FRAGMENTS.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS!

"LITTLE HATCHETS" are numerous about town.

WM. SANDYKE, of Ogden, came to town to-day.

The Third District Court will meet again on Tuesday, Jan. 4th.

SHERIFF JOHN W. TURNER is looking over the ground hereabouts.

The Utah Central employees will have a holiday to-morrow. No freight trains will be run.

The Fourth Quorum of Seventies meet at the usual time and place on Monday evening next.

MISS EDITH JACKSON, daughter of the Chaplain at Fort Douglas, leaves for Boston on Sun. ay morning.

"The day is quite gloomy, the clouds growing black, 'twill soon scatter snowflakes all over thy back."

ISAAC TRUMBO is here amid his old haunts for the holidays, having arrived from San Francisco on Wednesday.

"THE GOVERNOR, OR HIS LITTLE HATCHET," with the inimitable Florence, goes out at the Theatre to-night.

The readers of the News will find enough patriotism to engage their attention for a good while to-day and to-morrow.

IVINS CONK was before Justice Pyper this morning on the charge of drunkenness. He pleaded guilty, and was fined $10.

EVAN STEPHENS was presented with a beautiful Christmas present by a number of his pupils at his class yesterday afternoon.

G. H. STEPHENSON, formerly ticket clerk with Mr. Porter in the U. P. office at Ogden, but now of San Francisco, came in from the west to-day.

The regular monthly meeting of the 57th Quorum of Seventies will be held in the Eleventh Ward schoolhouse on Monday evening next, at 7:30 o'clock.

STEPHEN KINNEY, who was sentenced in May last to one year in the penitentiary for forgery, was pardoned yesterday by Acting-Governor Thomas. The young man declares his intention to live a better life in the future.

MR. C. J. GUSTAVSON, the well known inventor of patent hobbles, nose-sacks, and other useful contrivances, is dealing largely in whips of all kinds at this season, having manufactured an extensive variety of them.

FOUR greasy buck Indians were playing a quiet game of poker or some other such thing on the sidewalk in front of the News office, with squaws and papooses interested spectators, this afternoon. Behold the benign effects of civilization!

THE assistant United States attorney whose residence, like a part of his name, is Ogden, is becoming a little too officious and much too zealous in the cause of "liberty." He is better than he has been humbled and made to look upon themselves as others look upon them many a time.

TALK about mammoth papers! The New York World (daily) of the 9th, reaches us as a 32-page, or 224-column paper, the majority of which space is devoted to reading matter. It is never less than eight pages or 56 columns, occasionally doubles and now and then trebles; but this quadruple number beats the world.

JUNUS YOUNG, the photographer, who is engaged in illustrating the D. & H. G. W. railway, has made some very fine pictures, which are being displayed in the city offices and elsewhere. He has improved rapidly in the art, and his photographs of scenes along the narrow gauge would be hard to beat.

IT is estimated that not less than 3,000 young spruce trees have been cut down for Christmas purposes in the eastern part of this city. This destruction is shameful and should be investigated. The old trees, for cutting down which parties are prosecuted, were not touched, and yet to destroy them would be a moderate matter compared with the demolition of the young ones.

LAST evening a committee of thirteen from the Young Ladies' Improvement Association of the Sixth Ward waited on Bishop Wm. H. Hickenlooper and presented him with a beautiful Christmas cake. The presentation was made with a neat speech, to which the aged Bishop replied with deep feeling, and after some singing the ladies retired, wishing the honored recipient of their gift a merry Christmas.

THERE was a good attendance (for a first night) at Stephens' adult class on Tuesday, the number of young men present, indeed, behind the ladies in this study any longer. New members will be admitted until after the first Tuesday in the new year. Afternoon class for ladies has been decided upon. See the advertisement in today's News.

LOCAL NEWS.

Change of Bill.—At the Theatre, on Christmas night, the comedy of "The Merry Dwarfs" will be presented, by request, instead of "Domby & Co." Those who have purchased tickets for the latter piece, can have their money refunded at the box office if they so desire.

COURT NOTES.—Proceedings in the Third District Court to-day:

John E. Dooley et al., Trustees vs. Utah Eastern Railway Company et al.; decree of foreclosure ordered.

In the matter of the estate of Aurilla Hood; appeal reinstated on docket.

