EVENING NEWS.

Thursday - Dec. 16, 1886

CORRESPONDENCE.

NORTHERN NOTES.

LAKE TOWN, Rich Co.
Dec. 13, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

Elder George C. Parkinson, lately from the Boise Penitentiary, where he suffered twelve months altogether (as I believe) unnecessary and cruelly unjust incarceration, visited and held meeting with us on Tuesday night last. His mission was particularly in the young people's interest and he filled it excellently well. Purity of life and rigid adherence to all the commandments of God and the destiny of the children of God were his theme, and there was a great outpouring of the peaceable Spirit of God accompanying his remarks. One could not help realizing that prison walls cannot repress a righteous man's integrity. There was no spirit of retaliation manifest in this excellent young man's remarks. So much did he acknowledge the goodness of God that he felt to acknowledge His hand even in his affliction, and felt more than ever consecrated to His service. Brother P. had visited the other wards in the northern part of the Stake with the same object, and went on his way south rejoicing, with many good wishes from our people.

Thursday night the Stake presidency of the Y. L. M. I. A. (Sisters Nancy Pugmire, Ann Cook and L. M. Hart) addressed a public meeting here, as they had previously done in other parts of the valley. There remarks were concisely forcible, encouraging increased fidelity to duty, systematic meetings and businesslike methods of keeping records; discouraged, emphatically, fickleness, gossip, vanity of language and of dress; admonished the girls to be economical and industrious, to lighten the burdens their mothers had to bear, to prefer the adornment of mind to the vagaries and fashions of the world, and to avoid speaking lightly of any of the principles of the Gospel. The visiting sisters greatly enjoyed the spirit of their calling and their fervor and irresistable logic were deeply sensed by the great majority of their auditors.

Father Arthur Sydney Smith died yesterday morning at 9:25 o'clock from Bright's disease of the kidneys. He was nearly 78 years of age, and been a member of the Church 47 years and an old-time settler of Utah; was acquainted personally with the Prophet Joseph, and though he was associated with some of our common weaknesses, his sterling integrity was never questioned, and I have heard our Bishop say his temple donations and tithing, and many other generous acts, have made him an enviable record.

By courteous invitation from Bishop Kimball I visited the ward conference held yesterday at Meadowville. Two meetings were held; the local Priesthood, the young people's, and primary associations, the day and Sunday Schools and Relief Societies, were reported by the several presidents, etc., as being in very encouraging working order, in fact, never as well before. Remarks were made during the conference by Elders Elias S. Kimball, (who was also sustained and set apart as ward clerk,) Joseph Irwin, Jonathan Golden Kimball, Moroni W. Pratt and the worthy Bishop. The several ward authorities and presidency, etc., of local organizations were sustained by the unanimous uplifted hands of the congregation. There was a large attendance of the people of the Ward and quite a sprinkling of visitors from Lake Town—"Over the Creek." An excellent spirit prevailed, the counsels given seemed admirably appropriate and, altogether, it is safe to predict an excellent result in the way of uniting the people of that little Ward and in adding permanancy and strength to the principles of the Gospel among them.

Father Smith's funeral took place at 1 p. m. to-day.

Yours respectfully,
JOSEPH IRWIN.

PACIFIC COAST NOTES.

CULLED FROM LATEST WESTERN EXCHANGES.

Jack Brady, the well-known heavy weight pugilist, died Sunday in Fresno, Cal., of lung fever.

Ziba S. Grise, an aged expressman of Oakland, was killed Sunday by being struck by a locomotive while driving across a railroad track.

Several skeletons have been recovered from the mud flats off the long bridge, near San Francisco. Various surmises are afloat as to how the bones got there.

J. L. Armstrong, the San Francisco stock broker who failed last week, was arrested on Thursday on three warrants, each charging him with felony embezzlement.

Captain Lawton, the noted Indian fighter, and capturer of Geronimo, is in San Francisco, with his wife and child. He is a fine looking man, 43 years of age.

The revenue officers captured $5,000 worth of smuggled opium that was thrown overboard on Wednesday night from the steamer Gaelic, outside the heads, San Francisco.

