CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Prayer for the Slanderer — No more Greenbacks Wanted — Arms for Nebraska.

WASHINGTON, 3.—The Chaplain, in his opening prayer, invoked Providence to rebuke the giant demon, Slander, now stalking forth and casting his shadow over all the earth, and that the hand of the wilful detractor, as it wrote, might be paralyzed.

Fenton presented a petition from a large number of business men in New York City, asking Congress to put an immediate stop to any further issue of greenbacks by the Secretary of the Treasury, and to cause the retirement at once of the legal tender reserve issue; referred. In presenting the petition Fenton said the signers represented at least five hundred millions of capital.

Logan, from the committee on military affairs, reported favorably on the bill authorizing the Secretary of War to issue a supply of arms to Nebraska; placed on the calendar.

EASTERN.

Before the Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, 3.—The session of the House ways and means committee, to-day, on the subject of the seizure of the books and papers of merchants and importers, and of moieties, was numerously attended, several chambers of commerce and boards of trade being represented. B. J. Jayne, the alleged chief of the moiety men, made a defence of his conduct and said: "I stand before you, accused of wrong. These gentlemen come and ask you to listen to charges given under the impulse of public opinion, and shall I stand here accused while my wife is broken hearted by these charges made by these infernal thieves and their representatives?" Jayne was here promptly informed that he must regard the decorum of the occasion, and was required to take his seat.

Ought to Become Law.

ALBANY, N. Y., 3.—A bill was introduced into the Senate to-day, making the wilful circulation of false intelligence calculated to affect the price of stocks, bonds, or merchandize, a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment.

Murder and Suicide—Dead.

NEW YORK, 3.—This morning Antonio Barlie and Pedro Farchini, formerly partners, met in Spring St., while on the way to work, and the former shot the latter dead and then killed himself; the shooting was the result of a business quarrel.

Lambert Quetelet, the founder and director of the Brussels observatory, died Feb. 16, in his 58th year.

The Eastern Question Again.

The London Times of the 18th has the following telegram: "Paris, 17. Much sensation has been caused here by an article in the Augsberger Allgemeine Zeitung, declaring that the preservation of the Turkish empire is not a dogma with Germany, and that if Germany and Russia should desire to transform the whole map of Eastern Europe, no one would prevent them." Most of this evening's newspapers comment upon this article, and regard the Eastern Question as again open.

Preparing for the War Path.

GALVESTON, 3.—A San Antonio special says that information has been received from Fort Sill, to the effect that "Lone Wolf," a Kiowa chief, is preparing to go to Texas with a strong party, to avenge the death of his son, who was killed in a fight with the late Lieut. Hudson on the west fork of the Neuces.

Women's Temperance Union.

INDIANAPOLIS, 3.—Several ladies of this city, to-day, organized a Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and pledged themselves to do all in their power to suppress intemperance by every legal means.

His Whole Body Paralyzed.

BUFFALO, N. Y., 3.—At 9 o'clock to-night, there was no change in the condition of ex-President Fillmore; his whole body was completely paralyzed, but his mind was clear.

The Crusade at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, O., 3.—The temperance crusade began here to-day. Prayer meetings were held at 10 a. m. and at 2 and 3 p. m. About 200 ladies left the prayer meeting and marched in procession, headed by the chief of police and one patrolman, to keep the street clear, to the American House, the bells of three churches tolling in the meanwhile. When they arrived at the Hotel the proprietor signed the dealers' pledge, but the proprietor of the bar refused. The procession then moved to West's billiard room, and were politely received by the proprietor, who permitted them to sing and pray, and while refusing to sign the pledge he was willing to sell out. From here they went to Ambrose's, a very fashionable saloon, where a similar scene was enacted with a similar result. They then visited the Neil House, where they found that the bar had been closed four days; they sang and prayed, however, adding a special and touching petition on behalf of the brother of the proprietor who lay dying in the house. Several other places were visited without any particular result, and the ladies then marched back to church, where they were heartily welcomed and congratulated. Letters were read from the proprietor of a prominent restaurant, stating that he had stopped selling liquor, also a letter from a brewer, saying that he would never brew another keg of liquor. The ladies received courteous treatment from everybody, and feel greatly encouraged.