P. L. Williams, et al. vs. Wm. M. Stewart, et al.; peremptory writ of mandate allowed.

J. W. Randa, et al. vs. Edward Brain; judgment entered on verdict; affirmative judgment for defendant for two-sevenths.

George Grimsley vs. John Beck; default and judgment as prayed.

E. D. Egan vs. James T. Clabey; motion for new trial overruled.

James Spillet et al. vs. Salt Lake County; demurrer to complaint argued and submitted.

Elizabeth Atkins vs. E. Sells et al.; ten days further time allowed upon hearing of order to show cause.

J. W. Randa et al. vs. Edward Brain; motion for new trial overruled; court fixes bond on appeal at $400, and stay of findings.

Fremont National Bank vs. George Beck; motion to relax costs; first cost, $14,545 allowed.

Rebecca Slater vs. J. L. Whitehouse; motion for new trial argued and submitted.

A Smash.—The following account is given of an accident that occurred about 6:30 on Wednesday evening, on the State Road, nearly two miles south of the city. Mr. Joseph C. Hamilton and wife, of Mill Creek, were driving toward town in a buggy, and at the point named saw a team coming along at a rapid pace. Mr. Hamilton turned to one side, but the approaching wagon crowded on to him, and crashed into his buggy. He and his wife were thrown into the deep mud, Mr. Hamilton being severely hurt about the shoulder and back, and having her clothing badly torn. The shafts of the buggy were broken, and the vehicle otherwise damaged to the extent of $30. The driver of the wagon that did the injury paid little attention, though he was compelled to stop by the wreck he had made. When Mr. Hamilton went to him he found that he was badly hurt, and that he was quite unable to get out of the wagon. The team belonged to Mr. Husler. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton were thus placed in a very painful predicament, but Hansen did nothing for their assistance. Fortunately friends happened along shortly after, and enabled them to get home.

Employees Remembered.—Every far-seeing business man realizes the importance of the most cordial relations existing between employers and employees, but the troubled condition of society amply testifies that not every employer has the faculty of securing this desirable ultimatum; indeed the instances wherein they do are quite exceptional. That Brother S. P. Tassell succeeds admirably in this particular is well known among his friends, and the writer is not surprised at his success after the evidence he has laid to-day of the manner in which Brother Tassell studies the comfort of his men. A long row of baskets packed up in his warehouse, not less than 25 in number, each containing a turkey, the minimum necessary to prepare it for the table, and other good things, and labeled with the names to the married men in his employ, testified of the bounteous way in which they are annually remembered at this season of the year. Nor are the unmarried employees forgotten, for huge packages of gifts appropriate to their tastes were also provided for their delectation during the holidays.

The Suit Against the County.—The case of James Spillet vs. Salt Lake County was called up in the Third District Court to-day. County Attorney Moyle introduced a demurrer to the complaint, which was taken under advisement. The plaintiff is suing for $1,000 damages claimed to have been suffered from the action of the defendant in pulling his fence down on several occasions. The basis of the dispute is that Mr. Spillet took a quarter section of land on the south side of the county road in South Cottonwood precinct. The road ran diagonally across Spillet's land, and has been used as a public highway for over 25 years. Mr. Spillet fenced the road in and the county, not desiring any trouble, and although it was considerable inconvenience, offered to grade a road around his place if he would permit it. This he refused to do, so to keep their road open the county officials were compelled on several occasions to tear down his fence which the plaintiff persisted in putting up.

The Contributor.—The January number of this excellent periodical is at hand, filled as it always is with choice, instructive, entertaining reading matter. The frontispiece is "Nauvoo in Winter," and while hardly equal to most others presented by the magazine so far, is still good enough to be comprehensive and give the holder an excellent idea of how the city looked at that time.

The literature of the current number is as follows: Nauvoo in Winter; Why I am a "Mormon"; O. E. Whitney; Some queer travelers; J. E. Talmage; The Missionary's Christmas Gift; prize Christmas story, H. G. Whitney; The Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. T. C. Hill; Our Native Birds, selected; The Wedding of the King; prize Christmas poem, Augusta Joyce Crocheron; Editorial: The Loyal League; The Swamps and Dixies, N. L. Nelson; Spectacle in the Nursery, St. James Gazette; Association Intelligence.