At Gonzales, Cal., at 9:30 o'clock on Thursday morning, Henry Brockman, one of the oldest and most prominent citizens of that place, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. The cause was ill health.

The bull fight in Paso del Norte has been going on for a couple of days and nearly 2,000 people are in attendance, half of them being Americans. The performance is a thrilling one, modeled after the ancient Spanish bull-fights.

Mrs. Ellen Hollohan, a widow living at 1000 Washington Street, San Francisco, slipped and fell on the sidewalk near her house Thursday night, while on her way to visit a friend, and received injuries from the effects of which she died Sunday.

The Sutter Street, San Francisco, strike continues, but Sunday the railroad officials started out a car, which was followed by four others. These were run by new men, mostly under the direction of the office employes and others. The strikers made no proposition to return. The company made them no overtures.

The Red Bluff, Cal., Sentinel says that a number of sharpers are traveling through that section with some sort of a patent contrivance which they pretend to be selling, but that their real object is to induce unwary men to sign promissory notes, which are promptly discounted, and then the swindlers leave town in a hurry.

There is great excitement at Phoenix, Cal., over late discoveries at the Phoenix mine, in Cave Creek District. Their new tunnel is now in a ledge of ore 45 feet wide, and assaying $15 per ton. This, with the former developments, exposes a million tons of ore, and parties interested claim it is the largest discovery on the Pacific Coast.

Last week the snowsheds built east of Rogers' Pass, on the Canada Pacific, were visited by an immense avalanche which struck the sheds and shot 100 feet into the air and into the valley below, without having the least effect on the works. Thousands of tons of snow, ice and rock were in the slide, and the spectacle is reported as grand.

Aleck Goldensen, the murderer of little Mamie Kelly, was taken from the County Jail Tuesday to Judge Murphy's Court to hear the ruling upon his counsel's motion for a change of venue and the appointment of commissioners to take testimony of persons resident in Russia, Elmyra, N. Y., and Colorado. The case then went till to-day.

From a block of three and one-half acres of Zinfandel vines in the Madrone, Cal., vineyards, owned by Eli T. Sheppard, says the Sonoma Tribune, there was picked this season fifty tons and forty pounds of grapes by actual weight. The vines which produced this enormous yield are six years old, growing on gravelly loam soil without irrigation. This is the largest yield of grapes that has ever been reported in the history of grape production in the State.

The Sonoma, Cala., Index-Tribune says: "Some four weeks ago Wilhelm, the five-year-old son of J. J. Thelen, living at Glen Ellen, while playing at school, was struck by a falling stone thrown up into the air by a schoolmate. The injury was considered slight at the time, although the little fellow complained at times that his head hurt him. A little over two weeks ago serious symptoms began to show themselves and the little child took to his bed, and an examination by a physician showed that an abscess had formed on the brain, from which he died on Sunday night last."

The Vallejo, Cal., Chronicle says: "The railroad is driven out of Vallejo by business men of the town. Let no one ever again offer to commence a worthy enterprise in the city durng the administration of the present Board of Trustees. We know three men whose names will not even appear in connection with public office in the city of Vallejo again. This is a doomed place, and it is the regret of every enterprising merchant here that he is so held that he cannot say good-by to this den of selfishness to-day and forever, and go to some city like Oakland, San Jose, or Los Angeles—places now being ruined by railroads running through them."

The Supreme Court of California has rendered a decision in the case of the People vs. Thompson. The defendant was arrested in Yolo county for embezzling a horse. He was charged with embezzlement, and on trial was convicted by the jury. The judge, however, in sentencing him, stated that he had been found guilty of grand larceny and sentenced him to 12 months' imprisonment. The error in sentencing him on the proper charge and other grounds caused the appeal. There is cold comfort for the defendant, however, for the Supreme Court merely remands the cause with instructions for the judge to sentence the man on the proper charge.

Mrs. Jane Kallahar, a shirtmaker and a widow from San Francisco, spent the greater part of Monday night in the ruin on the doorstep of Giles H. Gray's house, at 754 Tenth Street, Oakland, and a large part of yesterday morning under the same circumstances. She had a couple of warrants in her pocket calling for the arrest of Broker E. P. Gray, a brother of the owner of the house, and charging him with swindling her out of several thousand dollars. Mrs. Kallahar was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Hacker also of San Francisco, who were also in search of the vanished broker.

