

SAY KELSEY LEFT NAMES OFF LIST

Property Owners Make Serious Charges Against Former City Engineer.

PROTESTED AGAINST SEWER.

Engineer and City Attorney Conspired To Nullify Petition—Work Stopped And List to be Rechecked.

Charges were made by several property owners last night before the engineering committee that Louis C. Kelsey, formerly city engineer, has left the names of names of protesters on the petition against sewer extension No. 12, which defeated them. The property owners opposed this sewer extension because they did not care to pay $2.50 per foot for it when similar extensions have been let for half the price. The extension is located in the neighborhood of the city and will cost the city $10,000. The committee, however, decided to rescind the action of the committee and check the list over again.

There were hundreds of names attached to the petition protesting against the sewer which was sent to the city engineer, Kelsey, who was then city engineer. The property owners claim that their names were not on the list. They were represented by the extension which was $10,000 in excess of the two-thirds, 10,000 feet in excess of the required by the statute, required to defeat the extension. George O. Chaney, who is now city engineer, was present, and he stated that he had not noticed the list and did not care to mix up in the affair.

During the argument, a discussion arose as to the duties of the city engineer. City Attorney, D. D. Dinnery, stated in an opinion some time ago that if the property owners' names did not appear on the petition as they did not appear on the city recorder's books that they were to be stricken off the list. This is what Kelsey did and he defeated the property owners by cutting off the names of the property owners.

DINNERY REVERSED. Patrick J. Daly, assistant city attorney, was present last night and he reversed the opinion of the city engineer. He declared that because the names were not identical on the petition with the names on the city recorder's books, that the city engineer has a right to do that, but he has to prove that they do not own the property which they represent in the petition.

The list will be checked up again and a report on the matter brought before the council. Meanwhile there will be no work done on the sewer extension No. 12, No. 182 and No. 183 until they have to pay interest on the improvement for the last year and a half. The engineering committee decided to respond to the council to abate the sewer until Nov. 1, 1909, because the property owners had no benefit from the extension on account of the sewer being out of commission.

FRANCHISE REVOKED. The franchise of the Salt Lake & Seaside Railroad company which expired in 1905 was revoked last night by the municipal law committee. The city engineer was requested to notify the company and ordered them to remove the poles on Second East street to South South street immediately. The public grounds committee announced the city recorder to advertise by ads at public auction the city land on North State street above First North street and all the city property on West Canyon road.

SIXTEENTH WARD REUNION.

NOTABLE RECEPTION AT FARNSWORTH HOME

Mrs. Adeline F. Fitz, President General of Daughters of the Revolution, is Guest of Honor.

Last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philo T. Farnsworth, a brilliant reception was given by the Daughters of the Revolution in honor of Mrs. Adeline F. Fitz, president general of the national society, Daughters of the Revolution. The handsome home was decorated throughout with chrysanthemums and festoons of English ivy, the diningroom being especially attractive with its window alcove and mantels lined with ivy leaves. In the receiving line with the guest of honor stood the first state regent, Mrs. Emmeline B. Wells; the present regent, Mrs. Alice M. Horne; Mrs. Philo T. Farnsworth; Mrs. Thomas G. Webber; Mrs. W. B. Douglass; Mrs. John D. Spencer; Mrs. Henry C. Lund and Mrs. W. N. Williams. Assisting in the diningroom were the Misses Florence, Lucy and Alice Farnsworth; Lucy Jeremy; Miss Benton; the Misses Georgia Williams, Mary Horne, Geneva Wright, Ruth Richards, Itha Rogers, Cinda Murdoch, Margaret Maxwell and Mrs. Morris N. Farr. Miss Marian Whitney and Miss Lillian Wells received the guests at the door and Miss Athene Farnsworth up stairs.

A delightful musical program was given by Miss Mybelle Clayton, Prof. Kieselburg and Miss Irene Kelly. Miss Kelly singing a number of Mrs. Fitz's songs with the composer accompanying on the piano. Mrs. Fitz also read a paper on "Song Craft, or the Art of Making of Songs," which evoked her sentiment in regard to the motive of song, and also gave interesting bits of history connected with the writing and publishing of well known hymns and ballads. About 50 guests were present to enjoy the affair which was a most delightful one throughout.

Mrs. Fitz is composer of the following songs, besides a number of children's and other special songs, hymn settings and accompaniments: "The Handbell and the Daisy," "A Shepherd's Lullaby," "The Sweetest Flower that Grows," "My Little Sweetheart," "The Song of Old," "Sheep in the Sky," and "Ho, and Away to Slumberland."

HOOKWORM APPEARS HERE.

Arkansas Family Thought to be Victims at Neph—An Odd Parasite.

Dr. O. D. Minor of Nephi called up Secretary Beatty of the state board of health Thursday evening to notify him of the presence of two cases of suspected "hookworm" at Nephi, the victims being members of a family recently arrived from Arkansas, where the dreaded parasite has spread such havoc. Dr. Beatty instructed Dr. Minor to quarantine the family and administer thymol in good sized doses. The hookworm is much like the ordinary pinworm in appearance, but has a mouth provided with fang-like cutters which fasten on the mucous membrane lining of the intestines and draw blood therefrom. The first stages of the affliction are characterized by diarrhea followed by a general physical demoralization later. Magazine articles have been written about it, and much of the so-called laziness of the working classes in the south is now attributed to the hookworm. John D. Rockefeller has given a million dollars to fight the destroying parasite.

Morning paper accounts of the suspected case credited it to Lohi, but inquired at that point and at Nephi disclosed the fact that there is no such case even suspected at Lohi, but that it is a case reported from Nephi by Dr. Minor.
