and Company has decided to dismiss all employees as fast as work on hand is finished up, and stop business.

A $30,000,000 Deed.

ST. LOUIS, 8.—A deed just recently issued by the St. Louis & San Francisco Railroad Company for $30,000,000, was filed at the recorder's office here Saturday evening. The deed was given to the United States Trust Company of New York and is on the entire line of road and its property, and not only covers all the present indebtedness of road, but all future extensions and branches. The present debt of the road is $15,000,000, for which new bonds will be issued at once, and the remaining $15,000,000 will be issued as required for construction.

Let Us Have Peace.

NEW YORK, 8.—The war between the Pacific Mail, Union Pacific and Panama Railroad Company, in regard to freight traffic and head money, seems in a fair way for settlement. At an informal meeting of representatives of the three corporations held this afternoon, T. W. Park said he felt authorized to promise in behalf of the Panama Railroad Company, that no objection would be made to any reasonable terms of peace. He suggested that a committee be appointed to arrange a basis of compromise. Henry Hart of the Pacific Mail Company, said: I am willing to refer the whole matter to a committee, provided gentlemen are selected as committeemen who will properly represent all interests concerned. After some further discussion, it was agreed that the whole matter in dispute be referred to the following gentlemen for adjustment: T. W. Park, J. B. Houston, Henry Hart, Sidney Dillon and C. P. Huntington. The committee were instructed to present their report at an adjourned meeting to be be held next Monday.

Fatal Fire.

A fire broke out to-night in a tenement house on Varick Street, at which several lives are supposed to be lost. The house was occupied by sixteen families. The flames breaking out in the basement, mounted rapidly to the roof through the elevator shaft. The building was soon filled with smoke, and it was with the utmost difficulty any inmates were rescued. Mrs. Cunningham and a family named Larynette are missing. Two members of a family named Brundenfield on the third floor above, perished in the flames.
