

STILL MORE CARD.

COLLECTOR HOLLISTER HAS ANOTHER SAY.

The following additional letter upon the recent split among the republican partisans in this city has been published, and we republish it as it all makes history for the benefit of posterity—

Eds. Tribune:—Dr. Winslow uses rather hard language in a quarrel between friends, but I shall not imitate him. I do not complain of the plainest statement of occurrences, but the attributing of motives is another thing, and denunciation without just cause is still another. Dr. Winslow denounces Grant and his friends here with equal vehemence and equal injustice.

He says Grant's removal of McKean was the cruel act of a despot. Now, can any one suppose that Grant, whose chief fault, if fault it be, is fidelity to his friends, struck down McKean for the fun of it, or the cruelty of it? Such a supposition is preposterous. Grant is noted for sticking to his friends, and no candid person will deny that in the case of some of them he has done so greatly to his injury in public estimation. McKean was understood to have his full confidence. Yet we are asked to believe that Grant removed him as a boy kills a fly.

This quarrel hangs upon this point. We claim that The Tribune has persistently misrepresented the President in this matter; it has not told the truth about it, and will not; and Dr. Winslow, doubtless misled by it with most of its readers, misrepresents it far more grossly than The Tribune is in the habit of doing.

It was by this persistent misrepresentation of the President's action, and everlasting denunciation of it, that Grant's friends were forced, upon an occasion presenting itself, to stand up in his defence. That is all they have done, and if public opinion condemns them for it, they must bear it and will, remembering that it is the judgment of an enlightened public opinion only which any one has occasion to respect. A blinded or prejudiced public opinion they can afford to be indifferent to. Many honest men have been proscribed, exiled, even crucified, by the force of that kind of public opinion.

But we are charged with endeavoring to pack the county convention in favor of a third term for Grant. The truth is, the opponents of Grant not only used every means to fill the house with their partisans, but they decided in advance just what it should do. Not only that, they decided and published just what the Territorial Convention should do, naming the delegates who should be sent to Cincinnati, as the files of The Tribune will show. What did the friends of Grant do in the way of "packing" comparable with this?

We have as much right to advocate a third term for Grant as anybody has to oppose it. Some of us may be in favor of it, but as a party we cannot justly be charged with it, because we have not advocated it in any manner whatever. It is a man of straw you have conjured up so as to have something to demolish, and since you have no other grievance, it is perhaps ungenerous in me to deprive you of it.

We are accused of making a disturbance at the convention. No one did more than use his lungs on that occasion, and certainly Dr. Winslow did as much at that as any "Grant hoodlum" in the house. He got upon a seat and shouted till he was hoarse. Now let us admit once for all that all men and hoodlums have equal rights in the matter of making disturbance. You can't very well appeal to lung power to carry the day and then because you are worsted decry the use of lung power.

That we have told the truth about the convention, is not even denied. Your party don't care to deny it; because your appeal is not to truth and reason, but to numbers. Everybody but the pitiful score of "nobodies" who signed our statement is on your side, right or wrong; of what consequence, then, truth or reason? You went to the convention believing that Grant hadn't a friend in Utah, who dared peep against your dictum, and you have not yet recovered from your surprise upon finding that you were mistaken.

The Tribune and Dr. Winslow denounce the Administration for interfering in Utah. But is it interfering you object to, or interfering against your ideas of fitness? You know that the Administration is held responsible for the acts of its agents in all the Territories, and that it cannot be otherwise under the present system of Territorial government. You can justly call in question the way in which it is done and the reasons therefor. But to denounce the act itself as an act of usurpation and despotism is to do what you cannot for a moment justify on any ground whatever. You are yourselves the first and last to call for it, but it must be according to your ideas and at your dictation. You allow the Administration no more latitude in judging of its duties than you do me or anybody who doesn't exactly agree with you.

In conclusion, I want to say that we are not contending for nothing, or for the fun of it, at least I am not. Whether Grant shall be endorsed or condemned, is not all there is at issue. There is involved a struggle on the part of many good Republicans for recognition, and a voice in the councils of their own party. There is involved a protest against the assumption on the part of a few of the right to dictate to all, and to flay alive every one who objects to such dictation. There is involved a protest against a policy whose violent and revolutionary measures, whether the best or not, cannot be carried out, and whose perpetual defeat is forever reacting against us and in favor of the dominant Church and State party in Utah. There is involved a protest against driving men, who are with us on the main question, but who cannot bring themselves to combat despotism by despotic means, into a neutral and even hostile attitude. Make the issue as squarely as possible, and make the fight against the enemy red hot, but allow some latitude as to ways and means among fellow soldiers, since Nature has not made all men alike. Let those who are expected to execute and be responsible for the measures undertaken, have some say in deciding what they shall be.

If out of all this pother there shall result an improvement in this respect, I shall think it has not been in vain.

You invited me to "come again," and I could not be so discourteous as to decline your invitation.

O. J. HOLLISTER.

Salt Lake City, March 3, 1876.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Long Winter—Short of Feed—Amusements, etc.

MORONI, Sanpete Co., U.T., Feb. 29, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

We have had a very hard winter, and stock looks bad on the range. The farmers' feed for stock is getting scarce, owing to the length of the winter.

