Elder Teasdale remarked that he knew the doctrines he advocated knew the doctrines he advocated were of God, that they were the doc-trines of the true gospel, the only plan of salvation, and that docent Smith, through whom they were revealed, was a prophet of the true and living God. He feltgrateful for a personal testimony of the truths of these principles, and if he did not possess that testimony, would never rise to his feet to defend those prin-ciples. He had received his testi-mony in answer to prayer, and in to man. The first thing taught by the "Mormon" preacher who came to him was, to discontinue the worship of such a being and worship the true and living God, then to repent, be immersed in water for the remission