CANADA.

A Sad Catastrophe.

OTTAWA, ONT., 3.—Last evening, while Cyrille Bertrand and his wife and daughter and Joseph Morrison were being driven across the river by a sleigh, the ice gave way and, with the exception of Mr. Bertrand, all were drowned.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Home Rulers in Session.

LONDON, 3.—A conference of the Home Rulers was held in Dublin to-day; the Lord Mayor of the city presided.

Great Anxiety about Wolseley and his Men.

Midnight.—No late news from the Gold Coast. All kinds of rumors are in circulation, and grave fears are felt that some disaster may have occurred to the expeditionary force on its march back to the coast. The anxiety in the war office is such that Gathorne Hardy stays there until a late hour, and the clerks remain on duty all night. A steamer from Cape Coast Castle, with dispatches, was due at Lisbon on the 28th ult.; it is possible she may not be going to stop at Lisbon and is coming to England direct, but such a course would be contrary to rule.

JAPAN.

Insurgents Defeated.

NAGASKI, Japan.—The insurgent force which appeared before this city has been totally defeated by government troops.

PRUSSIA.

Alsace in the Reichstag.

BERLIN, 3.—In the Reichstag, a motion was under discussion to deprive the governor of Alsace of the power to declare it in a state of siege. Prince Bismarck made a strong speech, to-day, against the motion. He declared that he never expected that Alsace would greet our institutions with applause. Alsace shares the responsibility of the war. The motion was rejected, 139 to 106.

JOCULARITIES.

Defaulters are now more elegantly called "hypothecaters."

Andrew Grove, in the Warren Constitution, makes the following offer:

"If the ladies and clergy and the Y. M. C. A. pray the liquor shops dry in Warren, and keep them dry for one year, I will give them fifty dollars."

There iz but phew things on the face of the earth more worthless than a poodle, and yet I am glad there iz poodles, for if there was not there iz sum people who wouldn't have enny object in living, and have nothing to luv.

There is a family in this city, consisting of four members, who occupy their evenings differently. The father goes to church, the mother drops over to the neighbors' to exchange gossip, the daughter delights in the fervor of her lover, and the son goes to the varieties, and ends by taking coffee and quail at the keno room.—Dallas (Texas) Herald.

No man's gait was ever more miscellaneously described than that of Roger Tichborne. Twenty-three witnesses spoke of it as "awkward," eight as "peculiar," three as "funny," five as "curious and strange," five as "slovenly," five as "slouchy and clumsy," four as "shuffling and stilty," five as "like Sir Henry's," and three as "like Sir James's," while one witness said it was like the walk of "Richard the Third."

"Prof." John Carney was sent to the workhouse in Cincinnati lately, his sole personal property being a manuscript lecture to thieves, with a schedule of prices for 100 lessons carefully graded. His highest price, $5,000, was to train robbers; for $1,000 he would instruct confidence men, burglars for $500, shop-lifters $200, panel thieves $150, pickpockets $80, highwaymen $15, hotel thieves $5.

Citizen.—"Well, you see how it is yourself, Plumber. The girl left the laundry-room window open, thermometer touched zero, water-pipe froze, then burst, and as no one knew how to shut off the plaguey thing, the water ran half the night." Plumber—"Yes, I see; very bad break; miserable pipes throughout; wonder it didn't happen long ago." Citizen—"How much will it cost to plumb up in good shape, including tenders?" Plumber—"Well, I don't know, but I think I will take the house in part payment."

In Cooperstown they tell the story of an English joker who once visited Fennimore Cooper. Cooper was then the most conspicuous man in the little town. One day, while Mr. Cooper was dining with the Englishman, he poured out some native wine—wine from grapes raised in his own garden. Taking up a glass and looking through it with pride, Cooper remarked, "Now, Mr. Stebbins, I call this good, honest wine." Yes, Mr. Cooper, I agree with you, it is honest wine—'poor, but honest.'" Mr. Cooper went on telling his "Injun" stories.
