

THE UNION STOCK YARDS.

First Annual Meeting and Election of Officers Held.

THE ENTERPRISE ESTABLISHED.

Balloted Committee Made and a Speed Construction of the Yards Promised.

The first annual meeting of the Union Stock Yards Company of this city was held yesterday afternoon.

The directors who were re-elected for the coming year, are: C. C. Chamberlain, president; Sam McHenry, vice-president; A. E. DeRuyter, secretary and general manager; J. M. Smith, treasurer; D. C. Dodge, Robert Merritt, P. L. Williams, and J. C. Chamberlain, directors.

The following report for the past year was read:

This is the first annual report of the Union Stock Yards Company, and the first since the establishment of the company in 1887. It shows that the company has been successful in its operations, and that the yards have been established and are now in full operation.

The following table shows the results of the company's operations for the past year:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Includes entries for Total, Paid, and Balance.

The company's standing at present is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Includes entries for Total, Paid, and Balance.

The company's standing at present is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Includes entries for Total, Paid, and Balance.

The work and labor here and suggestions which have been made, will be discussed by the Board of Directors at their meeting on the 26th inst.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Edward S. Willard, who will be seen at the Theatre Lyonnais tonight in the role of the Duke of Orleans, has been engaged for the part of the Duke of Orleans in the play 'The Duke of Orleans'.

As an evidence of the favor in which this place of amusement is held by the public, we can mention that the number of visitors last Saturday amounted to 2500, making a total for the last three days of the past week of 7500.

The following 'Fraternal matters' were discussed at the Judge's Court yesterday afternoon.

John of Anna Karin, deceased; Estate of Frank Quaker, deceased; Estate of John Smith, deceased.

At His Old Tricks Again. William O'Neil, the Kansas City man, who has been convicted of playing a piano in a saloon but who was fortunate enough to escape punishment, is again reported to be at his old tricks.

PETIT LARCENISTS GALORE. A large number of small thieves were in the City Jail yesterday.

The police have in custody Thomas Kelly and Frank Dine, suspected of having purloined several pairs of pants and other articles of wearing apparel from William Lutzmer's clothing store.

Charles Halstrom, was fined $5 for disturbing the peace. An additional fine of $5 was imposed for drunkenness.

Arrivals and Appointments. Three missionaries for Great Britain arrived in Liverpool on December 21. They were Elders Joseph H. Richards, of St. Joseph, Arizona, Joseph M. Rice, of Payson, and Lee Williams, of Hingham.

Rich Woman's Life Hours. (Pittsburgh Press.) 'How many life hours do you spend your life hours?' was a question propounded to me by a young friend a few days ago.

A Suggestion About Voting. Allow me to make you a suggestion in regard to registration of votes in Utah. I am not used to write for newspapers, but you might speak of the subject I wish to draw your attention to if you think it worth.

FALSE ALARM OF FIRE. It Very Nearly Meant the Death of One of the Department.

About 220 yesterday afternoon the Fire Department started out to respond to what proved to be a false alarm from the box at the corner of the Commercial Hotel.

At the moment there is in the city a very large number of people who are suffering from the influenza epidemic. It is a very contagious disease and is spreading rapidly.

A Fatal Shooting. Word has been received from New York, that on the 15th inst. in Manhattan, a man named William Smith, was shot and killed by a man named John Doe.

A LADY INJURED. By falling on an icy pavement on First Street.

A lady about forty years of age, met with a painful accident by falling on the icy pavement on First Street about eleven o'clock today.

The sidewalk where the accident occurred is a common resort for coasting by the boys of the neighborhood.

At His Old Tricks Again. William O'Neil, the Kansas City man, who has been convicted of playing a piano in a saloon but who was fortunate enough to escape punishment, is again reported to be at his old tricks.

PETIT LARCENISTS GALORE. A large number of small thieves were in the City Jail yesterday.

The police have in custody Thomas Kelly and Frank Dine, suspected of having purloined several pairs of pants and other articles of wearing apparel from William Lutzmer's clothing store.

Charles Halstrom, was fined $5 for disturbing the peace. An additional fine of $5 was imposed for drunkenness.

Arrivals and Appointments. Three missionaries for Great Britain arrived in Liverpool on December 21. They were Elders Joseph H. Richards, of St. Joseph, Arizona, Joseph M. Rice, of Payson, and Lee Williams, of Hingham.

Rich Woman's Life Hours. (Pittsburgh Press.) 'How many life hours do you spend your life hours?' was a question propounded to me by a young friend a few days ago.

A Suggestion About Voting. Allow me to make you a suggestion in regard to registration of votes in Utah. I am not used to write for newspapers, but you might speak of the subject I wish to draw your attention to if you think it worth.

FALSE ALARM OF FIRE. It Very Nearly Meant the Death of One of the Department.

About 220 yesterday afternoon the Fire Department started out to respond to what proved to be a false alarm from the box at the corner of the Commercial Hotel.

