LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—The Emerson Minstrels had an overflowing house last evening and the applause was uproarious at their masterly performances.

They perform again to night, also at a matinee to morrow, and again in the evening, the last of their engagement. It is needless to advise people to go—numbers can't stay away.

A GOOD TRIP.—We learn, by letter from Elder W. H. Kelsey, dated Liverpool, May 22nd, that the missionaries had a pleasant journey from Ogden to England. The voyage across the Atlantic occupied thirteen days, and during the most of that time head winds were encountered, and the weather was cold for the season during the entire trip.

WATER.—A plentiful supply of water now ripples down the various sects, the thirst of the soil on the city lots has been slacked and vegetation has been gladdened and refreshed. Watermaster Groo and his assistants have had a most lively time lately.

CALLED.—We had a pleasant call yesterday afternoon, from Mr. Richard Smith, of the firm of McKellar, Smiths and Jordan, type founder of Philadelphia, and Mr. M. Gregg, also of Philadelphia, who, with their families, are now making a short stay in our city, being en route to San Francisco. Both gentlemen express unbounded pleasure and surprise at finding Salt Lake such a beautiful place, and said they had found nothing equal to it west of St. Louis.

TOOELE CITY, June 8, 1872.

Editor Deseret News:

Dear Brother:—On Thursday, June 6th, through the kindness of H.S. Jacobs, Esq., the teachers, children and friends of the Tooele Sunday School were enabled to enjoy a trip on the Salt Lake in the commodious steamer City of Corinne, belonging to that gentleman. About 40 vehicles preceded by the brass band conveyed the happy juveniles to the lake shore, arriving about 10 a.m. They were kindly received by Capt. Evans, who, with every officer on board, endeavored to make all comfortable.

The weather was delightful, and all appeared to appreciate the exertions of the superintendents for their enjoyment. After a splendid ride of about four hours, we landed, and all returned to Tooele highly delighted, and will probably ever remember, what have been to many, their first sight of and first ride in a steamboat. There were about 350 in the excursion, this being the first Sunday School, and the largest number that had ever been on board. Yours respectfully,

W. H. FOSTER.

EDITORS' EXCURSION PARTY.—An excursion party of about seventy Iowa editors are expected to visit this city at the beginning of this week, on their way to California.

NOT APOPLEXY.—After a short examination into the symptoms exhibited by Elder Orson Hyde by Dr. Benedict, the latter discovered that the disease with which he was afflicted was not apoplexy. We are pleased to be able no state that, under the Doctor's skillful treatment, he is recovering rapidly.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR MILCH COWS.—To citizens who are fortunate enough to be the owners of good fat cows or cattle, we reiterate our advice to take extra care of them, as cattle thieves are prowling around the city watching for chances to help themselves. Mr. A. P. Rockwood, of the Thirteenth ward, had two fine milch cows stolen from his premises, at a rather late hour, last Wednesday night. There were none of the men folks at home that night, and no extra precautions had been taken, no fears of thieves being entertained. The animals had been seen to for the night, and were in their corral, as usual, the last thing. Next morning they were missing, and it was thought they had strayed off as particular anxiety was felt; but they did not return that day, nor the next, and the belief began to be entertained that they had been stolen. This was subsequently confirmed, the owner of the cows learning from a party that, on Wednesday night, at about 10 o'clock, he met a man driving two cows, answering the description of the missing ones, down towards Jordan Bridge. Mr. R. has neither seen nor heard anything further of his cows, and he has no doubt they were stolen, and have been slaughtered. The moral of this is, that all persons residing in the city, who are fortunate enough to possess valuable animals should take all the precautions in their power to have them in safe keeping after dark.

A LITTLE MORE EXPOSURE.—Yesterday afternoon, a man named Wm H. Harmon, a Welshman, unable to read ro to speak English, sufficient to express himself intelligibly, called at this office, accompanied by a friend to act as interpreter, to explain how his name came to be on the anti-State petition. Harmon is a miner, and he stated, through his interpreter, that, he and several fellow countrymen, were induced to sign that petition through the assurance given them by the party who solicited their names, that it was something to force mine owners to promptly pay their hands their wages. The men, being unable to read English, were unable to judge of the nature of the petition by reading it, and signed under the false impression already stated. Did anybody ever hear of such paltry, miserable shifts as these to which these anti-State petition originators have resorted? Their document is crowded with the names of children, too young to think or know anything about what they were doing, foreigners unable to speak English, dead men, and the forged names of living men! The petition and its originators are worthy of each other, and both are far beneath the contempt of all honorable men.

PAROWAN, June 3, 1872.

Editor Deseret News:

Dear Sir:—An interesting two days' meetings have just been held here, June 1st and 2nd, President E. Snow, Elders Joseph W. Young and a number of other home missionaries doing the preaching. Valuable instruction was given and much good done.

Very few grasshoppers have made their appearance here this spring. There is every prospect of a good crop this season, though but a small breadth has been sown for this place. Cause: lack of seed grain and fear of grasshoppers.

I believe editors abominate, as a general thing, long communications, therefore I close. Very respectfully,

W. C. MCGREGOR.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 10th.

Editor Deseret News.

Sir:—The name of George Atkins appears on the list of anti-state petitioners, published in your paper. In case any of my friends should imagine it to be me, I take the liberty of informing them that I never signed the petition nor any similar document, and, furthermore, I have not the slightest sympathy with the sentiments of the memorialists.

GEORGE ATKIN, of Tooele City.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 10th, 1872.

Editor Deseret News.

Sir:—I was very much astonished at seeing my name in your paper in connection with a petition against Utah being made a State. I can truthfully say I never signed any such petition. I did sign one with the full assurance that it was for a State. I have been waiting to see it contradicted, as the party that asked me to sign it promised to do so, putting me off with the excuse that it was too late for publication. I likewise saw my husband's name in the list, which hurt me very much. To say that he did not sign it would be false. He did do so, not thinking he was doing harm to any one. It is not his nature to do so. It is his wish for this to be made a State, he having voted for such. If you will give this publicity you will greatly oblige

Yours respectfully,

MARY and JOSEPH BRAITHWAITE.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 10th, 1872.

Editor Deseret News:

Sir:—My name was published in your paper as being signed to a petition opposing the admission of Utah into the Union as a State. I never signed that petition, and never authorized any one else to sign for me. I also wish to say that I have no sympathy with the memorialists who got up and signed that petition, and never intend to have any, unless they repent of their wickedness and folly. The only petition I ever signed in this City was one which those who solicited my name to it informed me was to be presented to the City Council to have 2nd South street graded.