On Tuesday, in Sacramento, an accident which may prove fatal occurred to S. P. Milligan, brakeman on a freight trein. It appears that the train was about entering a piece of snowshed between the Summit and Truckee, Cal., about seven miles west of the latter place, and he was walking on top of an Eastern refrigerator car, (which is somewhat higher than the freight cars of the Southern Pacific Company), going toward the caboose. Moving with his back to the engine he did not notice that the train was so near the shed. Some one called to him to look out, but almost simultaneously one of the beams of the shed struck him on the back of the head, knocking him between the freight car and the caboose. The latter ran over his left leg at the ankle, grinding it to a pulp; his scalp was badly cut, and the skull, it is feared, fractured; the thumb and forefinger of his left hand were broken, and he was otherwise injured.

The Cosmopolitan for December.

"The Cowboys of the Northwest" by William T. Hornaday, the author of "Two Years in a Jungle," is one of the most striking and entertaining articles in the December Cosmopolitan, published in Rochester, N. Y. It is beautifully illustrated by Meeker, and presents an accurate and animated picture of the hard and unromantic life of the cowboy. The first installment of "Senor Io" by Salvatore Farina, the most deliciously humorous story ever published, is presented. The other fiction is a powerful Christmas story. "Under the Mistletoe" by Harriet Prescott Spofford, "Our Door Bell," a pathetic story by M. Heimburg, the well known German novelist and "Maunner's Cure for Cowardice," by Mary Rose Floyd, illustrating one of the curious superstitions of the Southern negroes. Olive Thorne Miller's charming sketch of "A Little South American," William M. Briggs' humorous description of Spanish peasant life, entitled "A Humble Castle in Spain," and Nicholas Sakney's thrilling sketch, "The Story of My Escape from a Russian Prison," John Esten Cooke's valuable historical article, "My Lady Pokahontas," and Professor W. C. Richard's humorous poem, "Ninety Degrees," complete the list of articles in the body of the magazine. "A Pink of Perfection," an illustrated story by Clara F. Guernsey, in the "Young Folks," and "Sugar Plum" by Mrs. Henry Brown in "The Household," should not be overlooked. The two full page illustrations "The Guitar Player" and "The First Dancing Lesson," are beautiful.

"Petroleum, Its Source and Production."

This title indicates to some extent the character and scope of the new Holiday Annual for 1887, by "A MAN," which is now in press and will be ready, on or about the 20th inst., for delivery by the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway. It is to all intents and purposes a GIFT to the friends and patrons of that road. The subject is ably handled, and discussed in a clear, colloquial vein that will captivate adults and youths alike, although especially "dedicated to the Boys and Girls of America." It embodies a vast amount of scientific and practical information, is profusely illustrated with diagrams, sketches and full page engravings from original drawings true to fact and nature—with beautiful and striking design on outside cover, printed in colors. It is a book that will challenge wide attention and comment—something choice, elegant and valuable, that will PAY to read, study, discuss and preserve—and the Company have spared no expense to produce it in FIRST CLASS style. TAKE SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR
For all Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Spleen
This purely vegetable preparation, now so celebrated as a Family Medicine, originated in the South in 1828. It acts gently on the Bowels and Kidneys, and corrects the action of the Liver, and is, therefore, the best preparatory medicine, whatever the sickness may prove to be. In all common diseases it will, unassisted by any other medicine, effect a speedy cure.
The Regulator is safe to administer in any condition of the system, and under no circumstances can it do harm. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage to lead to intemperance; will promote digestion, dissipate headache, and generally tone up the system. The dose is small, not unpleasant, and its virtues undoubted.
No loss of time, no interruption or stoppage of business while taking the Regulator.
Children complaining of Colic, Headache, or Sick Stomach, a teaspoonful or more will give relief.
If taken occasionally by patients exposed to MALARIA, will expel the poison and protect them from attack.
A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.
I have been practicing medicine for twenty years, and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that, equals Simmons Liver Regulator, prompt and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system.
