

TWO OLD TIMERS GO SIX ROUNDS

Young Corbett and Terry McGovern Mix at Philadelphia.

THIS THEIR THIRD BATTLE.

Both Were Worse for Wear and Neither Was Able to Damage the Other.

Philadelphia, Oct. 17.—Terry McGovern and Young Corbett fought a hard six-round bout at the National Athletic club tonight. When the going was little to the advantage of the fighters. The fight between the two old timers was witnessed by one of the bloodiest ever witnessed in this city.

In the opening round there was not a blow which did any damage. McGovern, however, with his two previous battles with Corbett, took no chances and simply landed around the ring or rushed to a clinch. At the opening of the second round Corbett rushed and caught McGovern with the latter to take the count which forced the latter to take to his heels. When McGovern got to his feet he rushed to a clinch and in so doing he landed a blow on McGovern's nose, which caused McGovern to bleed from the nose. From this round to the end the fighters were covered with blood from head to foot.

Matters grew worse in the third round. McGovern was hit in the eye and McGovern's eye was finally closed. McGovern was hit in the eye and McGovern's eye was finally closed. McGovern was hit in the eye and McGovern's eye was finally closed.

NATURE TELLS YOU.

As Many a Salt Lake City Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you all about it. The urine is nature's calendar. Infrequent or too frequent action; Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills. Salt Lake City people testify to this.

J. M. Swen, dealer in mining and milling machinery, of 36 S. Third West Street, Salt Lake City, Utah, Post-office box No. 124, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for several years for the treatment of kidney ailments and for this reason am glad to recommend them. For three years I was suffering all the time with such troubles, and got worse and worse until I was told I had an advanced case of diabetes. I was advised to use Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at the F. J. Hill Drug Co.'s store. I felt relieved before I had taken one box and kept on until I had taken four boxes. I consider myself cured, and hope that my testimony will be the means of bringing relief to some other sufferer."

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

A notable wedding of the season was that of Miss Celia Levy and M. A. Davidson, the event taking place at the Montefiore synagogue on Wednesday at 5 o'clock, with Rabbi Freund, Brody and Hylike officiating in the presence of a large number of guests. The decorations were lavish and beautiful, and the ceremony was a most impressive one.

Arch of ferns and flowers being half way up the aisle with broad satin ribbon streamers of white extending from the chandelier to the walls. All about were palms and ferns and the ceremony was performed under a canopy of pink satin, held by the ushers in symbolization of the new home that the bride will enter. The three rabbis, the groom and the ushers, Messrs. Hersh, Siegel and Jacob, awaited the bride at the altar.

At the pulpit, Mrs. Levy, the bride's mother, entered first, followed by the bridesmaids, Misses Lena Levy, Lizzie Shapiro and Bertha Salmonson, then the little flower girls, Edna and Martha Levy, the maid of honor, Miss Anna Levy, following, and then the bride on the arm of her father, The bride wore a gown of white liberty satin, with the trimmings of rose point lace, the maid of honor a gown of white lace over silk, the three bridesmaids were in pink satin, and Mrs. Levy in gray silk with lace trimmings, while the little flower girls were in white dotted Swiss. The "Bridal Chorus" was the opening musical selection, and Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" and march were played during the ceremony, and at the close. The party entered through an arch of white satin streamers, and as it reached the pulpit, the canopy of pink satin was raised by the ushers and held during the service, part of which was in English and part in Hebrew.

The parlors were in yellow nasturtiums and marigolds. Covers were laid for 20 guests.
