THEIR OBJECTS AND "IN-

WARDNESS."

THE visit of the G. A. R. veterans to this city is being used by the conspirators against the peace of the commonwealth of this region for all its worth. Indeed it is being operated for considerable in excess of its value.

The political plotters aim at the extinguishment of a republican form of government here. They want the "Mormon" people—than whom there are none more loyal to the government—robbed of their political rights alleged that they may fill the offices and grow fat and rich at the expense of an unpopular community. Hence they cry for help from any source, to enable them to accomplish their schemes of plunder and oppression. Were it not for the seriousness of the subject the position of some of the G. A. R. speakers, who dispassionately denounce the "Mormons" because of the policy of the government before they were in the city, would be laughable.

These people who are laboring under the delusive idea that the local tricksters who are seeking to make tools of them care anything about polygamy are a pitiable sight. They are the ones who are throwing dirt in their eyes, and seeking to use them for ulterior purposes would say, were they to tell the truth would be this: "The 'Mormon' people are as good, pure, honest and upright as any religious community in the world. But they are in the overwhelming majority and consequently hold the local political offices. We want you

G. A. R. people to help us to get them disfranchised. We will then get all the public positions and will grow rich at the expense of the people who have built up this country and made it possible for us to live here. Help us to spread infamous lies about them, that under the cover of that refuge we may be able to plunder them with impunity. Press hard upon the government by passing resolutions, etc., that we may get immediate legislation to effect our purpose. If we do not gain our object in this way, then come along at the proper time and help us to wipe out 'Mormonism' in blood, that the Latter-day Saints, with their unity of political sentiment and action may no longer stand as an obstacle to the attainment of our desire—the absolute control of the Territory of Utah."

In consequence of the most unblushing falsehood and misrepresentation, it is difficult for a stranger to believe that

GLASS BALL SHOOTING.

He called at the saloon of L. Barry, who also was formerly of this place, and whose relatives still reside here.

The father of the deceased, John Barry, had been drinking much of the day, and had become very much intoxicated.

Barry refused him any liquor after he had taken a glass of beer. Thompson had not taken any liquor of any kind, but, being an acquaintance, had called when an altercation occurred between Barry and Thompson. Thompson became very aggressive, and Barry struck him. Barry drew a bottle from his pocket and was about to strike Barry when Barry grabbed a pistol from beneath the bar and struck Barry with it, but the weapon slipped from his hand and fell upon the floor. Barry grasped for the gun, but Thompson was a little ahead of him and was in the act of raising himself from the floor, when Barry hastily took another pistol and shot and wounded the one in the hand of Thompson. Barry then fled, and was shot and killed by a police officer who was fired at him. The

RAIL TROOP EFFECT

In his back, passed to the daily part of the left shoulder from where it was, early in the morning, by Dr. J. J. McGee.

Barry then fired two shots at Barry.

One passed through him, between the breast and back, and came out at the back. The other shot I am told, struck him in the top part of the head. But I understand neither of the wounds are dangerous.

This morning a woman came home by the passenger train, and this evening I visited him and obtained some particulars of the case. He is doing well, and it is thought that with a few days' careful nursing, which he will be sure to receive, he will be soon all right again.
