

WILL GO TO JURY THIS AFTERNOON.

The Case of D. Beynon Davies.
Charged With Bounty Frauds.
Practically Completed.

GUSTIN GOES AFTER JONES.

Says He is an All Round Rascal and Should be Serving Time in the State Prison.

All the evidence has been concluded in the bounty fraud case of the State of Utah against D. Beynon Davies, the arguments are partly made and the case will go to the jury late this afternoon. Attorney F. J. Gustin introduced only one witness for the defense, and that was C. L. Olson, who acted as the official stenographer at the preliminary hearing. Mr. Olson read from his notes the agreement which was entered into between Assistant County Attorney Hanson for the state and Jones, Martin and Hanna wherein the three men agreed to turn state's evidence in the case and take sentence of six months in the county jail and a fine of $500 with the provision that they should not be subject to imprisonment for failure to pay the fine and they would not be subject to any further prosecution.

AGREEMENT IGNORED.
When Jones was on the witness stand he denied flatly that there was any such agreement entered into, but the stenographer was called today and read the entire agreement to the jury over the protest of Dist. Attorney Loofbourou, whose objections were overruled by Judge Howell. The agreement was never carried out by the state because Dist. Atty. Loofbourou, at the time the three men pleaded guilty in the district court, refused to recommend that they only be given six months in the county jail, and Judge Ritchie, who sentenced them, refused to recognize any such agreement entered into by the assistant county attorney, and hence he gave the men the maximum penalty of one year in the county jail. When Olson had concluded the reading of the agreement the defense rested its case and the arguments were then commenced.

OPENING STATEMENT.
Dist. Atty. Loofbourou made a brief opening argument in behalf of the state, in which he reviewed the testimony in the case and pointed out what he considered the most damaging evidence against Davies, whom he said was the most guilty one of all the conspirators.

CALLS JONES A RASCAL.
Atty. Gustin then commenced his argument but did not conclude it before the noon recess. An adjournment was taken until 2 o'clock at which time the arguments will be concluded and the court will deliver the instructions and submit the case to the jury. Mr. Gustin paid his respects to Jones, whom he said should be in the state prison just now as he is a self-confessed perjurer, thief and all round rascal. The only thing known about these frauds, he said, is that Jones has said and done from his testimony the state would not know that it had lost one cent on these bounties. The attorney also roundly scored the attorney for the state because the agreement entered into with Jones, Martin and Hanna, such an agreement, he said, had never heard of before.

SHOULD BE TRIED FOR PERJURY.
He argued that Jones would do anything on the face of the earth to convict Davies if he knew it would save him from the penitentiary, and that he certainly had a motive for bargaining with the state in regard to his evidence. He thought the district attorney was no doing his duty if he did not try Jones for perjury and send him to the state prison. He urged the jury not to take Davies from his family and send him to the county jail with such light and slim as this man Jones, and especially upon the testimony of such men who had lied repeatedly on the witness stand. He said that Jones could and did testify to more untruths than any man he had ever known, and that, too, without fear of punishment.

DAVIES ADMITTED TIPS.
When the court resumed its session yesterday afternoon the evidence of Sheriff Emery in regard to the conversation had with Davies in the parlor of the county jail upon his arrest was admitted by the court over the objection of the attorney for the defense. The sheriff (then stated that Davies admitted that he had received tips from him for handling the dirty hides presented for bounty.

At the conclusion of the state's evidence the attorney for the defense moved that the entire evidence of the state be stricken out and the motion was argued at considerable length and taken under advisement by the court until this morning when the motion was denied. The defense then called its only witness and the case was resumed as stated above.

SUIT OVER SOIL.

Security Company Wants Mortgagee
Restrained From Removing It.
An injunction suit was filed in the district court today by the Salt Lake Security & Trust company against Geo. W. Huntington et al., to restrain defendants from removing sand and soil from the land owned by defendants, but which has been mortgaged to plaintiff for the sum of $500. It is alleged that the land is pasture land and that defendants have already hauled away considerable soil and have damaged the land in the sum of $250 and will continue to damage it unless restrained from so doing. A restraining order is asked and the damages in the sum named above and attorney's fees in the sum of $250.

COURT NOTES.