At the moment there is in the city a very large number of people who are suffering from the influenza epidemic. It is a very contagious disease and is spreading rapidly.

The company's standing at present is as follows:

CHIEF OF THE CO-OPERATE. Description of the old Matchless Case. The present proprietor of the Matchless Case is a man named John Doe.

A lady about forty years of age, met with a painful accident by falling on the icy pavement on First Street about eleven o'clock today.

The sidewalk where the accident occurred is a common resort for coasting by the boys of the neighborhood.

At His Old Tricks Again. William O'Neil, the Kansas City man, who has been convicted of playing a piano in a saloon but who was fortunate enough to escape punishment, is again reported to be at his old tricks.

PETIT LARCENISTS GALORE. A large number of small thieves were in the City Jail yesterday.

The police have in custody Thomas Kelly and Frank Dine, suspected of having purloined several pairs of pants and other articles of wearing apparel from William Lutzmer's clothing store.

Charles Halstrom, was fined $5 for disturbing the peace. An additional fine of $5 was imposed for drunkenness.

Arrivals and Appointments. Three missionaries for Great Britain arrived in Liverpool on December 21. They were Elders Joseph H. Richards, of St. Joseph, Arizona, Joseph M. Rice, of Payson, and Lee Williams, of Hingham.

Rich Woman's Life Hours. (Pittsburgh Press.) 'How many life hours do you spend your life hours?' was a question propounded to me by a young friend a few days ago.

A Suggestion About Voting. Allow me to make you a suggestion in regard to registration of votes in Utah. I am not used to write for newspapers, but you might speak of the subject I wish to draw your attention to if you think it worth.

FALSE ALARM OF FIRE. It Very Nearly Meant the Death of One of the Department.

About 220 yesterday afternoon the Fire Department started out to respond to what proved to be a false alarm from the box at the corner of the Commercial Hotel.

At the moment there is in the city a very large number of people who are suffering from the influenza epidemic. It is a very contagious disease and is spreading rapidly.

The company's standing at present is as follows:

The company's standing at present is as follows:

I am an old man and have been a specialist in dentistry for many years. I am now in the city of New York.

A lady about forty years of age, met with a painful accident by falling on the icy pavement on First Street about eleven o'clock today.

The sidewalk where the accident occurred is a common resort for coasting by the boys of the neighborhood.

At His Old Tricks Again. William O'Neil, the Kansas City man, who has been convicted of playing a piano in a saloon but who was fortunate enough to escape punishment, is again reported to be at his old tricks.

PETIT LARCENISTS GALORE. A large number of small thieves were in the City Jail yesterday.

The police have in custody Thomas Kelly and Frank Dine, suspected of having purloined several pairs of pants and other articles of wearing apparel from William Lutzmer's clothing store.

Charles Halstrom, was fined $5 for disturbing the peace. An additional fine of $5 was imposed for drunkenness.

Arrivals and Appointments. Three missionaries for Great Britain arrived in Liverpool on December 21. They were Elders Joseph H. Richards, of St. Joseph, Arizona, Joseph M. Rice, of Payson, and Lee Williams, of Hingham.

Rich Woman's Life Hours. (Pittsburgh Press.) 'How many life hours do you spend your life hours?' was a question propounded to me by a young friend a few days ago.

A Suggestion About Voting. Allow me to make you a suggestion in regard to registration of votes in Utah. I am not used to write for newspapers, but you might speak of the subject I wish to draw your attention to if you think it worth.

FALSE ALARM OF FIRE. It Very Nearly Meant the Death of One of the Department.

About 220 yesterday afternoon the Fire Department started out to respond to what proved to be a false alarm from the box at the corner of the Commercial Hotel.

At the moment there is in the city a very large number of people who are suffering from the influenza epidemic. It is a very contagious disease and is spreading rapidly.

The company's standing at present is as follows:

The company's standing at present is as follows:

R. K. THOMAS

1892

January Slaughter

KNIT GOODS. SHAWLS. BLOUSE WAISTS. JERSEYS. Jersey Jackets. CLOAKS. Plushes & VELVETS. WRAPS. Underwear. FURS.

SALT LAKE THEATRE. SUNDAY EVENING, JAN. 20. Four Nights and a Saturday Matinee.

MR. E. S. WILLARD. MR. A. M. PALMER & COMPANY.

THE MIDDLEMAN! Thursday and Friday Evenings.

JUDAH. Each play presented with elaborate scenery and costumes.

WONDERLAND. Week of January 18th.

1892

GENE & CO. RICHMOND, VA.

30c - ADMISION - 10c.

SETS OF TEETH. EXPERT DENTAL CO.

GENE & CO. RICHMOND, VA.

1892

GENE & CO. RICHMOND, VA.

1892

GENE & CO. RICHMOND, VA.

1892

R. K. THOMAS JANUARY SLAUGHTER SALE. R. K. THOMAS JANUARY SLAUGHTER SALE. R. K. THOMAS JANUARY SLAUGHTER SALE. R. K. THOMAS JANUARY SLAUGHTER SALE.