An Alleged Outrage at Ogden.—It appears from the statements of our Ogden contributor that another outrage has been committed by a deputy United States Marshal. It appears that, while working in the interest of the "state militia" party, he assaulted a policeman of the town and beat him with a pistol. Such brutal, lawless and unwarrantable conduct on the part of low and ignorant fellows dressed in a little brief authority is the natural fruit of the apologies offered for the bloody murder perpetrated at Faroo by Deputy Marshal Thompson. If supposed official executives of the law purpose becoming its instruments in the perpetration of acts of violence, it is a question in regard to how much the victims of such conduct will be justified in submitting to.

The School Reports.—To-day Judge Zane rendered a decision in the case of P. L. Williams, et al. vs. Wm. M. Stewart, et al., submitted yesterday. The Judge ordered that a peremptory writ issue, commanding the Superintendent of District Schools for Salt Lake County, Mr. Stewart, to make his report to P. L. Williams as Territorial Superintendent. It was held that the Superintendent elected by the People, John Nuttal, being out of reach of personal process, was civilly dead, although he had continued to perform the duties of the office up to the present.

At a meeting held the Eighth School District last evening, called by the trustees to consider the advisability of levying a tax for the building of a new schoolhouse, 20 voted in favor of a tax and 102 against it.

FIRING ON THE RIOTERS JUSTIFIED IN MILWAUKEE.

Car Works as Middleton, Pa., Destroyed by Fire.

By Telegraph to the News.]

Great Conflagration in Liverpool.

Liverpool, Dec. 24.—The largest and most disastrous fire in Liverpool since the year 1847, occurred this morning, when the extensive stores of John Lewis & Co., on Brunswick Road, were entirely destroyed. The stores contained a vast quantity of goods, all of which was consumed as well as an attractive menagerie connected with the establishment. Total loss is placed at two millions dollars.

The Firing Justified.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 24.—The trial of the rioters has been adjourned until Monday. Mayor Walbridge was on the stand this morning and testified in regard to the proclamations which he issued May 4th and 5th. Judge Sloan, when he adjourned court, told the attorneys for the defense that they would only allow them to call six witnesses to prove there was no riot at Bay View. Lawyers attempted to discuss the matters, but Judge Sloan stated that he considered six witnesses enough. So far as he was concerned he said a thousand witnesses could not make him believe there was no riot at Bay View. He added incidentally that he deemed the firing of the militia perfectly justified.

GREAT CONFLAGRATION IN LIVERPOOL ENGLAND.

A French Steamship Sunk by an English Ironclad.

Extraordinary Estimates for the British Army and Navy.

Gold Coming to New York.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—The steamer Santa, which sailed from Southampton this morning for New York, has on board £230,000 in gold.

A French Steamship Sunk by a British Ironclad.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—The British ironclad Sulista ran into and sank the French steamer Ville de Victoria while the latter was lying at anchor in the Pagos. The Ville de Victoria has 200 persons on board. The Sulista is an iron steamship, armor plated, and is of 3,200 tons burden. Later on the Sulista showed most of the crew and passengers of the Ville de Victoria were drowned.

It is also learned that both vessels were at anchor at the time of the collision. The Sulista dragged her anchors and drifted against the French ship.

Warped.

PARIS, Dec. 24.—The French press have been very warm against publishing military news which would be of use abroad.

The Extraordinary Estimates for the Army and Navy.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—The Times commenting on the reported reason for Lord Randolph Churchill's resignation, viz.: That he was opposed to the increase in the military and naval estimates, say the estimates are extraordinary and the only ground for the inordinate strengthening of the navy and military condition of the empire is that they are rendered necessary by the outlook of foreign affairs.

Christmas for the Poor.—The action of the Church authorities and their assistants throughout the wards of the city, in collecting means together and purchasing comforts and presents for the poor families, cannot be too highly commended. In some instances considerable sums have been obtained, and it all goes in the direction of making those who cannot purchase for themselves equal to their neighbors on this, the happiest holiday of the year. The poor have always, but we do not always have those who contribute to the alleviation of distress and the dissemination of enjoyment.

The Theatre.—There was a large audience to greet the first appearance of the Florentines at the Theatre last evening. Those who attended were well repaid for their outlay of time and money, if uncritical, irrepressible, original drollery in great profusion can be considered an equivalent. The stars are as bright as ever, and they have seldom if at all shown to better advantage than in "The Merry Dwarfs." The piece is well and compactly written, being one of the best of its class; the support above the average, and all do their part toward making the piece go with a vim and snap that were themselves refreshing. The present engagement is a decided success, and the appreciation of the public will doubtless be made manifest again to-night, when "The Governor" will be presented.

