Tuesday, A NEW PLAN. THE San Francisco Croknicle is a very smart paper. The latest evidence of this, that we have seen, is a proposition which it intkes in tulation to the location of railread stations in this Territory. The Chronicle is persuaded that: A very large number of the faithful area anx ious to make their escape from Brig-ham's dominions, and that they are deterred from attempting to do so from no other motive than that of fear." They dare not leave openly, for the at-ten pt to do so, the Chronicle is informed, would be likely to cost them their lives, as there who art suspected of being disaffected open a way of deliverance for this large number of the faithful. It proposes "The establishment of railway stations at short distances from the Mormon towns, in-stead of within them. These would faive to make their escape in sufficient numbers to protect one another and to defy their pursuers." The profundity of this plan overwhelms ns! Fancy the feelings of the "Avenging Angels," which stand in bold-faced type at the head of the Chronicle's article, when they find that railway stations are to be built at short distances from our towns instead of within them! They may as well quit watching this "very large number of the faithful who are so anxious to make" of the faithful who are so anxious to make tuted by Sherman did not work harmoniously.

Several dance houses are now in full blast, astonishing the natives (I am told the Indians can't compete with them the Indians can't compete with them in price) by the manner in which they are developing the resources of the Terri-tory. I will venture the assertion that there is not less than three hundred whisky shops between here and Brig-ham city, all developing the resources of the Territory, and showing the "Mor-mons" what is necessary to build up a country and make it self-supporting and permanent.

There are many heavy contractors on the Promontory, but the heaviest firm I have heard of is named "Red Jacket." I notice nearly every wagon that passes have a great many boxes marked with his name.

They belong to the Shoshone persuasion, and have twice as many Ingin-ears as there is Ingins. Times are very lively, the roads are literally lined with footmen seeking employment, grass is splendid and in abundance for animals, the weather is delightful, and I have nothing further delightful, and I have nothing further to communicate.

Ment in support of the latter motion. At the expiration of the morning hour all pending business was postponed and the onsideration of the Tenure of Office law was continued. Trumbull spoke at length in favor of the motion in favor of insisting. He made a legal argument to show that the whole subject of appointments and removal from office is by construction, made subject to the consent of the Senate, or to regula-tion by law, and that the President would have, under the Senate bill, all the power he could have, if the Tenure Act was repeal-He saw no reason for disagreement between the'two Houses and for so much feeling in the country.» He was persuaded it arose actions of mischief makers and persons desirous of stirring up animosity between the branches of Congress and the Executive.