An opinion was handed down in the federal court this morning by Judge Marshall in which he granted a new trial in the case of Emil S. Rolapp, trustee, vs. the First National Bank of Ogden.
Carl Madsen, plaintiff in a $25,000 damage suit against the United States Smelting company for personal injuries received on Nov. 18, 1904, yesterday asked that the case be dismissed before it was submitted to the jury. It had apparently been settled out of court.
Suit for divorce was filed in the district court today by W. R. Jepperson against Rebecca Jepperson on the ground of desertion. They were married in February, 1902, and it is alleged that defendant deserted plaintiff on Sept. 15, 1904.

SOUND PRAISES OF CHRISTMAS NEWS.

President Alma D. Chambers of the Weber club, Ogden, sends the following letter to the editors of the Deseret News:
"The Christmas News is the finest special edition of a newspaper that has ever come under my observation. From the most meritorious and artistic cover to the 16th page it is, to say the least, a superb paper. The artistic taste shown in the make-up is a distinct mark of credit to the foreman and his assistants; the elaborate 'write-ups' of the mining, agricultural and commercial interests of the states of Utah, Idaho and Nevada, are most praiseworthy, and the press work is peerless. The editorial utterances are high-minded and generous, and exceptionally well chosen for the Christmas season. Congratulations to the 'News' on its triumphant edition."
The Christmas edition of the Deseret News, when received here last Saturday night, created a great surprise to the mining men of Eureka. A few minutes after the train arrived, the agent's supply at this camp was exhausted.

The mining men of this camp are proud of the way the interest of Tintic district was handled, as to truth and veracity.
President J. C. Sullivan of the Raymond mines, says: "The 'News' report is very conservative and states exactly the true condition of Tintic. It is a great issue and will help to make a greater Utah."
President W. D. Myers of the McKinley Mining Co., says: "The 'News' has done a great deal to place Tintic district in its true light before the people of the United States and to show them where the great wealth of this great state lies."
Most of the superintendents of the principal mines of the district were interviewed by the 'News' representatives yesterday and today, and all were most pleased with the Christmas News, and especially with the manner in which it is presented to the public. The splendid outlook of this great mining region.

BELL COMPANY WINS.

Telephone Company Will Open An Exchange at Red Lodge.
Word was received in this city this morning from Helena, Mont., that the supreme court of the state had just decided in favor of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone in the controversy between the municipality of Red Lodge City and the company relative to the establishment of a telephone exchange at that point. The city refused some time ago to allow the local establishment of a toll line and latterly to allow the company to do local business, wishing to discriminate in favor of a local company. The supreme court decided against the municipality in the toll line case, and this morning also against it in the local exchange case. The Bell company management ordered by wire this noon, a switchboard for the exchange to be established at Red Lodge.

The work for 1905 done by the Bell company was as follows: Underground work, $150,000; toll lines, $172,000; exchange construction, $330,000; buildings and real estate, $80,000; total, $632,000. The gross revenue for the current year increased about $240,000 over the previous year, or about 25 per cent. The plans for the new year include: For new subscribers in existing exchanges, $400,000; for new toll lines, $100,000; for additional circuits on existing toll lines, $120,000; for buildings and improvements, $150,000; for new exchanges, $75,000; total to be expended, $845,000.
The present Salt Lake central station building will be enlarged by the addition of two stories on top and an extension of 27 ft. in the rear, making a structure 50 ft wide and 170 ft deep, entirely fire proof.

The failure of J. B. Walsh in Chicago is being much commented upon in financial circles in this city; and a former prominent citizen of Illinois declares that Mr. Walsh's unfortunate stock money investment is but another illustration of what has been known for some time in Illinois, that no stone quarry investment in that state has prospered since the crash of 1900. But for the action of the clearing house association in standing up under the stricken bank, there might have been precipitated a run on all banks in Chicago. It is claimed so it is claimed that there would have been a panic.

The members of the state board of equalization returned this morning from Brigham City, where they went in attendance on the convention of assessors and members of county boards of equalization. Chairman R. C. Lund of the state board made an excellent talk, and the object of the convention, to confer on equalization matters, and further the work throughout the state of assessment work, was ably handled by the state chairman and the various county assessors who were present. It was a very profitable meeting. Each Weber and Salt Lake counties were well represented.