Our quiet town has been delighted with the music of sleigh bells, more this winter than for the last six years. Our town and county have been amused with recreations of different kinds this winter, such as theatres, dances, horseracing, etc., and last, but not least, the raffling for a ninety dollar sewing machine, but which I think was a wrong precedent to establish before the young and rising generation.

There has been considerable sickness in the place this winter among the small children.

Our place is building up slowly, but I think on the whole we have no grounds to complain of the kind hand of Providence.

Very respectfully,
AN OBSERVER OF THINGS.

DECEASED.

In the Third Ward, Salt Lake City, March 1, 1876, ELIZA WINDZER, daughter of Lawrence and Julia Windzer, and wife of John L. Blythe.

Deceased was born at Colton, Derbyshire, England, Dec. 25, 1813; embraced the gospel in her native land; left her native land and crossed the plains with the first hand-cart company in 1856, suffering many privations on the way, and after a long and tedious journey, arriving in Salt Lake City, where she resided most of the time since, until the day of her death. She was a firm believer in the gospel, and was respected by all who knew her for her integrity in the cause of truth. She died in peace, with the hope and assurance of rising in the morning of the first resurrection, with all the glorified and redeemed saints. [Com.—Millennial Star, please copy.]

To sell the New Patent Improved EYE CUPS.
Guaranteed to be the best paying business offered to Agents by any House. — A easy and pleasant employment.

The value of the celebrated new Patent Improved Eye Cups for the restoration of sight breaks out and blazes in the evidences of over 6,000 genuine testimonials of cures, and recommended by more than one thousand of our best physicians in their practice. The Patent Eye Cups are a scientific and philosophical discovery, and as ALEX. R. WYETH, M. D., and WM. BEATLEY, M. D., write, they are certainly the greatest invention of the age.

Read the following certificates:
FERGUSON STATION, LOGAN CO., KY., June 6th, 1872.

DR. J. BALL & CO., Oculists.
GENTLEMEN: Your Patent Eye Cups are, in my judgment, the most splendid triumph which optical science has ever achieved, but, like all great and important truths, in this or in any other branch of science and philosophy, have much to contend with from the ignorance and prejudice of a too sceptical public; but truth is mighty and will prevail, and it is only a question of time as regards their general acceptance and endorsement by all. I have in my hands certificates of persons testifying in unequivocal terms to their merits. The most prominent physicians of my country recommend your Eye Cups. I am, respectfully, J. A. L. BOYER.

WILLIAM BEATLEY, M. D., Salvisa, Ky., writes: "Thanks to you for the greatest of all inventions. My sight is fully restored by the use of your Patent Eye Cups, after being almost entirely blind for twenty-six years."

ALEX. R. WYETH, M. D., Atchison, Pa., writes: "After total blindness of my left eye for four years, by paralysis of the optical nerve, to my utter astonishment your Patent Eye Cups restored my eyesight permanently in three minutes."
Rev. S. B. FALKINBURG, Minister of M. E. Church, writes: "Your Patent Eye Cups have restored my sight, for which I am most thankful to the Father of Mercies. By your advertisement I saw at a glance that your invaluable Eye Cups performed their work perfectly in accordance with physiological law; that they literally fed the eyes that were starving for nutrition. May God greatly bless you, and may your name be enshrined in the affectionate memories of multiplied thousands as one of the benefactors of your kind."

HORACE B. LURAY, M. D., says: "I sold, and effected future sales liberally. The Patent Eye Cups, they will make money, and make it fast, too; no small catch-penny affair, but a superb, number one, tip-top business, promises, as far as I can see, to be life-long."

Mayor E. C. ELLIS wrote us, November 16th, 1869: "I have tested the Patent Eye Cups, and I am satisfied they are good. I am pleased with them. They are certainly the greatest invention of the age."

Hon. HORACE GREELEY, late Editor of the New York Tribune, wrote: "Dr. J. BALL, of our city, is a conscientious and responsible man, who is incapable of intentional deception or imposition."

Prof. W. MERRICK writes: "Truly, I am grateful for your noble invention. My sight is restored by your Patent Eye Cups. May Heaven bless and preserve you. I have been using spectacles twenty years. I am seventy-one years old. I do all my writing without glasses; and I bless the inventor of the Patent Eye Cups every time I take up my old steel pen."

ADOLPH BIORBERG, M. D., physician to Emperor Napoleon, wrote, after having his sight restored by our Patent Eye Cups: "With gratitude to God, and thankfulness to the inventors, Dr. J. BALL & Co., I hereby recommend the trial of the Eye Cups (in full faith) to all and every one that has any impaired eyesight, believing, as I do, that since the experiment with this wonderful discovery has proved successful on me, at my advanced period of life—90 years of age—I believe they will restore the vision to any individual if they are properly applied."
ADOLPH BIORBERG, M. D., Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Essex, ss. June 5th, '73, personally appeared Adolph Biorberg, made oath to the following certificate, and by him subscribed and sworn before me. WM. STEVENS, J. P.

LAWRENCE CITY, Mass., June 9, 1873.
We, the undersigned, having personally known Dr. Adolph Biorberg for years, believe him to be an honest, moral man, trustworthy, and in truth and veracity unsupported. His character is without reproach.
