A fine crayon portrait of Bishop Scammon has been recently painted by a college from Chicago, and will be hung in the new building. The portrait is made from a photograph taken at the time of the bishop's consecration.

Edwin H. Walker, the three years old son of the Riverton postmaster, and who was operated upon by Prof. Lorenz last October for congenital hip disease, is able to walk. The plaster cast was changed some time ago for a new one, and now that has been removed.

The funeral of Mrs. Genevieve M. Burritt, wife of Civil Engineer H. M. Burritt, was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of her father, Russell Burritt, 175 North West Temple street. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. W. M. Padon, and the music was furnished by the Euterpe quartet. There were many floral tributes from sympathizing friends. The interment took place in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

People in Salt Lake, who take New York papers and there are many of them—are constantly amused to see items taken from the papers, reprinted in Salt Lake journals, related four days later, and sent out as today's "telegrams." A case in point yesterday was the arrival of Maude Adams in "Telegrams." This was in all the New York papers of Thursday, and Friday, and which reached here yesterday and Monday, but it was featured in a Salt Lake paper yesterday as the "telegrams" of the day.

PARK WAS CROWDED.

Estimated That 15,000 People Attended the Reunion.

The Sunday school authorities estimate the crowd at Liberty park yesterday at 15,000. In support of this statement the fact is cited that 8,000 bottles of soda water and root beer were sold during the day, to say nothing of the ice cream and fountain sodas consumed by the immense throngs. Despite the jam everything went off very smoothly and great credit is due the committees for the manner in which the big event was pulled off.

After the "News" report closed yesterday afternoon there was an interesting program of field and other sports. About 4 o'clock company B of the Twelfth Infantry, under command of Capt. Pardee, gave an exhibition drill which, although somewhat interfered with by the surging throng, was well appreciated by those who witnessed it. Then followed music by the Fort Douglas band and songs by the Sunday school children, these including "America" and "In Our Lovely Desert," which were rendered with spirit under the direction of Stake Chorister Alvin A. Beesley. A little later there was a game of baseball between the Second and Sixteenth wards, representing the east and west sides, the former winning by a narrow margin. The game was captured by Mr. Huhl of the Ninth ward, and the automobile race between S. J. Carter and Bert Arnold was won by the latter, who led the former practically all the way. Preceding the race there was a sort of informal automobile parade. Carl Rodman won the five-mile motor-paced bicycle race.

OFFICER SHOTS YOUNG TOUGH

Defends Himself From Assault of Intoxicated Hoodlums.

Police Officer Who Fired Shot Was Charles Leaker and His Victim Was William Wilson.

Crazed by too much whisky, creating a disturbance at Liberty park, resisting and beating an officer who tried to arrest him, and then finally receiving a severe wound from the officer's revolver was the finish of an afternoon's rowdiness yesterday for William Wilson, aged 19 years, residing at 49 West Second South street. He is now in the Holy Cross hospital, and his chances for recovery are about even. The policeman who fired the shot was Charles Leaker, recently appointed to a position on the force, and detailed for duty at Liberty park.

ASSAULTED THE OFFICER.

The shooting was caused by Wilson's attack on the officer who tried to arrest him and three companions who had been creating a disturbance and throwing bottles in the park where several thousand children were enjoying a day of sport. When Leaker attempted to arrest them they turned on the officer, threw him to the ground and severely beat him, one of them striking the officer on the chin with a bottle and inflicting a severe wound. They took the officer's club away, and he was forced to draw his revolver for self-protection. Wilson was in the act of running away when Leaker fired the shot that brought his man down and made him think more of his folly. Wilson's companions were Frank Davis, age 22, 126 N. street; Leonard Doolan, age 20, of 182 P. street; and Herbert Houghton, age 17, of 90 M. street.

HOW TROUBLE STARTED.

