S. HOTCHKISS, M. D. DENTAL SURGEON,

WOULD respectfully announce to the inhabitants of the G. S. L. Valley, and City, that he has permanently located himself in the City to practice his profession.

Dr. H. has had the advantage of eleven years experience in the practice of Dental Surgery, and has been extensively engaged in every department of the business, and will be a permanent resident, and responsible for all operations, and all persons who confide in his abilities may depend upon having their work done equally as well as they could have it done in the Eastern Cities.

Parts or whole sets of teeth inserted; with or without gums, as the case may require, by the use of Gilbert's central cavity or atmospheric pressure plates.

Advice pertaining to dental surgery will at all times be cheerfully and gratuitously given.

For the satisfaction of the people he would add the following letter from Elder O. Hyde.

G. S. L. CITY, Sept. 16, 1850.

This is to certify that Dr. Sterne Hotchkiss the bearer of this letter has proven himself in Pottawatomie County to be a worthy and good citizen—a moral and upright man. He is a professional gentleman, and is about to locate in this city, and to establish himself as Surgeon Dentist, and probably as a physician. He is a member of our church, and it is believed that he will be of much service in this community, and it is hoped that he may share a generous support while engaged in the duties of his profession.

Respectfully,

ORSON HYDE.

Office and residence at the dwelling of Mr. Burr Frost.

LINES,

ON THE DEATH OF BISHOP
N. K. WHITNEY.

BY MISS E. R. SNOW.

A mighty man, a man of worth,
A father and a friend,
Has left the narrow sphere of earth
His upward course to wend.

Firm as the hills—he was a stay,
A bulwark and a shield—
Like a strong pillar, mov'd away
To Zion's broader field.

From understanding's deepest wells
Unmeasur'd draughts he drew—
The light, that with Jehovah dwells,
Inspir'd his judgment too.

With dignity he fill'd the sphere
Allotted him below—
His presence seem'd an impulse here
To wisdom's genial flow.

But now his noble form must lie
And slumber in the dust;
While he with honor joins the high
Assemblies of the just.

With fondly cherish'd memory
His name will be belov'd,
While virtue and integrity
Are by the Saints approv'd.

The stroke is with a heavy rod—
But while our hearts deplore
His loss, we'll own the hand of God,
That God whom we adore.

Many of the blessings universally desired are frequently wanted, because most men, when they should labor, content themselves to complain; and rather linger in a state in which they cannot be at rest than improve their condition by vigor and resolution.

The surest sign of having good luck for the coming year, is by paying the printer. We never knew an instance of a man thriving in business; who did not take and pay for his paper.—Ex.
