DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, ... May 10, 1869.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE "typos" and all hands round, being desirous of participating in the festivities of the celebration to-day, have "put on steam" this morning and got the paper out two or three hours earlier than usual. A full account of the celebration here will be published to-morrow.

FINISHED.—Tidings that the last rail, connecting the Central and Union Pacific lines, was laid, were received in this City at thirty-two minutes past twelve, Salt Lake City time. The celebrations immediately commenced by the firing of salutes from the City Hall, Court House and Arsenal Hill; the bands commenced playing, the steam whistle blew, and every indication was visible that the celebration had commenced in earnest.

SABBATH MEETINGS.—In the morning the congregation was first addressed by Elder C. Shumway, Jun., who was called on a foreign mission at the last Conference; he was followed by Elders M. G. Nickerson, A. P. Rockwood, J. L. Heywood and G. D. Watt.

In the afternoon Elder John Taylor delivered a highly interesting discourse on the power and efficacy of the principles of the everlasting gospel.

THEATRICAL.—Under the Gaslight was performed in a most excellent manner throughout on Saturday evening. All the characters were played well, "Byke;" the "Sixth Ward chicken" and his minute antagonist, "Peanuts" deserving special mention.

To-night the great sensational drama of the Octoroon will be presented. To give additional eclat to the performance Messrs D. McKenzie, G. Ottinger and John T. Caine will appear as McClosky, Pointdexter and Wah-no-tee. The entertainment will conclude with a Grand Tableau representing the "laying of the last rail, of the U. P. R. R. and the passage of the first train, with a display of fireworks and a general illumination.

THE LAST RAIL.—We are indebted to T. B. H. Stenhouse, Esq., Editor and proprietor of the Salt Lake Daily Telegraph, for the following telegram, sent on Saturday afternoon, but which reached us to late for publication.

"Ogden, May 8 1869.

Ed. Deseret News:—Gov. Stanford and numerous gentlemen from California are here, and on Monday at noon the representatives of both the C. P. and U. P. Companies will lay the last rail and drive the last spike of the two lines."

DEPARTED THIS LIFE.—Elder John Neff, Sen., departed this life at eight o'clock yesterday morning, at his residence, on Mill Creek. Deceased was in his seventy-fifth year, being born on the 19th September, 1794. His funeral will take place at ten o'clock to-morrow morning, at the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms. We anticipate publishing an obituary notice of our late brother after the funeral.

TO THE BOYS AND THEIR PARENTS.—We presume all know that it is unlawful to discharge fire-arms within the city limits. One would not think so to see the number of boys shooting at birds and other objects in some of the streets and on their lots. There may be some serious accident happen, especially on such a day as this, if this practice is not stopped, for so intent are the boys, very often, on their "sport," that a little child or any one else who may chance to come in the way is as likely to be shot as the bird or whatever the object is, that is aimed at. If the boys are to learn to shoot, let it be where there is no risk of having a human being as a target, at all events let them go beyond the city limits.

FRANKLIN.—Elder William Woodward writing from Franklin, Cache Co., on the 5th inst., says: "The grasshoppers are again in our midst, and although small, are destructive. Logan and Smithfield have vast numbers of them. The mail in Cache Valley has been carried with 'security, celerity and certainty' and is a credit to the contractor and a benefit to the people. The mail from Franklin to Bennington has been carried on snow shoes all the winter over the mountains, and is a great advantage to the people of Bear Lake Valley. Hon C. C. Rich the contractor, secured the service of an intrepid young man, who has carried the mail faithfully once a week.

"A Co-operative store is in operation in this place. It commenced in March with a capital of about $2400 in goods and cash. Bishop L. H. Hatch is President, Jno. Doney vice President, Wm. Woodward, C. W. Fox, W. T. Right and Alexander Stalker, Directors.

"The weather is fine. Some of our farmers hesitate about sowing oats till the middle of May, or first of June, as late oats in grasshopper years have done the best.

"The people of this place are generally healthy, and certainly live on simple diet.

"Peace prevails. Improvement in general, both physicial and mental, are the absorbing topics talked of among the people."

SMITHFIELD. — Elder Sharp writing from Smithfield on the 15th instant, sends an interesting account of the school celebration in that settlement, already noticed in the NEWS. In closing, Elder Sharp says: "Smithfield school numbers nearly two hundred scholars, divided into thirteen classes. Hyde Park school numbers about one hundred and twenty-five scholars, divided into ten classes. Each school is progressing very satisfactorily. The Deseret Alphabet is being taught in the Smithfield Sunday School."

RICH COUNTY.—Elder John A. Hunt furnishes us the following items from "St. Charles, Rich County. General good health prevails in Bear Lake Valley; a great amount of small grain is being sowed in St. Charles, probably double the number of acres that have been sowed any previous season, as spring is about three weeks earlier than usual, giving the citizens more time to break the land. All kinds of grain are plentiful, and no doubt will continue so if Pokatello and his band do not stop in the valley too long—they are there at present. President Rich has done much for the Indians, and has their general confidence and respect, as the 'Pe-up' Captain. The weather is fine and trout very abundant."

Died:

At Hyrum, Cache Co., John Barnum Wilson, son of John G. Wilson and Lucy Beeson, aged 10 years 1 month and 1 day. He was kind and truthful, and beloved both by young and old. His sickness lasted two months and nine days. [COM.

At Logan, Cache Co., May 3rd, 1869, of inflammation of the lungs, Arthur Lamoreaux, aged 11 months and 6 days, son of David H. and Nancy M. Lamoreaux.
