FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Brother Rulon S. Wells, now in Arizona, is expected to reach his home in this city shortly.

See dispatches about President Arthur's attitude toward polygamy. An Inter-Ocean sensation.

The festive g-n-gers chuckle over the dampness of the weather. When they are satisfied, everybody else ought to be.

A brakeman, at Terrace, while coupling a car to the engine, on Tuesday afternoon, had his left thumb badly pinched.

A copious rainfall descended in the valleys of this region last night. A corresponding deposit of snow was made in the surrounding mountains.

The passenger terminus of the Utah & Northern has been removed to Junction, near Silver Bow, and regular passenger trains are running to that point.

Owing to the unfavorable condition of the track, the proposed bicycle race did not come off today. It will be delayed until the weather becomes more propitious and terra firma more solid.

The Carson, Nevada, Appeal says: "Articles of Incorporation of the Nevada & Midland Railroad Company, with capital stock at $5,000,000, divided into 50,000 shares, have been filed in the office of the Secretary of State. It is to be constructed from a point on the eastern boundary line of the State of Nevada, in White Pine County, to and through the Counties of White Pine, Eureka, Nye, Lander, Churchill, Lyon, Douglas, Esmeralda, Ormsby and Washoe, to a point on a western boundary line of the State, in the County of Douglas."

The New York Sun says the original manuscript of the "Book of Mormon" is in the possession of David Whitmer, of Richmond, Mo. Mr. Whitmer, now 78, was a follower of Joseph Smith. He still professes faith in Smith's claim to divine inspiration, and will on no account part with the book, which he declares was copied by Smith from the tablets of stone [gold]. His son shares his views, and says it is not likely, therefore, that the manuscript will soon fall into the hands of other degenerate Mormons or irreverent curiosity hunters.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Dismissed.—This morning the case of the People, etc., vs. Henry Shields, indicted for assault with deadly weapons with intent to kill, was called for trial, and dismissed.

Guilty.—We stated yesterday that the trial of W. W. Forbes, a former employee of the Denver and Rio Grande R. R. Co., was being tried in the District Court, for embezzling the funds of his employers. Last evening the jury returned a verdict of guilty in the case.

Grand Larceny.—In the District Court, to-day, Andrew Pettit was tried on an indictment for grand larceny. The offense consisted in the stealing, by the accused, of a steer belonging to Mr. Newell H. Clayton. The jury found the prisoner guilty. Sentence was deferred till Nov. 7th.

A Whopper.—Utah papers have published a good many big pot stories. They are generally correct too. The Helena, Montana, Independent thinks it has got the biggest narrative in this line when it says that John Wales, of Helena, made this year, on the same square of ground, 1,000 pounds of potatoes—the Peerless. This is at the rate of 80,000 pounds per acre, or 1,333 bushels to the acre.

Narrow Escape.—We learn from the Provo Enquirer that on Sunday evening last, an accident that might have terminated seriously befell the Pleasant Valley train while returning from the canyon mouth to the depot. The train consisted of an engine and a coach, in a reversed position. Cattle were noticed upon the track, but before the speed could be checked, the caboose came in contact with an animal and was thrown from the track. The brakeman was hurled from the carriage, but miraculously escaped serious injury, as indeed did all that were aboard the train.

Took Him in Charge.—When soldiers from Fort Douglas, are taken care of by the City Police, for being intoxicated on the streets, they are generally turned loose next morning. When they are guilty of any additional infringement of good order and decency, the military authorities are communicated with, and soldiers are sent from the camp to take charge of them. This was the case with one this morning, who in addition to being inebriated, created a sensation at a private residence on Second South Street, by knocking at the door and seeking to gain forcible admittance. In response to a telephone communication, the authorities at the fort sent three soldiers to convey him to his quarters.

Western Beef Market.—The market for western beef has been permanently opened to the world with a prospect of never shutting down any more. An extensive beef packing establishment is about to be erected at Sherman station, on the U. P. R. R., by Messrs. Frewen Brothers. The contract for putting up the building has been let to Mr. East, of Cheyenne.

Rather Rough.—Yesterday, Bro. Henry Rollap, returned from Arizona, whither he went to work for John W. Young, Esq., on the Atlantic and Pacific R. R. He expresses himself to the effect that he has had enough of frontier railroad building life to last him for the remainder of his days. That kind of existence is, according to his account, and we can well believe him, not notable for features of refinement.

He informs us that just previous to his leaving, a fearful affair occurred at a point called Flagstaff, four miles from Mr. Young's camp. A man named Bishop kept a saloon there. Two men entered the establishment who were already the worse for liquor and demanded drinks, which he refused. They became enraged, drew their pistols and shot him. Bishop fell forward over the counter, and in that position said: "Boys, I'm a dying man, but I'll shoot while I can," and he did, putting a bullet into the stomach of one and another through the arm of the second. This occurred in the latter part of last month. Both the men who shot Bishop belonged to Mr. Young's camp.