Officer Leaker says he first observed the gang when they were breaking bottles and throwing them into the park among the children. He ordered them to stop, and said if they did not he would arrest them. Wilson said he might arrest him but he could not take Davis. Leaker then placed them all under arrest and marched them to the patrol box to send for the wagon. While waiting there Wilson remarked: "If you fellows are my friends, help me." He then struck the officer in the face and said a signal for the gang to pitch onto Leaker. They threw him to the ground and David twisted his club out of his hand. Leaker was beaten about the face and head and the blow was so hard that he struck him on the chin with a knife or bottle and cut the flesh to the bone.

POLICEMAN'S STORY.

"I was powerless and was being pummeled to death," said Leaker, "and having no help I reached for my gun to protect myself. Wilson started to run and I fired. I am sorry I hit the boy and hope he will recover, but I had to protect myself from their assault."

As soon as the shot was fired, Wilson sank to the ground and his companions left the officer and ran to his assistance. The shot attracted Sergeant Hempel and several officers who hastened to the scene and placed the crowd under arrest. The four were placed in a hack and accompanied by Officer Parry and Officer Leaker were hauled to the police station. Wilson was laid out on a table and City Physician Stewart summoned. Wilson was still very drunk and cursed and acted in a belligerent manner. The blow was so hard that he struck him on the chin with a knife or bottle, but Wilson fought against it. The wound was dressed and Wilson was placed on a stretcher and taken to the Holy Cross hospital in the patrol wagon. Leaker accompanied Dr. Stewart to the hospital.

BULLET REMOVED.

An operation was at once performed on Wilson and the bullet removed. It was found the pellet bone had been pierced on the left side by a .35 caliber bullet. It grazed the peritoneum and the spine. It was found imbedded in the pelvic bone on the right side. Wilson rallied from the operation and Dr. Stewart said if no complications set in, his chances for recovery would be even.

DRESSING THE WOUND.

Dr. Stewart dressed Leaker's wound and it required three stitches to close up the hole. The young men who were companions of Wilson were held at the station. They all admitted the attack on Leaker and said they all punched him. They denied using a knife or bottle, but the cut in Leaker's chin might have been done with a ring. When searched a pint bottle of whisky was found on Doolan and David. The latter is regarded by the police as being a rather tough youth who has a record for fighting. Wilson has been employed by the Crabtree Commission company. County Attorney Westervelt made an investigation of the case last night and recommended that the young men be placed under $500 bonds each.

HEATH SENTENCED.

Goes to Jail for Three Months and Fined $100.

F. H. Heath, who was convicted of having enticed Alice Lee away from her home and placing her in a Commercial street resort, was late yesterday afternoon sentenced by Judge Diehl, who ordered that he be imprisoned in the county jail for three months and pay a fine of $100. The technical charge against Heath was vagrancy and on account of the aggravated nature of the fellow's offense the court gave him the limit. Heath is said to have lived with a woman in a Denver dive and is given a general reputation for worthlessness.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell and Mrs. Bagley of Ogden are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Croft.

Mrs. Jane Freeze celebrated her 26th birthday anniversary last night in the most enjoyable party given at her home in Murray. The evening was spent in a delightful social and a delicious supper was served. Among those present were the state presidency, Angus M. Cannon, C. W. Penrose and Joseph

THE COLOR OF THE ROSE.

More than with any other flowers does the color of the rose have special significance. Red is love, white is friendship, yellow is jealousy. One of the legends connected with the rose tells that it became white through being bathed with the tears of mourners who sought the sweetest flower to lie in the arms of their dead. A prettier conceit declares that all roses were white until one day young Cupid, dancing among them, upset in his merry sport a glass of wine, which dyed the roses upon which it fell, red, its own color. Another legend tells the story of a holy little maid of Bethlehem who was doomed to death. When the stakes were heaped around her the fire would not burn, but the brands which had been flaming turned to red roses, and those which had not caught, to white. From this time forth roses, red and white, were made by the gods. The Turks say that red roses sprang from the blood of Mohammed—N. Hudson Moore in the July Delinquent.