Ogden Notes.—To-day Joseph Parry came into court at Ogden, and voluntarily surrendered himself. He was arraigned on an indictment for unlawful cohabitation, and took to Tuesday morning to plead.

"Billy" Andrews has been indicted for manslaughter in causing the death of Israel D. 30-year.

A man named Dickay, a clerk for Coffee John, at Ogden, was arrested for forgery to-day. He is charged with having sent a telegram in the name of H. L. Griffin, countermanding the latter's order for his Christmas supply of oysters.

To-day was stormy in the Junction City.

The suit of the Corinne company against Wm. Johnson, for $2,000, resulted in a verdict for Mr. Johnson.

The "Liberal" party are still gathering in all they can to register, in hopes of securing the next city election.

AN IMPORTANT LOCAL INDUSTRY.

One of the latest and most interesting ventures in the manufacturing line at the Junction City is the establishment of a company, a combination of eastern and local capital, with ready incorporation under the laws of our Territory and are now erecting extensive works in the neighborhood of Warm Springs, just north of this city, with a view to making and introducing into this market cooking utensils of various kinds, but especially the Arnold Automatic Steam Cooker and Coffee Pot, for which the sole agency. They have also opened a business office at the Junction City, occupied by Young Brothers, on Main Street, just south of Z. C. M. L. where samples of their goods, and a complete list of the company's headquarters in Omaha, or their branch establishments in San Francisco, Dallas, Texas, etc., are kept on exhibition.

The readers of the News have probably noticed a very attractive looking vehicle with "The Arnold Cooker and Coffee Pot" in gilt letters on the side of it. It is a sample of the stylish outfit used by the agents of the company generally in canvassing for the sale of their wares. Though so recently established here and not yet ready to commence the business of manufacturing at this place, the utensils which they make have already commanded quite an extensive sale in this city, and as they stand upon their own merits and every article sold paves the way for the sale of others, there is little doubt but that the firm will soon be doing a roaring business, and the Arnold Cooker, etc., become as household words.

Those who have used the ingenious contrivance known as the "Arnold Cooker" hereabouts are loud in their praise of it, and an array of testimonials as to its excellence is presented from all quarters where the Cooker has been introduced that is positive and bewildering in its correspondence.

It is a cure already in Ely's Cream Calm.

four years, and the popularity it has attained in that time is little less than marvelous. To be appreciated it must be seen and used, and those who once see and use it seldom require any urging to induce them to purchase. The following are some of its advantages: It is a perfect cooking utensil, and is used for cooking any thing that can be boiled, baked or roasted. It is constructed so that the most effective results are obtained for the least amount of fuel, time and labor. It can be used on any kind of stove—Coal, Wood, Oil or Gas. A whole dinner can be put in at once, covered up and left alone until ready to serve; a poor cook cannot spoil the meat if she tries; a good cook can cook better with one than without it; the ordinary heat of a cooking stove, or a gas burner, or oil lamp, will generate steam in three minutes; no steam or odor escapes into the room; the meat is kept for hours without spoiling; everything cooked in it is healthful and more easily digested than when cooked by any other method; it saves nearly one-third of the food that is lost by the ordinary methods; all the nutriment, richness and flavor of the food is retained; it saves the labor of watching, turning, stirring, broiling or over-cooking; it is impossible; it never boils over.

PROPRIETOR H. B. KINNEY, Weldon House, Eastville, N. Y., was afflicted with overwork and threatened with Bright's disease, followed by stone in the kidney and bladder, which produced intense pain and spasms. A council of physicians did him no good. He passed blood in his urine, and his organs. Everything else failing, he was finally fully restored to health by Warner's safe cure, as hundreds of thousands of other acute sufferers have been cured. Don't ask Warner's safe cure. All Medical Authorities Agree that catarrh is no more nor less than an inflammation of the lining membrane of the nasal air passages. Nasal catarrh and all catarrhal affections of the mucous membrane of the nose, throat, and lungs, are the result of a blood, and it is a serious mistake to treat them as such. No conscientious physician can afford to ignore the fact that sooner or later every case of catarrh is followed by some form of chronic disease, and that the cure already in Ely's Cream Calm.