Directly after Bishop was killed a couple of cowboys entered his saloon, collected together all the cash there was on the premises and walked off with it. Besides this the same parties robbed the owner of a sheep-herd, who did not endorse the robbery of Bishop's place, of eight hundred dollars.

While Brother Rollap was at a place called Gallup, another bloody scene was enacted, the first portion of which he witnessed. A couple of men were partners in a saloon. The one wanted to get rid of the other, and accused him of robbing him of $200. He collected about fifty roughs, who gathered around the unfortunate victim of the plot, who made a desperate effort to escape, and eluded the rope three different times. He was finally beaten over the head with the pistols of his brutal assailants, and killed. His body was subsequently found lying across the rails of the track.

Brigham City, since the advent of the railroad, has been a veritable first settlers from Utah, who have removed to the banks of the Gila River, a better location, where they are prospering. Brother Rollap was twenty-two days in coming from there, having traveled to Millford by team, and from the latter point by rail to this city.

A Fortunate Find.—A few days ago a dark cloud floated over Spring Canon, a short distance from Coalville. The aqueous accumulation burst, and down came a copious pluvial pour, creating a rushing torrent in the mountain gorge. These miniature deluges are generally destructive, without any compensating benefit arising from their welcome advent. Not so with this. The new-born stream extemporized a bed for its impetuous course by washing away the softer soil in its way. Fortunately this revealed to the eager eye of the intrepid coal prospector a rich vein of the carbonaceous commodity, nine feet thick. If such desirable results were to accrue from the generality of the genus cloud burst, they would doubtless soon become a popular institution of the country, but this is an exceptional instance of its wealth-revealing proclivity.

We understand that Mr. C. M. Gibbons, of this city, is the fortunate locator of the claim, which may, if the vein is extensive, be justly considered a precious prize, for a prolific coal deposit is of more real value than a moderately good gold mine.

Mutual Improvement.—The 18th Ward Mutual Improvement Association reorganized for the season last night by electing the following officers: President, Horace G. Whitney; 1st Counselor, Don Carlos Young; 2nd Counselor, Charles Barrell; Secretary and Treasurer, John Evans. The Association meets every Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

The First Ward Association also met and organized as follows: President, Robert Braby; 1st Counselor, James D. Van Tassel; 2nd Counselor, Heber D. Mitchell; Secretary, John Hildway; Assistant Secretary, John T. Thorpe; Treasurer, (has. D. Crouch; Program Committee, Albert Brown, William Jack, Thos. Johnson.

The 3rd Ward Association organized last evening following being the result: President, J. A. Blythe; 1st Counselor, T. J. Angell; 2nd Counselor, A. Smith; Secretary, C. G. Angell; Treasurer, E. M. Weller; Librarian, J. A. Blythe; Chairman of Program Committee, T. Maycock; Leader of Choir, F. Bolto.

So did that of the 4th Ward. We here give the officers elected: President, Martin Christopherson; 1st Counselor, Frank Stanley; 2nd Counselor, Wilford Smith; Secretary, James Glenn; Treasurer, George Smith; Chairman of Program Committee, Joseph Symons, which consists of five persons.

More Serenading.—Last night, President John Taylor was the recipient of a serenade from the Tabernacle Choir. In a brief and appropriate address he thanked the chorists for their visit and expressed his satisfaction at the progress that had been made by them as a body.

The choir subsequently proceeded to the residence of Bro. Thomas C. Griggs, who, as will be remembered, was appointed leader of the organization while he was absent on his late mission to England. Brother Griggs acting in the capacity in the interim. The evening was spent in interchanging social greetings and in musical renditions. The affair was one of warm welcome to Bro. Griggs, by his musical friends and associates, he having, as before stated in the News, only returned from Europe last Monday evening.

Case Continued.—To-day the case of Edward Bird, indicted for embezzlement, was called and continued. The accused was deputy county assessor in the reign of the defunct "republic" of Tooele, when there was so much county crookedness. Bird is alleged to have liberally helped himself to the public funds while acting in his official capacity.

Gone to Coalville.—This morning Sisters E. B. Wells and Sarah L. Kimball left for Coalville to attend the Ladies' Conference of Summit Stake, to be held to-morrow.

President Taylor and Party.—The following party went South on the afternoon train to-day: President Taylor, wife and daughter and teamster; President George Q. Cannon, wife and daughter, and teamster; Apostle Wilford Woodruff and wife; Apostle Franklin D. Richards, Elders L. John Nuttall and George F. Gibbs, Mrs. Barratt and son, Mrs. Ellen C. Clawson, Mr. Helden Clawson, and Mrs. Aurelia Rogers. The company purpose visiting St. George before returning home.

The Art Society.—The Salt Lake Art Society is making good progress towards carrying out its object. The fitting up of the rooms generously tendered by Mr. Jennings for its use, are nearly completed. The method adopted for defraying the necessary expense, is for the members to donate pictures of their own painting, the furnishings to be paid for out of the fund realized from their sale.

A committee has been appointed for the purpose of drafting a constitution, rules and regulations, for the government of the Society.
