 "THE MORNING SUITS."—In a recent number of the Cincinnati Times, among its Washington dispatches was the following—
 Notwithstanding the conflicting Salt Lake dispatches, there is little doubt that the Mormon suits, in the present doubtful legal form, will be discontinued.

There are letters at this office for Henry Dryden and Ragnara Dorothea Berlin.

E. MITCHELL.—There is a letter for you at this office, addressed in care of A. M. Cannon. Call and get it.

THE AMERICAN GROCER is a weekly trade journal published in New York. The number for February 10th contains an article on "Colman vs. The Grocers," which will probably be interesting to the trade.

Per Western Union Telegraph.
Blockade Open Again.
 CORINTH, 4, 9 p.m.—The Union Pacific is again open, and the trains moving. Number three, bound westward, left for Laramie last night, arrived at Medicine Bow 4 p.m. to day, and will leave as soon as the eastern train arrives, which is expected at 6 p.m. The weather is cold, the snow is melting and the water is rising rapidly.

TYPOGRAPHICAL BALL.—The members of the Deseret Typographical Union will give a ball in the 14th Ward Music Hall, on Wednesday, March 13th, to which we have been invited. The invitation calls for a point of color and design, in as neat a specimen of typographical art, in that particular line, as one used desire to see.

ACQUITTED.—A young man was before Justice Clinton today on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The charge was not sustained, and there were indications that it had been instituted by interested parties incited by ulterior motives. The jury was unanimous in a verdict of not guilty.

CAUTION.—It was yesterday stated at the meeting, by a reliable man, that he had seen a canvasser for subscribers to an eastern journal on the streets offering the paper at a greatly reduced rate, and that he had succeeded in obtaining some thirty subscribers. It was afterwards ascertained that said canvasser is an impostor, acting without authority. The unwary public are hereby cautioned against parting with their money for all grades, as with the influx of strangers unscrupulous persons will come and seek to take advantage of the people.

THE FUTURE.—The happiest kind of people are those who look at the bright side of everything, and who can reap some good from every circumstance. The most miserable people are those who can see nothing but the dark side of every picture presented. It is the latter class whose presence, so far as their influence extends, vitiates the sweets of life. A kind of medium, half-way course, always leaning, however, to the brighter side, is the most consistent. It is always detrimental to happiness and prosperity to borrow trouble from the future, the present being sufficiently pregnant with that kind of element. There appears to be a luminous future in store for the people of Utah. To make a certainty they need only adopt the excellent motto, "Do what is right, let the consequences follow." This Territory is on the backbone of this continent, and being so situated, combined with the vast resources yet undeveloped, it is destined to become one of the greatest commercial centers in the land, and the city of Salt Lake will probably become one of the largest and most important cities in the Union. Any how, we have no disposition to look on the dark side, if there be one, of the picture.

THAT DROWNING AFFAIR.—We learned the following additional particulars of the suicide, by drowning, of a woman in the 5th Ward on Sunday evening, from Frederick Goss. He informs us that the deceased was a married woman, that her name was Barbara Croft, and that she resided in West Jordan. She was a native of Switzerland and her maiden name was Enz. She was last seen alive at half-past two o'clock on Sunday afternoon, when she left the house of Charles Kropf, in the 5th Ward. Before leaving she handed her purse to Mrs. Kropf.

About sundown of the same day part of her clothing was found on the bank of Mill Creek, near a bridge, by Nathan Gilbey. Mr. Gilbey made this discovery known to several residents of the 5th Ward, among whom was Brother F. Goss, who, being acquainted with Mrs. Gerber, and suspecting that the apparel belonged to her, went to the spot and identified it. Brother F. Goss, Matthew Gilbey, Thomas Kropf and Charles Kropf hunted in Mill Creek for the body until midnight, but were unsuccessful in finding it. They renewed the search yesterday morning at early daylight and at night o'clock found the remains about fifty yards below the point where the clothing was discovered on the bank.

Intelligence of the sad occurrence was sent to the husband of the unfortunate woman, who arrived during the forenoon, at the house of Frederick Goss, to which the body was taken.

Brother Charles Kropf states that he was acquainted with deceased in Switzerland for many years, and that she had been long afflicted with a nervous disease, which caused her to be subject at times to fits of great mental depression, and that she was probably laboring under one of her attacks of nervous depression when she committed the act which terminated her life. She was forty-nine years of age, and, aside from the peculiar nervousness induced by her nervous complaint, was considered to be a good woman, and was respected by her acquaintances.

Justice of the Peace S. W. Richards held an inquest on the body yesterday, and the coroner's jury, Messrs. Hickenlooper, West and Frazier, returned a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to her death by drowning herself while in a state of temporary mental derangement. The remains were to be interred at two o'clock this afternoon.

LUX ST. VITZ desires us to publish the following—
 "The records of the vegetarian society of Great Britain show that not a single case of smallpox has ever occurred among its members, although it numbers some thousands, and all strongly opposed to vaccination. The fact that persons who study pure living as the vegetarian do, enjoy immunity from disease, shows that smallpox is the result of foul living."

I. O. R. M.—We had a pleasant visit this morning from the following gentlemen from California, who arrived in this city last evening, on a visit for the purpose of organizing a tribe of the Improved Order of Red Men, a benevolent society, disconnected with politics or religion.
 J. P. H. Westworth, Grand Junior Sage-moore of California, and publisher and proprietor of Resources of California; Ben. F. Jewell, Past Sage-moore of California, and in the medical profession; J. A. Woodson, Great Chief of Records, and publisher of the Pacific Law Reporter; Adam Smith, Vice-Great Indomine of the Improved Order of Red Men in the United States; William Friel, Great Keeper of Wampum of California; and G. G. Roberts, Deputy Great Sage-moore of California.
 The above gentlemen have been successful in organizing the Washakie tribe of I. O. R. M. in this city, consisting of 74 members in all, 63 of whom assembled on Monday evening and were duly "swamped" and initiated.
 The gentlemen expressed themselves as very much gratified with their visit and the courtesy which had been extended to them.

during the same. They expected to visit to-morrow or Thursday, and their return to California, with pleasant memories of their brief sojourn at Salt Lake City.

A FRIEND TO THE FAITHFUL writes from Moroni that that city has been visited during the winter by divers itinerant adventurers of the lecturing, horse breaking and training, minstrel, and other professions, leaders in flesh jewelry, &c., although they were not extensively patronized.
